“Students come to school mad at the world”

BIGGEST HEALTH CHALLENGE

“Many students are attached to electronics which keeps students from getting outside and exercising” - Short Pump Elementary Principal (West End)

“Poverty. It’s difficult to be in a good mood and encouraged to learn when you come from a home with no food, clothes, heat, electricity, water, etc.”
- John Marshall High School Principal (Northside)

“School lunches and the general quality of the education, students that aren’t in Honors or AP classes don’t get any attention from teachers, which makes them feel like they can’t succeed” - Student at Highland Springs High School (Southside)
