

Mar 22nd, 11:10 AM - 12:30 PM

Artist Caucus

Jon Henry
James Madison University

Jasmin Ullah
James Madison University

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarship.richmond.edu/q-summit>

Part of the Gender and Sexuality Commons

Jon Henry and Jasmin Ullah, "Artist Caucus" (March 22, 2014). Q-Summit Gathering. Paper 4.
<http://scholarship.richmond.edu/q-summit/2014/schedule/4>

This Event is brought to you for free and open access by UR Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Q-Summit Gathering by an authorized administrator of UR Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact scholarshiprepository@richmond.edu.

QUEER ARTIST CAUCUS

@ Q-SUMMIT

ON SPACE

What space are you working in?

Think of:

Your institution's vision

Your institution's student body and/or community

ON QUEERNESS

Does your art engage queerness?

Think of:

How

Why

INTERSECTIONALITY

Does your art engage intersectional identity?

Think of:

Race

Class

Gender

ON ACTIVISM

Does your art engage activism?

If not, what does your activism consist of?

ON INSTITUTIONAL FAILURES

In what ways has your institution not supported, oppressed, or omitted queer arts?

Think:

Courses - Art History, Theory Courses

People - Students, Faculty, Visiting Artists

Social Issues - Heterosexism

Space - Classrooms, Structures, Exhibitions

ADDRESSING FAILURES & HICCUPS

How do we respond, support ourselves, learn, and create in face of these problems?

Think of:

DIY Projects

Reading Groups

Direct Action

RESOURCE SHARE

What Resources do you need to succeed,
create, and live?

Think of:

Community

Exhibition Space

Learning Environments

