General Statement

A Law School was first established in Richmond College in 1870. From the beginning there were able professors, but financial support was uncertain. In 1890 the family of the late Mr. T. C. Williams, who had been a devoted and useful trustee, donated $25,000 as the nucleus of an endowment for the Law School. In recognition of this gift, the name of the School was changed to the T. C. WILLIAMS SCHOOL OF LAW. At various times the School has received further generous gifts from members of the family of Mr. Williams. The largest of these gifts came through a bequest from Mr. T. C. Williams, Jr., who like his father, was long a trustee of Richmond College, and for twenty years was the efficient chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board. As a result of these several benefactions the endowment of the T. C. Williams School of Law now amounts to $281,700.00. The Law building and lot are valued at $84,700.00 and the equipment at $40,000.

The T. C. Williams School of Law is firmly established as an integral part of the University of Richmond. The degrees in law are conferred by the corporation of the University of Richmond.

AN ACCREDITED SCHOOL

The School is fully accredited by the recognized standardizing agencies in America. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools; is on the approved list of the American Bar Association; and its Bachelor of Laws degree is fully accredited by the Regents of the University of the State of New York.

The University of Richmond, of which the Law School is a component part, is on the accredited list of the Association of American Universities.

LOCATION

Since the close of the World War the Law School has occupied "Columbia," the original building of Richmond College. The location is on the old campus of Richmond College, at Lombardy and Grace Streets. In 1921 additional rooms were added, but the growth of the School induced the trustees to plan further building in 1924. A large wing fronting on Lombardy Street, and containing the library, six lecture-rooms, and necessary offices, was completed in September, 1924. The architecture is Colonial and conforms in all respects to the original building. With this new building the Law School can accommodate in its classes about 250 students.

Richmond is the seat of Virginia's government. The State Legislature and the City Council hold frequent sessions. All types of City and State courts, including the Supreme Court of Appeals, sit here, some of them continuously.

The Federal District and Circuit Court of Appeals hold regular terms in Richmond. The State Corporation Commission and the Industrial Commission hold their hearings here. These opportunities, in addition to Library, classroom and home work, afford unsurpassed practical ways of law study to the industrious student by his observation of law in the making and operation as he notes the various legislative, judicial and administrative departments of the State at work.

ORGANIZATION

Classes are conducted from 8:30 A. M. to 1:30 P. M., five days a week. Three years of residence, and the completion of eighty (80) semester hours are required for the degree. Regular attendance, satisfactory classroom discussion, and approved written examinations are required for graduation.

Academic Requirements: The law degree is conferred only upon "Candidates for the LL.B. degree."

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

The aim of the School is thoroughly to equip its graduates with legally trained minds. Several factors are happily combined to accomplish this result. The "case-system" of instruction is used in practically all courses. The student, particularly the beginner, is trained in the art of analysis and solution of legal problems by the application of logical reasoning. Attention is given to the principles of the Common Law; decisions of State and Federal courts; and particularly to such rules of law as are peculiar to Virginia. Substantive courses, dealing with the content of the law, are offered by full-time instructors. Adjective courses, dealing with the principles governing actual practice before judicial tribunals, are offered by associate instructors, all practicing attorneys and leading members of the city and State bars. The student is trained in the historical principles of law, but his attention is also directed to the most recent developments. By a combination of the above factors, a competent faculty offers a curriculum, well balanced in theoretical and practical courses, carefully selected to equip the graduate for the intelligent practice of law.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Candidates for the LL.B Degree: All applicants for admission must be at least eighteen years of age, and must present a certificate of graduation from a college or university of approved standing, or a transcript from the registrar of such institution showing fifteen college entrance units and the successful completion of at least two years of college work leading to a bachelor's degree in a standard college.

NOTE: The two years of college work must include sixty semester hours of college work, completed in residence, and exclusive of credit earned in non-theory courses in military science, hygiene, domestic arts, physical education, vocal or instrumental music, or other courses without intellectual content of substantial value. All such college work must have been passed with a scholastic average at least equal to the average required for graduation in the institutions attended.

This requirement complies with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and of the American Bar Association.

Prospective students, especially those living outside of Richmond, are advised to determine the question of their qualifications for admission by correspondence with the Dean. Applicants are urged to submit a transcript as soon as possible after the close of college in June for evaluation, so that summer work may be pursued if necessary to acquire the prerequisite sixty semester hours.

Special Students: Such students must at the time of their admission be twenty-three years of age, or older, and are admitted only in exceptional cases where the faculty has good reason for believing that their experience and training have specially equipped them to engage successfully in the study of law, despite their lack of the college credits required of candidates for the degree. Each applicant must submit in writing a statement setting forth his age, academic and business training, accompanied by letters of recommendation from two or more persons who have peculiar opportunities to form an opinion of his ability, character and seriousness of purpose.

Special students, as such, are not eligible for the degree, and no law credit gained by such students may at any time thereafter be credited toward the degree. A certificate of proficiency will be awarded to special students who complete the law course prescribed for regular students.

PRE-LEGAL EDUCATION

Although the completion of only two years of college work is required for entrance, prospective students are urged to pursue at least three years in college, and if possible obtain their Liberal Arts degree before entering upon law study. The courses ordinarily pursued in the Junior and Senior years of college are of especial value in preparation for law study and the practice that is to follow.

While no particular subjects are pre-requisite, the following are recommended as desirable pre-law courses: English, History, analytical courses in Science, Mathematics, Economics, Political Science, Corporate Finance, Accounting, Philosophy, Sociology, Psychology, Logic, and Public Speaking.

ADVANCED STANDING

An applicant for advanced standing must comply with the requirements for admission governing candidates for the LL.B. degree.

The adjustment of credit for law work completed in any other law school is determined by action of the law faculty after consideration of the facts in each case. Credit granted is always conditioned upon the successful completion of a year's work in this law school.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

Academic Requirements: The law degree is conferred only upon "Candidates for the LL.B. degree."

Subject Requirements: The applicant must have completed subjects totaling eighty (80) semester hours, including the following required subjects: Contracts I and II; Torts I and II; Personal Property; Real Property I; Criminal Law; Domestic Relations; Agency; Legal Bibliography; Common Law Actions; Equity I and II; Practice I and II; Evidence; Sales; Wills and Administration; Private Corporations; Constitutional Law; Legal Ethics; total 60 semester hours.

Scholastic Requirements: The passing grade is sixty (60). Not over twelve (12) semester hours of credit obtained on grades below sixty-two (62) may be counted toward graduation. Any student obtaining a passing grade under 62 in any class may take the next regular examination in that subject, without attending class recitations, for the purpose of raising said grade.

Only one such re-examination may be taken in any subject, and the grade obtained on such re-examination will be substituted for the original grade, whether it be higher or lower.

Time Requirements: Applicants listed as full-time students must have been in residence at this or another law school for a period of three academic years.

Applicants listed as part-time students must have been in such residence for a period of four academic years. Students gainfully employed for a substantial part of their time will be listed as part-time students.

Attendance during a full session of the Summer School is deemed equivalent to residence for one semester of the regular session.

Fees: The degree will not be conferred unless the applicant has paid all fees due the University.

COMBINED ACADEMIC AND LAW DEGREE

Students in Richmond College, the college of arts and sciences of the University of Richmond, may so combine their work in that school with the work in the T. C. Williams School of Law as to receive in six years the two degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws. Students who wish to make this arrangement must matriculate in the law school at the beginning of their fourth or senior year and must take such courses in the law school as may be assigned by the law faculty. Students who complete successfully their first year of assigned work in the law school will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts and will then receive the degree of Bachelor of Laws upon the completion of two additional years. Students desiring to make this arrangement should confer with the Dean of Richmond College and the Dean of the Law School before matriculation.

RULES OF ATTENDANCE AND SCHOLARSHIP

1. No student will be permitted to attend classes until he receives a written permit signed by the Dean or the Treasurer. Credit for attendance will not be given until the student presents a class card signed by the Dean and the Treasurer. Such card cannot be obtained until the student's admission has been approved by the Dean, and provision for payment of fees approved by the Treasurer.

2. Attendance upon all class exercises is required. Excuses for absences are not accepted. A student whose record shows absences exceeding fifteen in a four semester-hour subject, eleven in a three semester-hour subject, or seven in a two semester-hour subject, will not be entitled to take the examination given in such subject.

3. A first year student may not register for more than the required work, which is twenty-eight (28) semester hours.

4. A student in the second or third year may not register for new subjects in excess of thirty (30) semester hours, and the total number of semester hours in new subjects and those previously taken, but failed, shall not exceed thirty-four (34).

5. A student who fails to gain credit on two-thirds of the work for which he has registered will not be permitted to take in the following year more than the required work, including the subjects on which he failed to pass.

6. A student who fails to pass as much as 51 per cent of the work for which he is registered will not be permitted to matriculate again except by special action of the faculty.

7. Any student who, in the opinion of the faculty, fails to show promise of advancement in the study of the law will be advised to withdraw.

8. The passing grade is sixty (60).

9. A student who fails to complete a subject, but has received a grade of fifty or more therein, may, within the following year, take the regular examination without again attending the class. If, however, he fails on the second examination he must, as in all other cases of failure, again make the required attendance before he is entitled to take additional examinations.

A student who receives a grade of forty-nine or less, or fails to complete the subject within the following year, will not be permitted to take a subsequent examination in that subject without again attending the class.

10. Special examinations are not given.

11. A student who, with the consent of the Dean, does not take the regular examination in a subject with the class in which he is enrolled may take the next regular examination given in that subject.

12. In exceptional cases students may be permitted by the Dean to take an examination in absentia under such conditions as he may deem proper.

13. Unless announced otherwise by the instructor, the period for an examination will not exceed five hours in four semester-hour subjects, four hours in three semester-hour subjects, and three hours in two semester-hour subjects.

14. Examinations are conducted under the honor system.

GRADING SYSTEM

"A" is 80-100; "B" is 70-79; "C" is 60-69.

The passing grade of 60 has been selected in order to allow a range of grades wide enough to reflect the wide differences of ability between those students who are merely competent and those who are good or excellent. Grades are given on the theory that a grade of 100 would indicate a perfect understanding of the subject in question. Grades above 85 are unusual and indicate distinguished excellence.

PRIZES

In 1936, the Charles T. Norman prize, a gold medal, for the best all-around law graduate, was awarded to William Haven King, Richmond, Va.

The Delta Theta Phi prize, a law book, for the graduate making the highest average in adjective law, was awarded to Arthur R. Kingdon, Bluefield, W. Va.

The Callaghan & Co. prize, a "Cyclopedic Law Dictionary," for the first-year student who attains the highest average on all regular examinations in that class, was awarded to Joseph A. Alexander, Jr., Richmond, Va.

McNEILL LAW SOCIETY

The McNeill Law Society is named in memory of Walter Scott McNeill, beloved instructor in the school from 1905-1930. Monthly meetings are held at which time moot cases are argued, legal essays delivered, and recent decisions reported. Membership is limited to students who have attained a high scholastic average.

PRACTICE COURT

In order that the student may have some experience in the trial of cases before graduation, a course designated Practice Court, limited to Seniors, and carrying two semester hours of credit is offered.

Each student is required to argue one nisi prius and one appellate case, preparing all pleadings and taking all the steps necessary to the ultimate disposition of the case. Other students in the school act as witnesses and jurors, and prominent lawyers from the Richmond Bar act as judges.

LIBRARY

The law library occupies a large, well-lighted room in the law building. It contains some 10,000 volumes covering over 17,000 reports and embracing the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States; the decisions of the lower Federal Courts; the United States Code Annotated and other Federal codes and compiled statutes; the reports of all the state courts of last resort save one prior to the Reporter System; the complete Reporter System; the American Digest System; the select case series of annotated reports including American Decisions, American Reports, American State Reports, Lawyers Reports Annotated and American Law Reports; a collection of many law encyclopedias including American and English Encyclopedia of Law and Procedure, Ruling Case Law, Corpus Juris-Cyc, and others; the leading legal periodicals, law reviews, reference books and treatises; the codes and Acts of the Virginia House of Burgesses and General Assembly from early times to date; the codes of neighboring states. In addition, the library contains the full English Reprint; the English Law Reports; Halsbury's Laws of England; English and Empire Digest.

Students have access without charge to the main library of the University, the State Law Library, and other public libraries.
