

1963

Foreword

William T. Muse
University of Richmond

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarship.richmond.edu/lawreview>

 Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

William T. Muse, Foreword, 2 U. Rich. L. Rev. ii (1963).

Available at: <https://scholarship.richmond.edu/lawreview/vol2/iss1/2>

This Prefatory Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at UR Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Richmond Law Review by an authorized editor of UR Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact scholarshiprepository@richmond.edu.

FOREWORD

Five years ago when the first issue of the University of Richmond Law Notes was published, the hope was expressed that the articles in that number and the succeeding ones would be of practical value to the lawyers of Virginia. The Faculty of the Law School are gratified at the reception given the Law Notes. To serve the profession has been our main objective. However, from the beginning, plans were made for student participation in the preparation of the materials as well as in the business management of this publication.

The Spring, 1962, issue carried the first article prepared by a student. In this issue the two leading articles have been written by members of the Faculty. The case notes have been prepared by students, all members of McNeill Law Society. This year, in addition to a Faculty Editor, there has been a Student Editor and the Business Manager has had the assistance of a Student Business Manager. It is not proposed that the increased student participation will alter the familiar format, objective, or type of material included.

Volume 2 begins with this issue. The first five Numbers comprise Volume 1. The Index to Volume 1, included in the front of this issue, should be removed and permanently bound with the first five issues as Volume 1.

Your comments and suggestions are solicited.

WILLIAM T. MUSE, Dean

March 25, 1963

