TORTS Quiz

Mr. Muse

November 4, 1955

A, aged 12, reaches through a fence and picks up a stone from B's land and throws it at C, a playmate. The stone missed its mark and went in the direction of D, a bystander. D, in dodging the stone, inadvertently bumped into E, knocking from E's grasp a costly vase belonging to F which was being carried by E. E, thinking D was attacking him, struck F knocking him unconscious. What torts, if any, have been committed? Against whom? By whom? Why or why not?
