A cam to B's house carrying a portrait of B's old enemy, X. When B opened the door A showed him the portrait and B spit on it. A then attacked B, knocking him down inside the house and grappled with him on the floor. C, A's wife who had accompanied him, stepped inside, closed and bolted the door to prevent neighbors from interfering. As soon as B had been subdued A and C left taking with them the portrait which had been ruined in the scuffle. What torts, if any, have been committed? By whom? Against whom? Why? Why not?
