Richard Becker, Coordinator of Piano Studies at the University of Richmond, is a pianist, composer, and chamber musician whose playing has been acclaimed in Europe and America. Playing on many college campuses, he has frequently toured the eastern United States. Becker has performed at New York's Alice Tully Hall, Town Hall, 92nd Street Y, and Carnegie Hall; Washington DC's Library of Congress and National Gallery of Art; and at the French Embassy. In Paris he performed at the Salle Cortot as First Prize Laureate of the French Piano Institute, at l'Ecole Normale de Musique, and at the Salle Edmond Michelet, a venue of the Cité Internationale des Arts, where he has been a frequent artist-in-residence. As a composer, Becker has been a MacDowell Colony Fellow and was a nominee for an American Academy of Arts and Letters award.

His performances and his own music have been broadcast on NPR, Voice of America, WNYC, WETA, WGMS, and WCVE, and have also been featured during a Marshall University Artist Residency, at national conferences of the Music Teachers National Association, at CMS Mid-Atlantic, at Brattleboro Chamber Festival, at the American Music Festival of the National Gallery, and at the James Madison University Contemporary Music and the Roxbury (NY) Music Festivals. Becker has received grants from Meet the Composer and Contemporary Music Studio, as well as critical acclaim in the press. His playing has been described as "powerful" by the Washington Post, "admirable in taste and technique" by The New York Times, and "brilliant with seamless passagework and elegant phrasing" by the Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Continued ....

Becker's playing is grounded in the tradition of Arthur Schnabel, acquired during his study with Leonard Shure while at Boston University (M. Mus.). His teaching owes much to the methods of Tobias Matthay, learned from Cecile Staub Genhart at the Eastman School of Music (B. Mus. and Performers Certificate). Becker taught at the University of Texas and Boston University prior to joining the faculty at the University of Richmond.

In recent years, Becker's poetry has been published in journals such as America, Columbia, Visions-International, and Cold Mountain, and his poetic sequence, FATES, appeared as a chapbook of The Literary Review (Summer 2008) in print and online. His compositions have been recorded on CRS and his piano performances on Albany Records.

Pianist Doris Wylee-Becker received her B.A. from the University of Richmond and M. Mus. from Peabody Conservatory of Johns Hopkins University. She has studied and performed at Aspen Music Festival, PianoSummer at New Paltz, and Chautauqua Music Festival. She currently teaches piano at Collegiate School and privately at home.
