Katherine Cook was born and raised in Kenilworth, IL, just outside of Chicago. She attended New Trier High School and is a music and chemistry double major as well as a four-year Division-1 springboard diver on the swimming and diving team at the University of Richmond. She has been playing flute since she was ten years old and piano since she was two and a half. Katherine currently studies flute under Jennifer Lawson and previously studied piano under Richard Becker. She plans to pursue a career in organic chemistry after graduating in May 2015.
