2013

Criminal Law: Cases and Comments

Ronald J. Bacigal

University of Richmond, rbacigal@richmond.edu

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.richmond.edu/law-faculty-publications

Part of the Criminal Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Ronald J. Bacigal et. al., Criminal Law: Cases and Comments (Foundation Press 9th ed. 2013).

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Law at UR Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Law Faculty Publications by an authorized administrator of UR Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact scholarshiprepository@richmond.edu.
UNIVERSITY CASEBOOK SERIES®

CRIMINAL LAW

CASES AND COMMENTS

NINTH EDITION

by

ANDRE A. MOENSSENS
Professor of Law Emeritus
University of Richmond, Virginia
Douglas Stripp Professor of Law Emeritus
University of Missouri at Kansas City

RONALD J. BACIGAL
Professor of Law
University of Richmond, Virginia

GERALD G. ASHDOWN
James H. and June M. Harless Professor of Law
West Virginia University

ADAM M. GERSHOWITZ
Professor of Law
William and Mary Law School

FOUNDATION PRESS
The 2013 ninth edition of Cases and Comments on Criminal Law has undergone substantial renovations, which we hope will encourage both new and established professors to give it serious consideration for adoption in their classes. First, and foremost, the contributing authors have changed. After many editions as both contributing author and lead editor, Andre Moenssens has retired and turned management of the book over to Gerry Ashdown at West Virginia University, who has participated in the last three editions. In addition, Adam Gershowitz at William and Mary has taken over for Ginny Hench, who has decided to leave the book. Although the format of the subject matter structure, which has proven successful and eminently workable in the classroom has been maintained, many new cases have been added to strike new themes designed to modernize and make the book more meaningful for contemporary law students. Most importantly, a number of the chapters have been substantially reworked to make them more accessible to teachers and students alike.

Chapter 6 has been revised and expanded to offer a fuller picture of the important and difficult problem of sexual assault. The chapter now begins with data about the prevalence of sexual violence. Seminal cases have been added, including Commonwealth v. Berkowitz and In the Interest of MTS, to explore the development of the law of acquaintance rape. The new edition also contains new cases and materials that analyze fraud in the inducement, withdrawn consent, a historical review of the spousal exception, and the development of rape shield laws.

Chapter 7 has been revised considerably to demonstrate to students how the law of theft developed from early common law to modern day. The chapter retains the previous edition’s core cases about the law of larceny, but it has been expanded to include separate sections and clearer demarcations for the crimes of larceny by trick, false pretenses, and embezzlement. For each of the core topics, classic cases have been added—for instance, The King v. Peer and The King v. Bazeley—as well as new modern day decisions. The revised chapter also includes a new section on the consolidation of theft offenses so that students can see how jurisdictions have enacted statutes in an attempt to simplify the law of theft.

In Chapter 8 the materials on RICO liability have been considerably reduced to make room for expanded analysis of the law of attempt, accessorialship, and conspiracy. The revised chapter includes much more detailed consideration of the question of how courts separate mere preparation from an actual attempt. In addition to adding classic cases (such as People v. Rizzo), the chapter tackles cutting edge questions such as aborted drug purchases and attempts to manufacture methamphetamine. In the accessorialship section, new cases have been included that attempt to distinguish between people who were merely present in drug neighborhoods and those who acted as accomplices by serving as lookouts. Important new materials have also been added for the digital world; the revised chapter includes recent cases about internet predators attempting to solicit undercover officers, and high school students disseminating child pornography.

In addition to the core materials from previous editions, Chapter 11 now includes classic cases (such as Parsons and Durham) that explain the various tests for determining insanity. The chapter also includes updated and expanded materials on attempts to abolish or limit the insanity de-ence. We have also added additional cases and notes on the important is­sue of expert testimony in insanity cases.

In the 8th edition, a new chapter on “Crimes Against Governmental Authority” was added, and this has been maintained in the new ninth edition for those who want to expose students to this branch of the use of the criminal sanction. Although the impetus for this chapter was provided by the government’s response to recent terrorist threats, the chapter covers how the state historically has dealt with both physical and sociopolitical challenges to its authority and the welfare of its citizens. After a brief history of governmental acts to defend itself, beginning with sedition at the end of the 18th Century, the chapter covers how traditional crimes have been used by the state in this capacity, and then takes up statutes that have been enacted explicitly to deal with threats to governmental authority, such as crimes aimed at communism, the USA PATRIOT Act, and at material support of terrorist organizations. This chapter was developed to provide a contemporary setting for showing how the criminal law is utilized to combat threats in a nontraditional area of the first-year course of crimi­nal law, and we hope it appeals to those who prefer both the contemporary and the nontraditional.

The basic structure, that begins the study of criminal law by focusing on general concepts of criminality, has been maintained. The coverage and organization of these materials have been geared carefully to the goals of the first-year class in criminal law. Thus, we begin with a study of act, intent, lack of intent, proximate cause, and burdens of proof. In the selection of current cases for inclusion as new principal cases and in the notes, we have sought to focus on those dealing with criminal law developments in modern code states, which frequently liberally discuss the Model Penal Code’s suggested revisions of the law, while at the same time not neglecting coverage of traditional common law concepts, which are important both for their historical perspective and because they are still very much the law in a number of jurisdictions.

The Notes and Questions have been updated where desirable to reflect variations on the principal cases in modern factual circumstances. Additionally, problems (with citations to the cases they reflect), which were added to the Notes beginning with the seventh edition, have been maintained and expanded to permit exploration of conceptual nuances in a context less directive than case analysis.

As in the past, our book starts with a brief outline of criminal proce­dure. We believe it essential that a beginning student have an insight into the criminal justice process as a prerequisite to a proper understanding of the cases on substantive criminal law. As in prior editions, the book ends with an Appendix containing pertinent provisions of the United States Constitution and its Amendments. Since these provisions are liberally re­ferred to in many cases, the student has ready access to their precise word­ing.
We think that the ninth edition is a substantial modernization of a casebook that began in 1973 with the venerable Fred E. Inbau of Northwestern University. We hope that professors who are choosing a criminal law book for the first time, or are looking to change, will give it the serious consideration that any really new book on the market deserves.

A. A. M.

R. J. B.

G. G. A.

A. M. G.

May 2013
SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

PREFACE ................................................................. V

TABLE OF CASES .................................................. XXVII

PART 1. THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM LEGAL CONCEPTS OF CRIMINALITY

Chapter 1. Overview of Criminal Procedure ........................................... 3
A. Procedure Between Arrest and Trial ................................................. 3
B. The Trial ............................................................................................ 6
C. Post-Trial Proceedings ..................................................................... 10
D. Criminal Justice Professionals ...................................................... 12

Chapter 2. Essential Concepts of Criminality ....................................... 15
A. The Prohibited Conduct—"Actus Reus" ......................................... 15
B. Mental State—"Mens Rea" ................................................................. 34
C. The Causal Connection ................................................................. 94
D. Burden of Proof ............................................................................. 117

Chapter 3. The Power to Create Crimes and Its Limitations .............. 153
A. Sources of the Criminal Law ......................................................... 154
B. Problems in Defining Criminal Conduct ........................................ 214

Chapter 4. Constitutional Limitations on Defining Criminal Conduct ................................................................. 231
A. Due Process, Vagueness, Overbreadth and the First Amendment .... 231
B. The Right to Privacy and to Equal Protection .................................... 260
C. The Prohibition Against Cruel and Unusual Punishment .......... 296
D. Exclusion of Evidence From Criminal Trials ...................................... 369

PART 2. CRIMES

Chapter 5. Homicides ......................................................................... 377
A. Murder ........................................................................................... 377
B. Voluntary Manslaughter .................................................................. 466
C. Justifiable Use of Deadly Force ...................................................... 474
D. Involuntary Manslaughter ............................................................... 516

Chapter 6. "Sex" Offenses and Related Problems ............................... 525
A. Rape (Criminal Sexual Assault) ................................................... 525
B. Special Issues of Proof in Rape Cases ............................................. 589

Chapter 7. Misappropriation and Related Property Offenses ............ 617
A. The Pigeon Hole Problem at Common Law ................................... 617
B. Larceny .......................................................................................... 619
C. Larceny by Trick .......................................................................... 660
D. False Pretenses ............................................................................ 665
E. Embezzlement ............................................................................. 673
SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

F. Receiving and Transporting Stolen Property and Related Offenses ................................................................. 683
G. Consolidation of Theft Offenses ......................................................................................................................... 689
H. Extortion ................................................................................................................................................................ 695
I. Robbery ................................................................................................................................................................ 700
J. Burglary: Common Law and Modern Statutes .................................................................................................... 709
K. Arson ................................................................................................................................................................... 724

Chapter 8. Uncompleted Criminal Conduct and Criminal Combinations ........................................................................... 731
A. Attempt ................................................................................................................................................................. 731
B. Accessoryship: Aiding and Abetting ...................................................................................................................... 783
C. Solicitation .......................................................................................................................................................... 814
D. Conspiracy .......................................................................................................................................................... 825

PART 3. SPECIAL DEFENSES TO CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

Chapter 9. Entrapment ....................................................................................................................................... 871
A. The Development of an American Legal Defense to Crime .................................................................................. 871
B. Limitations on Use of the Defense .......................................................................................................................... 898
C. Due Process Violations or Entrapment as a Matter of Law .................................................................................. 904

Chapter 10. Compulsion, Intoxication, Automatism and Other Non-Controllable Factors ........................................... 929
A. Compulsion ........................................................................................................................................................... 929
B. Intoxication .......................................................................................................................................................... 954
C. Automatism .......................................................................................................................................................... 979
D. Syndrome Defenses ............................................................................................................................................. 985

Chapter 11. Insanity at Time of the Prohibited Act and Competency to Stand Trial ........................................................... 1001
A. Distinguishing Competency from Insanity ........................................................................................................... 1001
B. The M'Naghten (Right/Wrong) Test ....................................................................................................................... 1002
C. The Irresistible Impulse Test ................................................................................................................................... 1020
D. The “Product” Test ............................................................................................................................................... 1025
F. The Federal Test ...................................................................................................................................................... 1032
G. Diminished Responsibility .................................................................................................................................... 1033
H. Attempts to Abolish or Limit the Insanity Defense ................................................................................................ 1039
I. The Weight of Psychiatric Testimony .................................................................................................................... 1052
J. Special Problems with Detention of Insanity Acquittees ....................................................................................... 1063
K. Special Issues of Proof in Insanity Defense Cases ................................................................................................. 1064
PART 4. OFFENSES AGAINST SOVEREIGNTY

Chapter 12. Offenses Against Government Authority .................. 1069
A. Introduction. Historical Overview of Crimes Against
   Government ................................................................. 1069
B. Investigation ................................................................. 1076
C. The Use of Traditional Offenses to Combat Threats to the State ... 1086
D. Crimes Designed to Protect the State .................................. 1109
E. Non-Constitutional Defenses ........................................... 1185

APPENDIX—RELEVANT PROVISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES
   CONSTITUTION AND ITS AMENDMENTS .............................. 1175

INDEX ................................................................................. 1179
TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE .............................................................................................................. V
TABLE OF CASES .......................................................................................... XXVII

PART 1. THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM LEGAL CONCEPTS OF CRIMINALITY

Chapter 1. Overview of Criminal Procedure .............................................. 3
A. Procedure Between Arrest and Trial .................................................. 3
   1. Pre-Arrest Investigations.............................................................. 3
   2. Arrest ........................................................................................... 4
   3. Booking Process ........................................................................ 4
   4. First Appearance Before a Judicial Officer—Bail ....................... 4
   5. Preliminary Hearing .................................................................. 5
   6. Grand Jury Indictment ............................................................... 5
   7. Arraignment and Plea ................................................................. 5
   8. Pre-Trial Motions ...................................................................... 5
B. The Trial ................................................................................................. 6
   1. The Right to a Speedy Trial ......................................................... 7
   2. Defendant’s Right to the Assistance of an Attorney ................. 7
   3. The Right to a Jury Trial ............................................................. 7
   4. Jury Selection ............................................................................. 7
   5. Opening Statements .................................................................. 8
   6. The Prosecution’s Evidence ...................................................... 8
   7. The Defendant’s Evidence ......................................................... 8
   8. Closing Arguments ................................................................... 9
   9. Instructions of the Court to the Jury ......................................... 9
  10. The Verdict of the Jury ................................................................. 9
  11. The Motion for a New Trial......................................................... 9
  12. Sentencing .................................................................................. 10
C. Post-Trial Proceedings ........................................................................ 10
   1. Probation ................................................................................... 10
   2. Parole ......................................................................................... 11
   3. The Appeal ................................................................................ 11
   4. Collateral Attack and Habeas Corpus ...................................... 11
D. Criminal Justice Professionals ............................................................ 12
   1. Law Enforcement Agencies ...................................................... 12
   2. Prosecutorial Agencies ............................................................... 12
   3. The Defense Function ............................................................... 12
   4. The Courts ................................................................................ 13
   5. The Coroner and the Medical Examiner .................................. 13
   6. Magistrates ............................................................................... 13
   7. Court Clerks ............................................................................. 14
   8. Probation Officers .................................................................... 14
   9. Paralegals ................................................................................ 14
Note ........................................................................................................... 14
Table of Contents

Chapter 2. Essential Concepts of Criminality

A. The Prohibited Conduct—“Actus Reus”

1. Voluntary Act
   - State v. Hinkle
   - Notes and Questions
2. The Act of Possession
   - State v. Fox
   - Notes and Questions
3. Inaction
   - State v. Miranda
   - Notes and Questions

B. Mental State—“Mens Rea”

1. Specific and General Intent
   - State v. Trinkle
   - State v. Rocker
   - Notes
2. Model Penal Code Approach
3. Transferred Intent
   - Sagner v. State
   - Notes and Questions
4. Recklessness and Criminal Negligence
   - Santillanes v. State
   - Notes and Questions
5. Strict Liability and Lack of Criminal Intent as a Defense
   - State v. Loge
   - State v. Guminga
   - Notes and Questions
6. Mistake and Ignorance
   - People v. Hernandez
   - Notes
   - United States of America v. United States District Court for the Central District of California (Kantor)
   - Notes
   - People v. Urziceanu
   - Notes and Questions
   - Ratzlaf v. United States
   - Notes and Questions

C. The Causal Connection

- People v. Dlugash
- United States v. Hatfield
- Notes and Questions
- People v. Rideout
- Notes and Questions
- State v. Grose
- Notes and Questions
- Velazquez v. State
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>114</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. Burden of Proof</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. From the Common Law to the Constitution</td>
<td>117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In re Winship</td>
<td>117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Presumptions and Shifting the Burden of Proof</td>
<td>121</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patterson v. New York</td>
<td>121</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dixon v. United States</td>
<td>129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>132</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ring v. Arizona</td>
<td>132</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>136</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sandstrom v. Montana</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>142</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>County Court of Ulster County v. Allen</td>
<td>143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>151</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chapter 3. The Power to Create Crimes and Its Limitations</td>
<td>153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Sources of the Criminal Law</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Common Law</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shaw v. Director of Public Prosecutions</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Statutes and Judicial Construction</td>
<td>161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Administrative Regulations</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hobbs v. Jones</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States v. Mitchell</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. The Federal-State Dichotomy</td>
<td>183</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(A) The Constitution and Federal “Common Law”</td>
<td>183</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The United States v. Hudson and Goodwin</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(B) Direct Federal Interest Offenses</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sonzinsky v. United States</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Note</td>
<td>187</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States v. Sharpnack</td>
<td>188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(C) The “Necessary and Proper” Offenses</td>
<td>188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States v. States</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Note</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(D) The Commerce Clause Offenses</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gonzales v. Raich</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(E) Civil Rights Offenses</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(F) Federal Prosecutorial Discretion and State Law</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Enforcement</td>
<td>208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States v. Jones</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Problems in Defining Criminal Conduct</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Suicide and Assisted Suicide</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Washington v. Glucksberg</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Table of Contents

Notes ........................................................................................................................................ 221
2. Defining “Dangerous” and “Deadly” .................................................................................. 222
   Commonwealth v. Davis ................................................................................................. 222
   United States v. Moore ................................................................................................. 225
   Note .................................................................................................................................... 229

Chapter 4. Constitutional Limitations on Defining Criminal Conduct ................................... 231
A. Due Process, Vagueness, Overbreadth and the First Amendment .................................... 231
   Papachristou v. City of Jacksonville ................................................................................ 231
   City of Chicago v. Morales ............................................................................................ 236
   Gooding, Warden v. Wilson ............................................................................................ 244
   R.A.V. v. City of St. Paul, Minnesota .............................................................................. 247
   Notes and Questions ....................................................................................................... 252
   Reno v. American Civil Liberties Union ......................................................................... 253
   Notes and Questions ....................................................................................................... 259
B. The Right to Privacy and to Equal Protection ................................................................... 260
   1. Origin of the Right of Privacy .................................................................................... 260
      Griswold v. Connecticut .............................................................................................. 260
      Notes and Questions ................................................................................................. 267
   2. Abortion as a Privacy Right ......................................................................................... 269
      Roe v. Wade .............................................................................................................. 269
      Notes and Questions ................................................................................................. 280
   3. Consensual Sodomy ..................................................................................................... 283
      Lawrence v. Texas ....................................................................................................... 284
      Notes ......................................................................................................................... 294
C. The Prohibition Against Cruel and Unusual Punishment ................................................. 296
   1. Punishment for Narcotic Addiction and Alcoholism .................................................... 296
      Robinson v. California ................................................................................................. 296
      Note ............................................................................................................................ 304
   2. The Death Penalty ........................................................................................................ 304
      Gregg v. Georgia ........................................................................................................ 304
      Notes ............................................................................................................................ 316
      McCleskey v. Kemp ..................................................................................................... 321
      Notes and Questions ................................................................................................. 329
      Atkins v. Virginia ........................................................................................................ 330
      Roper v. Simmons ....................................................................................................... 343
      Notes ............................................................................................................................ 356
   3. Disproportionality of Sentences .................................................................................... 357
      Rummel v. Estelle, Corrections Director .................................................................... 357
      Notes and Questions ................................................................................................. 367
D. Exclusion of Evidence From Criminal Trials ................................................................... 369
   Mapp v. Ohio .................................................................................................................. 369
   Notes and Questions ....................................................................................................... 373

PART 2. CRIMES

Chapter 5. Homicides .............................................................................................................. 377
A. Murder .................................................................................................................................. 377
   1. When Does Death Occur? ......................................................................................... 377
Table of Contents

(A) Proving Death—The “Corpus Delicti” ........................................ 378
State v. Grisso ............................................................. 378
Notes ........................................................................... 381

2. When Does Life Begin? ................................................ 384
Keeler v. Superior Court ............................................... 384
Notes ........................................................................... 393

3. The Malice Factor ...................................................... 395
Commonwealth v. Webster ........................................... 395
Notes: “Malice Aforethought” ........................................ 401
State v. Guthrie ............................................................. 403
Midgett v. State .............................................................. 410
Notes ........................................................................... 417
Langford v. State ............................................................ 419
Notes ........................................................................... 422

4. Euthanasia—“Mercy Killings” ...................................... 423
Notes ........................................................................... 424
People v. Kevorkian ...................................................... 425

5. Felony Murder .......................................................... 434
Commonwealth v. Almeida ........................................... 434
Notes ........................................................................... 436
Commonwealth ex rel. Smith v. Myers ............................ 437
Notes ........................................................................... 444
Muhammad v. Commonwealth ........................................ 446
Notes ........................................................................... 456
People v. Salas ................................................................. 457
Notes ........................................................................... 463
Note: The Lindbergh—Hauptmann Case ......................... 464
Note ............................................................................. 465
Note: Elimination of the Felony—Murder Rule ................ 465

B. Voluntary Manslaughter .................................................. 466
Director of Public Prosecutions Appellant v. Camplin ....... 467
Note ............................................................................. 471
Note: What Constitutes Provocation ............................... 471
Note: Cooling of Blood ................................................. 473

C. Justifiable Use of Deadly Force ........................................... 474
1. Self Defense ............................................................. 474
People v. Goetz ............................................................. 474
Notes ........................................................................... 479
Note: The “Retreat Rule” or “Castle Doctrine” .................. 480
Note: The “Imperfect” Self-Defense ............................... 481
Commonwealth v. Cary ............................................... 482
Notes ........................................................................... 491

2. Defense of Others ....................................................... 493
State v. Beeley ............................................................... 493
Notes ........................................................................... 496

3. Defense of Habitation .................................................. 497
People v. McNeese ......................................................... 497
Notes ........................................................................... 502

4. Defense of Property Other Than a Dwelling .................. 503
TABLE OF CONTENTS

5. Prevention of Felony and Apprehension of Dangerous Felons ...503
6. Deadly Force by Police Officers ................................................. 504
   Tennessee v. Garner .................................................................. 504
   Notes ........................................................................................... 511
7. Forcibly Resisting Arrest ............................................................ 513
   Commonwealth v. Hill ................................................................. 513
D. Involuntary Manslaughter ........................................................... 516
   State v. Horton ............................................................................. 516
   Note ................................................................................................ 518
   People v. Marshall ........................................................................ 518
   Commonwealth v. Feinberg ......................................................... 520
   Notes ........................................................................................... 522

Chapter 6. “Sex” Offenses and Related Problems ...............................525
A. Rape (Criminal Sexual Assault) .................................................. 525
   1. The Prevalence of the Problem .................................................. 525
      Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, The National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey 2010
      Summary Report (2011) ................................................................. 525
      Notes ............................................................................................ 528
   2. The Actus Reus of Rape and Sexual Assault: The Issues of Force and Consent ................................................................... 528
      (A) Unconscious or Impaired Victims ........................................... 529
          Commonwealth v. Urban ................................................................. 529
          Notes ........................................................................................ 532
      (B) Developmentally Disabled Victims ........................................ 532
          People v. Thompson ................................................................. 532
          Notes: Impaired or Developmentally Disabled Victims .......... 537
      (C) Fraud in the Inducement and Fraud in the Factum .......... 538
          Boro v. Superior Court ................................................................. 538
          Notes: Fraud and Rape .............................................................. 541
      (D) “Statutory” Rape ................................................................. 543
          Garnett v. State .......................................................................... 544
          Notes on Statutory Rape ........................................................... 547
      (E) Acquaintance Rape: Does Acquiescence Equal Consent? .... 549
          State v. Rusk ............................................................................. 549
          Notes ........................................................................................ 560
          Commonwealth v. Berkowitz ....................................................... 562
          Notes ........................................................................................ 570
          State of New Jersey In the Interest of M.T.S. ......................... 571
          Notes ........................................................................................ 578
      (F) Withdrawn Consent ............................................................... 580
          State v. Bunyard ......................................................................... 580
          Notes on Withdrawal of Consent .............................................. 583
   2. “Unlawful” Carnal Knowledge: The Spousal Exception .......... 584
      People v. Liberta ......................................................................... 585
      Notes on Marital Rape ................................................................. 588
TABLE OF CONTENTS

B. Special Issues of Proof in Rape Cases.......................... 589
   1. "Rape Shield" Statutes........................................... 589
      State v. Johnson.................................................. 589
      Notes...................................................................... 589
      State v. Colbath.................................................. 591
      Notes...................................................................... 591
   2. Charging Issues................................................... 602
      State v. Rummer.................................................. 602
      Notes: Multiple Charges in Sex Assault Cases.......... 614

Chapter 7. Misappropriation and Related Property Offenses...... 617
A. The Pigeon Hole Problem at Common Law.................... 617
   Weldon v. State...................................................... 617
   Notes...................................................................... 618
B. Larceny..................................................................... 619
   1. Elements of Larceny............................................. 620
      (A) Mens Rea: Intent to Deprive............................ 621
         Hugo v. City of Fairbanks................................. 621
         United States v. Donato–Morales...................... 627
         Notes on Intent to Deprive............................... 632
         Problems: Intent to Deprive.............................. 634
      (B) Actus Reus: Taking and Carrying Away............ 634
         State v. Donaldson............................................ 635
         Lee v. State..................................................... 638
         Problems: "Taking and Carrying Away"................. 642
      (C) Property of Another........................................ 643
         (1) What is "Property" for Purposes of Larceny and Theft?..... 643
         Notes: Property Capable of Being Stolen............... 645
         (2) What is Property "of another?"......................... 647
            In re the Personal Restraint of John Tortorelli........ 647
            Note on Taking of Abandoned, Lost Found Goods........ 654
      (D) Grades of Larceny........................................... 655
         DiMaio v. Commonwealth.................................... 656
         Notes: Valuation............................................... 658
C. Larceny by Trick..................................................... 660
   The King v. Pear..................................................... 660
   Notes...................................................................... 661
   State v. Bugely..................................................... 662
   Notes...................................................................... 664
D. False Pretenses....................................................... 665
   Baker v. Commonwealth.......................................... 666
   Note........................................................................ 666
   Davies v. Commonwealth........................................ 666
   Notes...................................................................... 668
   People v. DeWald................................................... 669
   Notes...................................................................... 671
E. Embezzlement.......................................................... 673
   The King v. Bazeley................................................ 673
TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>677</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. Lough</td>
<td>678</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F. Receiving and Transporting Stolen Property and Related Offenses</td>
<td>683</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>People v. Rife</td>
<td>683</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>685</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. Chester</td>
<td>686</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>687</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>G. Consolidation of Theft Offenses</td>
<td>689</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>694</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>H. Extortion</td>
<td>695</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. Harrington</td>
<td>695</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>697</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Robbery</td>
<td>700</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Elements of Robbery</td>
<td>700</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(A) The Mens Rea of Robbery</td>
<td>701</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas v. State</td>
<td>701</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on Claim of Right in Robbery Cases</td>
<td>704</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(B) Force, Fear and Intimidation Issues</td>
<td>705</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commonwealth v. Cruz</td>
<td>705</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on Robbery</td>
<td>707</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Armed Robbery</td>
<td>708</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on Armed Robbery</td>
<td>708</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. Burglary: Common Law and Modern Statutes</td>
<td>709</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Elements of Common Law Burglary</td>
<td>709</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Interpreting the Common Law and Modern Statutory</td>
<td>710</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Elements of Burglary</td>
<td>710</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(A) &quot;Breaking and Entering&quot;</td>
<td>710</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(B) The Dwelling House of Another</td>
<td>711</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. Wentz</td>
<td>713</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Note</td>
<td>717</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(C) Nighttime</td>
<td>718</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(D) With Intent to Commit a Felony</td>
<td>719</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Massey v. United States</td>
<td>723</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>723</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>K. Arson</td>
<td>724</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. Rogers</td>
<td>724</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapter 8. Uncompleted Criminal Conduct and Criminal Combinations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. Attempt</td>
<td>731</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Punishing Attempts</td>
<td>731</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes: Punishing Attempts</td>
<td>732</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harrison v. State</td>
<td>734</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes: Mens Rea in Criminal Attempts</td>
<td>746</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. Hemmer</td>
<td>748</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes: What May Be Attempted?</td>
<td>752</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Actus Reus of Attempt</td>
<td>753</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>People v. Rizzo</td>
<td>754</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Section</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Overview and Introduction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>The Doctrine of Accessoryship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Accessoryship: Aiding and Abetting</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Solicitation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Conspiracy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Notes: The Difficulty of Defining Attempt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>United States v. Joyce</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>United States v. Yossunthorn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Kolmeier v. State</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Notes: Equipment and Criminal Attempts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Impossibility of Completion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Hix v. Commonwealth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Notes: Impossible Attempts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Renunciation or Abandonment of Attempts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>xxii</td>
<td>Problem: Renunciation or Abandonment of Criminal Attempts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>783</td>
<td>Accessoryship: Aiding and Abetting</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>783</td>
<td>Evolution of Accessoryship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>784</td>
<td>What Mens Rea Is Required of an Accessory?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>785</td>
<td>Oates v. State</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>788</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>791</td>
<td>People v. Medina</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>797</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>797</td>
<td>The Actus Reus of Accessoryship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>801</td>
<td>United States v. Ortiz</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>804</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>805</td>
<td>Limitations on Accessoryship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>808</td>
<td>Miller v. Skumanick</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>812</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>812</td>
<td>Hindering Prosecution: Accessories After the Fact and Related Offenses</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>813</td>
<td>Notes: Post-Crime Assistance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>814</td>
<td>Solicitation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>825</td>
<td>Conspiracy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>826</td>
<td>Krulewitch v. United States</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>828</td>
<td>The Agreement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>829</td>
<td>Multiple Agreements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>831</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>832</td>
<td>Unilateral and Bilateral Conspiracies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>840</td>
<td>State of Connecticut v. Jose Colón</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>841</td>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>841</td>
<td>Wharton's Rule and Necessary Parties</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>841</td>
<td>People v. Lee</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Notes ....................................................................................... 849
(D) “Wheel and Spoke” and “Chain” Conspiracies ................. 851
State v. Samuel Maduro .................................................. 851
Notes ....................................................................................... 855
2. Scope of Co-Conspirator Liability ........................................... 856
United States v. Falcone .................................................. 856
Notes ....................................................................................... 859
Pinkerton v. United States .................................................. 862
Notes: Conspirator Liability .................................................. 864

PART 3. SPECIAL DEFENSES TO CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

Chapter 9. Entrapment .......................................................... 871
A. The Development of an American Legal Defense to Crime .... 871
United States v. Russell .................................................. 872
Hampton v. United States .................................................. 882
Jacobson v. United States .................................................. 885
Notes and Questions ....................................................... 894
B. Limitations on Use of the Defense ........................................... 898
Mathews v. United States .................................................. 898
Notes ....................................................................................... 903
C. Due Process Violations or Entrapment as a Matter of Law .... 904
1. Entrapment as a Matter of Law ........................................... 905
United States v. Knox ..................................................... 905
State v. Blanco ............................................................... 910
2. Sentencing Entrapment, Sentencing Manipulation, and the Due Process Defense ................................................. 916
People v. Smith et al. ....................................................... 916
Notes and Questions ....................................................... 923
3. Perjury Entrapment ........................................................... 926
U.S. v. Sarihifard .............................................................. 926
Note ....................................................................................... 928

Chapter 10. Compulsion, Intoxication, Automatism and Other Non–Controllable Factors ............................................. 929
A. Compulsion ............................................................... 929
1. Duress ............................................................................... 929
State v. St. Clair ............................................................... 929
Notes and Questions ....................................................... 931
2. Necessity ........................................................................... 933
Notes ....................................................................................... 934
United States v. Bailey ....................................................... 935
Notes ....................................................................................... 946
United States v. Oakland Cannabis Buyers' Cooperative and Jeffrey Jones ......................................................... 947
Notes and Questions ....................................................... 953
B. Intoxication ................................................................. 954
1. Voluntary Intoxication ..................................................... 954
People v. Langworthy ....................................................... 954
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Table of Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chapter 11. Insanity at Time of the Prohibited Act and Competency to Stand Trial</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Distinguishing Competency from Insanity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. The M'Naghten (Right/Wrong) Test</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Daniel M'Naghten's Case</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>People v. Serravo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. The Irresistible Impulse Test</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parsons v. State</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. The &quot;Product&quot; Test</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Durham v. United States</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes: A.L.I.-MPC Definition of Insanity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F. The Federal Test</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>G. Diminished Responsibility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fisher v. United States</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on Diminished Responsibility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>H. Attempts to Abolish or Limit the Insanity Defense</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. Korell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on Attempts to Abolish or Limit the Insanity Defense</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. The Weight of Psychiatric Testimony</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>People v. Wolff</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McCulloch v. Commonwealth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. Special Problems with Detention of Insanity Acquittees</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>K. Special Issues of Proof in Insanity Defense Cases</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes: Issues of Proof in Insanity Defense Cases</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
PART 4. OFFENSES AGAINST SOVEREIGNTY

Chapter 12. Offenses Against Government Authority ................................1069

A. Introduction. Historical Overview of Crimes Against
Government.....................................................................................................1069
Korematsu v. United States ........................................................................1072
Notes and Questions .................................................................................1076
B. Investigation............................................................................................1076
1. Surveillance.............................................................................................1076
2. Extraordinary Rendition .......................................................................1077
3. Classified Information ..........................................................................1078
4. The USA Patriot Act ............................................................................1079
   The Blueing of America: The Bridge Between the War on Drugs and the War on Terrorism ....................................................1079
C. The Use of Traditional Offenses to Combat Threats to the State................................................................................................................1086
1. Refusal to Testify Before Congress ......................................................1086
   Russell v. United States ..........................................................................1086
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1089
2. Trespass, Disorderly Conduct, Threatening the President, and Desecrating the American Flag ....................................................1090
   People v. Harrison ..................................................................................1090
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1094
   Hess v. Indiana .......................................................................................1095
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1097
3. Conspiracy and Related Offenses .........................................................1100
   United States v. Salameh, et al.................................................................1100
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1104
4. Extraterritoriality ....................................................................................1109
D. Crimes Designed to Protect the State......................................................1109
1. The Espionage Act ...............................................................................1109
   Debs v. United States ..............................................................................1109
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1111
2. Syndicalism ............................................................................................1111
   Gitlow v. New York ...............................................................................1111
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1115
3. Statutes Aimed at Communism ..............................................................1116
   Scales v. United States ............................................................................1116
   Dennis v. United States ..........................................................................1118
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1122
   United States v. Rahman, et al.................................................................1124
   Humanitarian Law Project v. Reno .........................................................1130
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1134
   United States v. Afshari ..........................................................................1135
   Notes and Questions ..............................................................................1137
6. Executive Power to Detain Suspected Terrorists ....................................1139
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Hamdan v. Rumsfeld</td>
<td>1140</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>1153</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boumediene v. Bush</td>
<td>1155</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Questions</td>
<td>1164</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. Non-Constitutional Defenses</td>
<td>1165</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States v. Lopez–Lima</td>
<td>1165</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States v. Alvarez–Machain</td>
<td>1168</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

APPENDIX—RELEVANT PROVISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES
CONSTITUTION AND ITS AMENDMENTS ................................................. 1175

INDEX ............................................................................................................ 1179