Law Library Alerts: 24-Hour Access & Noise

24-Hour Access to the Law Library:

The Law Library is open 24 hours per day, beginning at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 30, and ending at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 19.

- After midnight during the 24-hour access period, the library is open ONLY to law students.
- The Circulation Desk closes at 9:00 p.m. on Fridays & Saturdays and 12:00 midnight on Sundays – Thursdays, and there are no services at that desk or other service desks after those hours.
- A security person will be on duty in the Law Library when no permanent staff and/or student associates are working.

The Law School building is locked after midnight. To enter the Law School building between midnight and around 6:30 a.m., you will need to enter the building via the front entrance and use your University of Richmond ID on the card swipe by the entrance door. After 5:00 p.m. each day, beginning Nov. 30 and ending at the end of the exam period, the library is only open to law students and those with University of Richmond IDs. Your UR ID card is essential during this period. If you need to replace your UR ID card, now is a good time to do that.

Talking/Noise in the Law Library:

It is very important as we approach the end of the semester and during the exam period that the library be as quiet as possible. We have received student complaints already about the amount of talking in the study and research areas of the library. Please keep conversations in the Law Library to a minimum, and when you do have a conversation, please talk quietly. Remember that there are study rooms in the basement that you may reserve and use if you need to study together. The general rules about talking are these: (a) some talking is permitted in the front part of the library where the Circulation, Reference, Computer and Multimedia help desks are located; and (b) talking is not permitted in the study table area after you go through the glass doors by the

Additional Cameras Installed in the Law Library

In response to the theft of two laptops and some power chargers in the Law Library, the University and the Law Library will install additional cameras in the Law Library. The cameras will be installed in police-recommended strategic locations in the Law Library. The ID checkpoint at the front of the Law Library will continue at least until the new cameras are installed, which should occur prior to the Thanksgiving holiday break.

Food & Drink in the Law Library

Please be mindful that food and beverages in the Law Library may attract rodents and pests. We recommend that you do not store snacks or beverages in your carrel, especially over holiday breaks. Proper disposal of food and drink litter is essential. Please place litter in appropriate trash cans or recycling bins. If an accident such as a spill does occur, notify a staff member immediately so that we can get the liquid or stain cleaned.

VPN Setup

Ever find yourself at home and wishing you could get to your Netfiles directory or library databases on your computer? Well, you can! VPN (Virtual Private Network) software allows your computer to act as though it's on campus. To download the software (while on campus), go to <http://is.richmond.edu/network-internet/index.html> and follow the prompts. If you need assistance, please stop by the Law Library Computer Help Desk, call, or email (x8945; kedwards@richmond.edu).
