Law Library News

Spring Break marks a mid-point of the semester. It's a chance to relax and establish a strategy for finishing the term. In this update, we share tips on preparing for the MPRE, study aids, tips on merging cover letters with addresses, and an overview of a training series to prepare you for a successful summer. We've also got a summary of Spring Break hours and tips on how to relax in Richmond during break. Enjoy the break, and best of luck in the semester home stretch.

Welcome Elizabeth Schiller!

Liz Schiller joined the library as a Reference & Research Services Librarian in December. Liz's fascination with how people discover, understand, and frame information directed her career through museums, academic departments, and civil service. With advanced degrees in history, law, and library & information science, she enjoys reading on a wide range of subjects—as long as the text is footnoted well or not at all. When she isn't thinking about research methods, Liz enjoys gardening, sketching, and exploring her new city with her husband, Dan, and their two dogs. She is thrilled to be at UR and in Richmond and looks forward to working with all of you.
