Online Casebooks, Textbooks and Resources

Casebook and Textbook Access

Publishers are providing online access to many textbooks. Check this page for instructions on accessing course texts as well as study aids.

Legal Blue Book Online

The law library will distribute codes to access the Blue Book online. All iL students receive a code directly. Anybody else wanting access should contact Professor Molly Lentz-Meyer.

Michie's, Virginia Statutes, and Practice Materials

Numerous electronic resources are available from LexisNexis, including numerous practitioner titles.

Live Support: Research, Reference and Technology

Remote Legal Research and Reference Resources

We continue to provide live reference support, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. You can also email questions and we are happy to schedule research consultations for more in-depth questions.

Virtual Tech Support

We offer a Virtual Help Desk and other support. Learn about technology support options and availability.

New Materials Update

New E-Books - March 2020

In our library catalog, you'll find direct links to thousands of electronic books you can access anywhere. Review a list of the books we added in March.

New Books - March 2020

Around 50 recent titles were added in our collection. Check out these exciting new titles on MuseNews.

Director's Message

On behalf of the entire law library team, we offer our support, services and sincere hopes that you have what you need during the unprecedented circumstances. We know that this presents many challenges. Our goal is to meet your study needs and provide relevant resources as best we can to support students, wherever you are located.

We have worked with publishers for online textbook access, and we continue to provide live research and technology support. We hope that you're safe and able to get what you need for law school and life in these changed times. If there are any ways we can help, please let us know.

- Roger Skalbeck, Associate Dean
