Tech Tips

Register a New Device with DUO

Finding yourself using DUO authentication more often now that we're off campus? Make sure to keep any new devices registered with the guidance from MuseNews.

Reference Chat Services

We're here for you virtually! While we cannot be together in person, please bring us your questions through the library chat feature!

Answers About Access

Summer Access for Students

Want to use your Lexis, Bloomberg, or Westlaw accounts over the summer? MuseNews has the deets about resource access and use policies.

Access for New Alumni

Congratulations, Graduates! Graduation doesn't mean you're totally cut off from your law school online resources. Check out this blog post to find out about access to library and technology resources after graduation.

Director's Message

Congratulations! We're in the final hours of the Spring 2020 semester at Richmond School of Law. Our semester ends in a much different way than it began. Teaching, textbooks, tech support and training tutorials all moved online. In every way possible, we try to personalize these experiences for you. Behind every online resource is somebody here who wants to see you succeed.

On behalf of the entire law library team, we commend you on a successful conclusion to the semester. In this newsletter we provide updates relevant to all community members. We look forward to connecting with you virtually this summer. Please let us know how we can help.

We will warmly welcome you all back to campus when we can. Thanks for the opportunity for us to help you all.
