Director's Message

We're now into the third week of classes in a setting unlike any of us have ever experienced at law school. We are glad you're all here, and we are happy to support you with resources and services wherever you choose to study and take classes. We have a team of people available to provide real-time support, and meet you virtually for research and technology needs.

As we continue through the 13-week semester together, the law library keeps two themes in mind: Space & Grace. Space to feel comfortable and safe, but also space to be productive and participate in the study of law. Grace to find ways to share and model goodwill with each other, and help every student, employee, child and family member experience comfort and community.

- Roger Skalbeck, Associate Dean

Law Library Hours and Access Update

Monday to Thursday	7:00 am to 9:00 pm
Friday	7:00 am to 5:00 pm
Saturday and Sunday	1:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Please note that the library is open only to current students, staff, and faculty until further notice. See our blog, MuseNews, through the link above for more information about current access policies and available services.

Virtual Reference and Research Services

Remote Reference and Research Services

Law school and library services might look a little different these days, but we are just as committed to service as ever! Check out this post to see how you can access reference and research services--in person and virtual support is available.
