Untitled

“Who says nothin’s perfect?” she mutters in her slow Southern drawl. “Who says nothin’s perfect? I can take you for a wild ride, baby.” The colors swim in front of her eyes: the flashing (flashing) of the fluorescent pink sign advertising “Girls Girls Girls XXX Come on in”; the harsh yellow glare of the streetlight; the red orange tip of her cigarette; and the shapes bend and weld together: a mass of twisting (snarling) dragons and monsters. He says, “I feel wonderful, baby” and “you’re beautiful” so instead of fighting with him she strips her brand new Calvin Klein jeans and they dance naked in the moonlight.
