Family Homecoming
(See Page 2)

Fall, 1962
When Thomas Jefferson wrote “that government is best which governs the least,” he was not advocating anarchy, nor was he belittling the law. He was stating a basic principle of the American concept, a principle on which our country was founded, a principle we have fought for throughout our history as a nation: Individual liberty — for ourselves, and for all men.

Abraham Lincoln said much the same thing when he stated that a government should only do for the public what the public cannot do for itself.

And Woodrow Wilson agreed in these words: “The history of liberty is the history of limitations on the power of the government.”

No, these men were not anarchists. They were great Americans—and great humanitarians. They believed in the dignity and integrity of the individual. They believed in the right of the individual man, and they defended his most vital right of all: The liberty to live one’s own life, and seek one’s own rewards, within the framework of a just and balanced government.

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER COMPANY
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA
IN THIS ISSUE

The Cover—This off-beat presentation of the opponents in the Thanksgiving football game was conceived by Frank Mann, '45, Art Director of A. H. Robins Co., and executed with the aid of James Kelly, '65, the University of Richmond art department and Photographer Ed Briggs, special student at U. of R.

Page
Come Home For Thanksgiving ............................................. 2
Record Enrollment For 1962-63 Session .................................. 4
Woodford B. Hackley .............................................................. 5
Captains’ Club to Honor Broadus, McDanel, Dobson ............. 6
Spiders Point For Thanksgiving Homecoming Tilt ......................... 7
1934 Team To Re-Live Great Season at Thanksgiving Eve Reunion .... 8
With The Faculty ................................................................... 9
Alumni In The News ................................................................ 11
Alumni In Action (George Freedley) ........................................ 13
Westhampton News ............................................................ 19

For The Progress Of The University

Long before the current national emphasis on college and university financial progress, the University of Richmond had begun a "development program." The new buildings and facilities on the campus, as well as the mounting annual gifts from many sources, are a few signs of the program's growing success.

From the standpoint of alumni, the most important new endeavor is the Alumni Bequest Program, which began two years ago with the endorsement and support of President Modlin and the Alumni Council. Through this program, an alumnus may identify himself with the future of the University of Richmond, whether he includes his alma mater in his will for a few hundred, many thousands, or a million or more dollars!

For example, a bequest to the University, earmarked for the Annual Alumni Fund, will enable an alumnus to continue his annual giving perpetually and to be identified with his college class through the years. In addition to being a memorial to his loyalty and generosity, such a bequest will assist his alma mater in those crucial years after his death, when new resources must be found to replace his annual gift.

An alumnus accustomed to giving $100 a year could perpetuate this gift with a bequest of $2,500—figuring the average annual earning on University funds at four per cent. A bequest of $1,000 would make possible an annual gift of $40.

Of course, there are countless other ways an alumnus can invest in the future of the University through a bequest. There is a great satisfaction in knowing that one's philanthropy will become a permanent influence at the University of Richmond. President Modlin emphasizes this on Page 18. Your response to his statement by returning the form on that page will be appreciated.

Since its inception, the Bequest Program has been guided by Trustee Joseph A. Leslie, Jr., '16. Mr. Leslie has put the program on its feet and given it direction. His successor, Odis Hinnant, '14, is highly respected for his work as YMCA director, juvenile court judge, and leader in youth work, all against a background of loyalty to the University.

Luther Smith, assistant to President Modlin, will work closely with Mr. Hinnant and class bequest chairmen in the development of the program. He has served eleven colleges and universities in similar work as executive secretary of the Georgia Foundation for Independent Colleges, and as director of development at Furman University.

Odis Hinnant, Luther Smith, and the Class Bequest Chairmen will build well on an excellent foundation laid by Joe Leslie. They want you to become a part of that story. You will benefit. So will your children and grandchildren.
One of the major events celebrating Homecoming this year will be a special, brief Thanksgiving Day service to be held in the Chapel. Dr. Theodore F. Adams will speak. All University of Richmond and Westhampton Alumni and Alumnae and their families are invited. The service will begin at 10:30 A.M.
Come Home For Thanksgiving ...

Homecoming falls on Thanksgiving Day this year, so why not make your plans now to bring the whole family out to the campus for a day of fun and fellowship with old friends and their families? Here is the schedule of events:

Captains' Club Dinner & Dance, Wed., Nov. 21:
Kicking off Homecoming festivities on Thanksgiving eve will be a social hour and dinner, followed by a dance (see below), sponsored by the U. of R. Captains' Club. Social Hour: from 6:00 to 7:00, followed by the dinner and dance. Place: Virginia Room, John Marshall Hotel. Price: $9.00 per person. (Includes dance.)

Captains' Club—Homecoming Dance, Wed., Nov. 21:
In conjunction with the Captains' Club, a dance for all U. of R. alumni will be held in the Virginia Room of the John Marshall starting at 9:30 PM. The Homecoming Queen and her court will attend. Tickets: $3.75 per couple. Music: Skeets Morris and his orchestra.

Registration, Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 22:
Registration will begin at 9:00 AM in front of the Alumni-Student Activities Building. After the Chapel service (see below) registration will continue in front of the Millhiser Gymnasium. Registration Badges will be provided for all alumni and their families.

Thanksgiving service:
A special brief Thanksgiving service for University of Richmond alumni will be held in the Chapel starting promptly at 10:30 AM. The speaker will be Dr. Theodore F. Adams, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, and past president of the Baptist World Alliance.

Homecoming luncheon:
A tasty Thanksgiving Luncheon will be served starting at 11:45 at Millhiser Gymnasium. The luncheon will be free to University of Richmond and Westhampton Alumni and Alumnae, the charge for adult guests a mere $1.25 and children 75 cents.

Homecoming parade:
Beginning at 1:00 at Richmond City Stadium there will be a spectacular Homecoming parade with the traditional floats, several bands, marching units and the Homecoming Queen and her court.

Richmond vs. Wm. & Mary:
Kicking off at 2:00 PM, the University of Richmond will play William and Mary. At half time there will be the traditional crowning of the Queen and the awarding of prizes for winning floats.

For out-of-towners:
The John Marshall Hotel has made special arrangements for all University of Richmond alumni and alumnae attending homecoming festivities. Their rate is $8.00 single and $12.00 double with a special price of Thanksgiving Dinner with turkey and all the trimmings at $2.25. When you contact the hotel for reservations, let them know you are attending the U. of R. Homecoming.
Record Enrollment for 1962-63 Session

The big news at the University of Richmond this fall is University College, born in September as the Seventh member of the University family.

Its role in life will be to serve the Richmond area not only as a two-year community college but also as an institution with academic programs leading to bachelor’s and master’s degrees.

Martin L. Shotzberger, who was called back to Alma Mater to serve as dean of the new college after a brilliant career as director of the Business Management Center at Kalamazoo College, Mich., explained his plans and aspirations at a press conference this month.

Just a week earlier he had reported to the opening convocation in Cannon Memorial Chapel a record enrollment of 1401 for the first semester, a sharp jump over last year’s 1249 at the Evening School of Business Administration which has been absorbed by University College. In fact, the figure is larger than any previous first semester total at the evening division where enrollments soared under the direction of Dr. George M. Modlin, now president of the University of Richmond, and others, including Dr. Shotzberger until he was lured away by Kalamazoo College.

The program, condensed into a nutshell by Lon Savage, Times-Dispatch education editor, provides:

(1) A business management center, unlike anything in the Richmond area, to offer consultant and educational services to local business firms.

(2) A full bachelor degree program to be offered at night.

(3) A full evening school master’s degree program emphasizing the humanities, again for the first time in the Richmond area.

(4) A “lower division” of the college, offering daytime and evening freshman and sophomore courses.

Dean Shotzberger emphasized that “the program of University College is not geared solely to the student who is prepared to go continuously to school until his degree has been won. Nor is it intended exclusively for degree candidates. Whatever the educational need of the individual at the college level we feel obliged to meet it.”

A new building, either on the present site at Grace and Lombardy streets or elsewhere in downtown Richmond, is envisioned for the future.

He expects a full-time faculty of perhaps 25 persons in liberal arts and business courses, within the next few years, with three appointments expected reasonably soon in the field of business and economics.

These full-time men are needed, he said, “to give leadership and to provide continuity to our program in economics, marketing, management, finance and accounting, particularly for graduate students.” He said a master of commerce degree could be won by taking night courses over a period of from three to five years, depending on the person’s aptitude, background and the time available for class attendance and study.

Early appointments are expected of an associate dean to guide the program in the liberal arts and sciences and a director for the Business Management Center. The school’s program can be expected to expand rapidly with the erection of the new building, coupled with adequate parking facilities.

Not only the new baby, but all members of the University family reported themselves in a healthy condition at the opening convocation where seven deans announced enrollments totaling 4869. Although this is the largest enrollment ever to be announced at an opening convocation, and should grow to 5500 before the end of the year, President Modlin pointed out that no substantial increase can be expected until the existing facilities are expanded. Westhampton College is operating at peak capacity (609) and Richmond College (1079) cannot be expected to grow until additional dormitories are constructed.

Dr. David J. Mays, ’24, Richmond attorney and Pulitzer prize winning author, told students and faculty at this first convocation that the United States is headed down the road to dictatorship with the South pushing it along. He pointed to the trend toward more and more federal grants to the states “for purposes which come within the powers reserved to the states and which are state responsibilities.”

“The people have been bribed by their own national treasury and constantly call for more. Through the use of grants the Federal government is about to become a great top-heavy centralized government of a sort which through history has led to tyranny. The issue is grave and in doubt.”

Only a small segment of the student body was able to crowd into Cannon Memorial Chapel when rain forced a change in plans to have the convocation in the Luther H. Jenkins Greek Theater, pointing up again the need for an adequate auditorium.

In addition to the new students, there were 28 other newcomers—faculty and staff members in the several divisions, including a new dean, Dr. Shotzberger, and a new dean of students at Westhampton College, Miss Virginia M. Pierce.
It was the academic year of 1939 and '40. A "phony" war was in progress in Europe between Hitler's Third Reich on one side and France and England on the other. Poland had been overrun and to everyone's astonishment a cynical "marriage of convenience" had taken place between Hitler and Stalin. This startled all because Hitler had risen to power fighting communism. The free world was uneasy because the Scandinavian countries, France, Holland, even England herself, seemed like ripe plums ready to fall if Germany's smashing Panzer Divisions ever really shook the tree.

All of these things were vitally discussed in a class of four Richmond College men, and their professor. Subsequent events vindicated the prescience of that professor too. No, this was not a class in current events or European history. It was a class in advanced Latin taught by Professor Woodford B. Hackley. The immediate content was the historian Livy and the Punic wars between Rome and Carthage, but all military history passed in review: Thermopylae, Alexander the Great, the Gallic Wars, Caesar's March on Rome, the Napoleonic Campaigns, Jackson in the Valley, Lee's masterful tactics, the triumph of the A.E.F. All of these things were brought in and relevantly.

The dry translation of prosy ancient historians was out. We were at Cannae and Capua; we heard the tread of Carthaginian elephants coming across the Alps into Italy; we marvelled at Hannibal's ability to sustain his army for fifteen years in enemy territory; the genius (and luck) of Scipio was revealed to us.

The reason for all of this wonderful experience was Professor Hackley. He was not just a classical scholar, interested only in dusty tomes from antiquity. He was a historian first, foremost, and always, who had come to realize that languages are the key that unlocks the past, and the source of pleasures of the mind that could be a delight forever.

Our class consisting of upper classmen who already had studied Latin for three or four years, came right after a freshman German class in which Dr. Hackley had been trying to drum some grammar and vocabulary into thirty more or less reluctant heads. It was a relief for him to have us who at least had the rudiments of the language. To our utter amazement this became the means of opening minds and stimulating interest. For not only did we translate Livy, the historian, but in the course of the year there was the lyric Catullus, the limpid Horace and even one or two chaste passages of Ovid. (Most of the latter we read on our own, although I am sure Dr. Hackley knew some of us were reading Ovid on the side.) There was the day he brought a Rumanian newspaper to class and we found that even the dullest of us could read it pretty well, because the case endings were the same as Latin. This was to illustrate the closeness of Rumanian to Latin, more so than any of the Romance languages.

The day we were to get out for Christmas holiday we came to class all cocked and primed for translation, but Dr. Hackley had brought mimeographed copies of German carols. O Tannenbaum, Stille Nicht, and Latin ones too, like Adeste Fideles. The other denizens of the Biology building must have been startled to have heard five voices, often off key, solemnly and enthusiastically caterwauling Christmas Carols in foreign tongue. But it was a wonderful hour for us all.

Christmas took on another flavor which it has never lost. I had heard of Professor Hackley from my roommate, Walter Bass, who majored in Latin under him, but I was not prepared for a language professor who was as wide and deep in the humanities as was Dr. Hackley.

When spring came on passages from Livy reminded him of Lee's brilliant campaign against McClellan, and of Jackson keeping four Yankee armies fully occupied in the Valley and then coming to Lee's support at Richmond. Cavalry tactics of ancient Rome reminded him to tell us of...
Captains’ Club To Honor Broaddus, McDanel, Dobson

Mr. Broaddus
Dr. McDanel
Gen. Dobson

Three alumni have been cited by the University of Richmond Football Captains’ Club to receive its distinguished service award at the club’s third annual Thanksgiving eve dinner at the John Marshall Hotel. The banquet highlights events preceding the William and Mary-Richmond football game on Thanksgiving Day at Richmond City Stadium.

W. Richard Broaddus, Jr., ’20, Martinsville attorney and vice-rector of the University’s Board of Trustees; Dr. Ralph C. McDanel, ’16, chairman of the department of history and political science and faculty chairman of athletics, and Brigadier General John W. (Jack) Dobson, deputy commanding general of the Army Training Center at Fort Knox, Ky., and former all-round Spider star, will be the recipients.

Michael W. West, ’37, the club’s president, announced the selections. Awards are made to both alumni and non-alumni who have contributed to the University’s athletic program in various ways. The club honored five persons two years ago and three last year.

Broaddus, a native of West Point, Va., received his B.A. degree from the University of Richmond in 1920 and his LLB degree from the T. C. Williams School of Law in 1921. He was a member of the varsity football team in 1920-21, playing an end position, and was team captain his senior year. He was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha social, Delta Theta Phi legal and Omicron Delta Kappa honorary fraternities.

He is a former member of the Virginia House of Delegates, served for several years as commonwealth’s attorney for Martinsville and Henry County, is a former president of the State Bar Association, member of the American Bar Association and serves on the board of directors of a number of organizations.

Dr. McDanel, a native of Philadelphia, obtained his B.A. degree from the University of Richmond, his M.A. from Columbia University and won his doctorate at Johns Hopkins University. He also studied at the Graduate Institute of International Studies in Geneva. He was manager of the baseball team during his undergraduate years and joined the faculty in 1926. He is a past president of the Southern Conference.

Dr. McDanel is an active churchman and has participated prominently in the work of the Baptist denomination. He is past president of the Baptist General Association and a member of the board of Crozer Theological Seminary and the Religious Herald. In recognition of his scholarship and public service, Georgetown College in Kentucky conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. He holds membership in a number of honorary societies, including Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity which he served as national president.

General Dobson, a Richmond native and son of former Spider Coach Frank Dobson, played on the 1934 team that is being honored by the Captains’ Club. After graduating from the University, where he won letters in football, baseball, basketball, track and boxing, he continued his education at the United States Military Academy and served with distinction in World War II where he won both the Silver and Bronze stars.

Prior to his assignment at Fort Knox, General Dobson had assignments at the Infantry School, West Point, Command and General Staff College, National War College and duties abroad in Austria, Denmark and Germany.

Footnote

Professor Hackley cheerfully admits that he likes to live in the past because the people there are more interesting, more exciting and to him more real than the Kennedys, the Nixons, the Goldwaters and the Byrds.

(Continued on page 36)
After a disappointing beginning, Richmond’s football team played what Coach Ed Merrick termed “our best game of the season” by upsetting Boston University, 14-7, at Boston in the fifth game of the season. The victory gave Richmond a 2-3 record, the other triumph being a one-point win over East Carolina in the season’s opener. The Spiders lost to a seasoned Southern Mississippi club, were whitewashed by VMI and then bounced back to give Virginia Tech a real battle before losing by five points with a touchdown.

If the Spiders continue to improve both offensively and defensively as they have in the past two games, the Homecoming contest with a surprising William and Mary eleven on Thanksgiving Day should prove to be a thriller. The Indians are having their best season in years. Of course the Spiders must play road engagements with Cincinnati, George Washington and Davidson before tangling with the Tribe in the Thanksgiving Festival classic.

The Spiders scored both of their touchdowns against Boston University in the first 3:50 of the third quarter. A pass from Quarterback Mel Rideout to Halfback Brent Vann on a play that covered 62 yards set up the first score on the Terriers’ 11-yard line. Three plays later Halfback Ken Wilbourne tallied from the one and Rideout bootied the extra point to give Tech their chance to strike. Mike Cahill’s 35-yard run to the Spider nine was the big play, the touchdown coming on a pass from Pete Cartwright to End Bob Churchill in the end zone.

Virginia Tech had taken the lead in the second period on a 41-yard drive set up by Tom Hawkins’ recovery of Spider Halfback Steve Stevenson’s fumble. During the march VPI was assessed penalties twice for illegal motion and UR drew a personal foul penalty which put the ball on the seven. Quarterback Lacy Edwards scored from the one and Aster Sizemore booted the extra point.

Richmond came roaring back to score just 4:32 before the end of the half, taking just 13 plays to accomplish its mission. A 20-yard Rideout pass to Norris Aldridge and a fivemasser to John Hilton plus two penalties against Tech advanced the ball to the Gobblers’ 19. Vann sprinted to the four. Stopped three times, Rideout bootlegged and raced around right end untouched for the touchdown. Rideout’s placement knotted the score.

The Spider line did a fine job with Junior Guard Joe Kessel turning in an outstanding performance with 10 unassisted tackles, assisting on numerous others and knocking down a pass.

This was a much improved Richmond eleven over the one that had bowed to VMI, 21-0, before 9,500 at Richmond City Stadium in its previous game. The Spiders weren’t blocking or tackling up to their capabilities or providing Rideout proper passer protection. As a result the Richmond quarterback completed only four of 13 passes in the third period and 26-20 late in the third period. The Keydets moved 41 yards in the second period on a 63-yard pass interception run with five minutes gone in the third period. The Keydets moved 41 yards in the second period for their first score. A pass from Quarterback Butch Nunnally to End Joe Bush on the 20 set up the TD, Nunnally scoring from two yards out. Two Richmond defenders had shots at Nunnally behind the line of scrimmage but missed the tackle. White’s other TD run was a seven-yarder, the score being set up by a Spider fumble.

The Spiders opened their season with a 27-26 triumph over East Carolina after trailing, 26-13, with 15 seconds gone in the third period and 26-20 late in the third period. However, Richmond marched 38 yards in seven plays with Wilbourne scoring from the three. Rideout’s third placement of
1934 Team To Re-Live Great Season At Thanksgiving Eve Reunion

The versatile 1934 University of Richmond football team, which compiled an excellent 8-1 record that included wins over Cornell, Georgetown and Wake Forest, will be saluted by the Captains' Club at the annual Thanksgiving eve dinner at the John Marshall Hotel. The Thanksgiving Festival classic between William and Mary and the Spiders, who will be celebrating Homecoming, is scheduled for Richmond City Stadium the following day.

Richmond was not a hefty team that year, Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite's first at the Spider helm, but it was one that displayed something new every Saturday to bring it victory. "It was power against Roanoke, trickery against V.M.I., speed against Georgetown and blocking against Wake Forest's giants that turned the tide, "one sports critic pointed out.

W. Smithson "Smitty" Morris, now southwest representative for a furniture company in Fort Worth, Texas, was captain of the '34 club and played one of the end posts. The other end was Jack Dobson, son of former Spider Coach Frank Dobson and now a brigadier general stationed at Fort Knox, Ky. Dobson was an all-round athlete who also could play in the backfield. He was named to the all-state team that year. Against Emory and Henry, the only team to beat the Spiders (13-0), Dobson got off an 85-yard punt that rolled out of bounds on the Wasps' five-yard marker.

Fullback Roger Leverton, now an attorney for the U. S. government, scored three touchdowns, one on a 43-yard pass interception run, to lead the Spiders to a 27-0 win over Roanoke College in their opener. Leverton scored 52 points over the season's play.

Then came the big 6-0 upset victory over Cornell. A third period passing attack resulted in the Richmond touchdown with Jimmy West, now a corporation secretary in Norfolk, connecting with Perry Schulz, a Highland Springs resident, with the payoff pitch.

Upset by E & H, the Spiders rebounded with a 7-0 triumph over V.M.I. The score came in the first 20 seconds of play with Bill Robertson, a sophomore quarterback from Petersburg and now a recreation specialist for the Tactical Air Command, taking a pass from Dobson on a "sleeping end" play that covered 65 yards.

West and Freddy Vaughan, now president of the Quarterback Club, gained 200 yards between them in a 20-0 triumph over Hampden-Sydney the following week. Vaughan played both quarterback and halfback and was UR's second leading scorer with 24 points.

The 14-13 win over Georgetown was one the spectators will never forget. The unbeaten and unscored on Hoyas led, 13-0, with just 6:30 left in the game. George Lacy, who could play either tackle or end, recovered a fumble on the Georgetown 31. Leverton passed to Schulz on the 18, and then Leverton scampered around end for the TD and Bobby Vaughan kicked the extra point. The Spiders struck back swiftly on Leverton's passing, the third completion going to Lacy for the tying points. Then Bobby Vaughan booted the crucial extra point.

A 27-yard punt returned by Dobson and Leverton's two-yard plunge gave Richmond a 7-0 win over Davis-Elkins. The following week the Spiders rolled to a 39-6 victory over Wake Forest. A 51-yard run by Schulz and a Dobson pass to Tom Morris who lateralled to Freddy Vaughan for 64 yards and a TD were the big plays. The Spiders closed their season, the best in the school's history, with a 6-0 triumph over William and Mary in the mud. Schulz returned an Indian punt 41 yards and Leverton cracked over from the two yards out for the touchdown.

Throughout the season the Spiders received outstanding line play. Dr. Fillmore Sanford, prominent professor of psychology at the University of Texas, won all-state and All-South Atlantic laurels for the Virginia Conference champions. Tom Todd also saw considerable service at tackle.

Michael W. West, now district manager for Mack Trucks and president of the Captains' Club; Chalmers C. Walton, Jr., Ural Humphries and John Diedrich played guard. Ed Schaaf, Louisville factories manager for Philip Morris, Inc., and S. Lyle Graham, vice-president of Milprint, Inc., in Milwaukee, divided time at center.

Other members of the squad included Quarterback Dave Umansky, Halfbacks Joseph Pittore, William Garber, Joseph Briggs, William Akin, Ernest Brooks and Louis J. Wrenn, Fullback Judson Miller; Ends J. Harold Sutton, Murrill Howe and Alfred J. Dickinson, Tackles Richard L. Todd and Charles Kassin, Guards Clarence E. Schneck, Joseph C. Godsey and Harold Botwick and Centers Carol Toler and Thomas Casey. S. Frank Straus was the team manager.
WITH THE FACULTY

By THOMAS S. BERRY

The Class of 1948 has contributed two teacher-administrators and a faculty wife to the University this fall. Announcement was made in the last issue of the Bulletin of the appointment of Dr. Martin L. Shotzberger as Dean of University College (outgrowth of the Evening Division of the School of Business Administration) and Professor of Economics and Business Administration. The new Director of Religious Activities and Assistant Professor of Religion is Dr. John W. Brizendine, who received his Ph.D. at Yale last year with a dissertation on "Joseph in History." He and Mrs. Brizendine (Margaret Sabine, '48) have three children: William (10), Marcia (7) and Anne (5).

Miss Virginia M. Pierce, who succeeds Elizabeth Ann Kaspas as Dean of Students at Westhampton College, has a solid religious background as well as administrative and teaching experience. In addition to a bachelor's degree from Wellesley and a master's degree from Columbia, Miss Pierce has earned a bachelor of divinity degree at the Union Theological Seminary (New York), where she served as advisor on religious education. Her career to date has embraced not only religious counseling and administrative duties but also teaching in history, philosophy and religion.

The new faces on the faculty include two professors: Dr. Talbot R. Selby and Dr. John B. Stewart. Dr. Selby, who comes to us from the College of Charleston and who has done graduate work at the University of North Carolina, the University of Rome and the Scuola Diplomatica Vaticana, takes over the instruction in classics handled for 38 years by Professor Woodford B. Hackley. He and Mrs. Selby (Marjorie) report "scads" of children: Talbot, Sarah, Barbara, and Marjorie, aged seven, five, four, and two, respectively. (Professor Hackley, by the way, is busier than ever in retirement, tackling a host of tasks he has wanted to do for a long, long time.)

Professor Stewart's specialty is marketing. With two degrees from the University of Colorado and a D.B.A. from Harvard, he comes to us from the Graduate School of Business Administration at the latter institution. Aside from publishing several articles in the Journal of Marketing and the Harvard Business Review, Dr. Stewart has been active in consulting work, particularly with Arthur D. Little, Inc. in Cambridge. He and Mrs. Stewart (Charmaine) have three little ones: Valerie, Scott, and Suzanne.

The two new visiting lecturers at the University are Dr. Irving H. White (English at Westminster) and Dr. Howard T. Hill (Speech). Professor White, who did his bachelor's work at William and Mary and his graduate study at Harvard, is a native of Richmond and a professor emeritus at Boston University, where he was chairman of the Department of English for many years. The author of Essays in Value, Dr. White was active in Virginia as a college teacher and administrator before going to Harvard for his Ph.D. He and Mrs. White (Nina) have one son (Irving Jr.), Dr. Hill, on the other hand, has a midwestern background including degrees from Iowa State and the University of Chicago. During his long academic career at Kansas State University he not only served as Chairman of the Speech Department but also attained several high offices in Kiwanis International. He and Mrs. Hill (Irlma) also have one son (Howard Jr.).

Dr. Patrick S. Kemp, a native of Texas with degrees from Rice, the University of Texas, and the University of Illinois, joined the faculty of the School of Business Administration this fall as Associate Professor of Accounting and Chairman of that Department. A C.P.A. as well as Ph.D., Professor Kemp has published several articles in accounting journals while teaching at Emory University. He and Mrs. Kemp (Carol) have a baby boy (Robert).

Mr. Clyde C. Shrickel joins the business school faculty as an Assistant Professor. At present working towards a doctorate in Management at Ohio State University, his previous career includes administrative work for Cincinnati Hospital Care Corp., teaching in the Army and giving management courses at Ohio State. Mr. Shrickel's versatility is reflected in the fact that he has been a band director at Hanover College (Indiana) and achieved a certificate in journalism as well as degrees in business administration and management. The fourth newcomer to the business school staff is Phillip H. Kipkirkpatrick '56, M.S. in B.E. '62, who calls Petersburg his home. Phillip, who was active in fraternity (Theta Chi) and other extra-curricular affairs while he was an undergraduate, has been connected with the Army Logistics Management Center at Fort Lee until recently.

A national director of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, he is married (Esther Lorene) and should point with pride to his Army record—within two years of enlistment he achieved the rank of Sergeant.

The Department of Modern Foreign Languages has a new associate professor (Dr. Charles C. Lyle, Jr.), a new instructor (Mlle. Renee Sainv), and three new part-time instructors (Mrs. Elizabeth C. Dunn, Mr. Carswell Hughes, and Miss M. Louise Robertson). Dr. Lyle, who will teach German, is a Cornell man with a Ph.D. from the State University of Iowa. He has had a combined academic and military career, teaching at Massachusetts and Rice interspersed with service in the Marine Corps as a radar and electronics officer. Major Lyle married a Mississippi girl (Manie Rose), and they bring three children to Richmond: Charles Collins, Elizabeth Jean and Louise. Mr. Hughes, who will also teach German, is a Georgia man who has attended Mercer, Edinburgh, Heidelberg, Yale and the Union Theological Seminary. Already the possessor of two master's degrees, he is currently pursuing a doctorate in theology at the last-named institution. Mlle. Sainv, who is to be Instructor in French, is a Parisian with degrees and certificates from Paris, Saigon Francaise, and Bordeaux. A writer of many articles on education and religion, she has enjoyed a successful teaching career in various schools in France, South Vietnam and the United States. Mrs. Dunn and Miss Robertson are also scheduled to teach French.

Professor T. E. Lavender, who will be on sabbatical leave of absence the first semester, is planning to fly to Lisbon on October 5 and proceed from there to Provence. Expecting to make his headquarters in Aix, he reports that his son Tom is due to return to Georgia Tech in December, at the conclusion of his naval service near the port of Charleston, S. C. Professor and Mrs. E. M. Last (Marketing) are also traveling this semester, going as far afield as Greece and Israel.

One of the most impressive records among the new members of the faculty belongs to Dr. Leonard M. Diana, the new Assistant Professor in the Physics Department. Coming from the industrial ranks (Standard of Indiana and the American Tobacco Company), Professor Diana held seven campus offices at Georgia Tech while working towards a bachelor's degree (with honors). Both Valdician and president (four years) of his high school class (Columbia, Pa.), he served several years in World War II, including seven months of infantry combat in the European Theater. A member of practically all the honorary societies open to a physicist, Professor Diana is a writer in the field of atomic physics, a Ph. D. from the University of Pittsburgh, a successful soloist and choirmaster (Pittsburgh Opera Company), and the father of three (Leonard, Susan, and Lawrence)! And this is not all. Mrs. Diana (Octavia Pearl) deserves credit not only for Leonard, Susan and Lawrence but also for... three university degrees, including a Ph.D. in Psychology from Pittsburgh. Truly a gifted couple.

The History Department reports the accession of an Assistant Professor (Dr. Ethel L. Rasmussen, a Brown University Ph.D.), and an Instructor (William Henry Thorn III). Additional data on Dr. Rasmussen are not available at this point, but our first conversation shows she is both gracious and talented. As for Mr. Thorn, he is a native of Philadelphia, a DePauw graduate and a candidate for the doctorate at the University of Rochester, where Mrs. Thorn (Anne) has also done graduate work.

The English Department has two new instructors: Mrs. J. M. Duke and Mr. John Campbell Boggs, Jr. Mr. Boggs, who is a native of Richmond and a Duke graduate, taught in the department between 1957 and 1959, then did graduate work and taught at Columbia and Hunter College.

The Departments of Music and Physical Education each report adding two new men. James H. Hustis, Assistant Professor of Music, is a trumpet specialist from New York with bachelor's and master's degrees from Juilliard. He has several years experience performing with leading orchestras and the Air Force Band, as well as directing bands at Morningside College Conservatory (Iowa). He and Mrs. Hustis (Karola, also a musician) report three children: Gregory, Jonathan and Elise. Jack M. Jarrett, the new Instructor of Music and Choral Director, is a composer, conductor and teacher. Born in Asheville, he has studied at Florida, Eastman and Berlin. His career covers not only college choral direction (Dickinson) and recitals as a baritone and a pianist but also publication of an article on choral resources, a group of choral love songs and a composition in percussion. He and Mrs. Jarrett (Sylvia Ann) have two little girls: Elizabeth and Gloria Lynn.

The two new Instructors in Physical Education are Joseph F. A. Downing and Lewis B. Mills, Mr. Downing, who is assigned to coach freshman football, is a graduate of V.P.I., an Army veteran with the rank of First Lieutenant and a teacher and coach at various Virginia high schools since 1957. Born in Lowell, he married Louise Redd, a graduate of Longwood College. Mr. Mills has the assignment of assistant Coach Hooker at baseball. Also a V.P.I. man, where he played baseball and captained in basketball, he has taught and coached in Roanoke since graduation. He and Mrs. Mills (Dianna) report a little girl, Carrie Grace.

Two other unusual appointments this year concern Philosophy and Mathematics. The former department is adding Mr. Robinson B. James to its staff. A comparatively young man from Florida and son of a Baptist minister and a Phi Beta Kappa mother, Mr. James has a distinguished career as an undergraduate at the University of Alabama (Phi Beta Kappa, ODK, choir director and cornet soloist, Baptist preacher) and won a fellowship to the University of Edinburgh, where he spent a year. In pursuit of a Ph.D. degree in religion at Duke University, Mr. James has taught the subject there and, more recently, at the Seminary at Wake Forest. He and Mrs. James (Anne) have a darling toddler (Sally). The new part-time Instructor in Mathematics is Doris L. (Mrs. Henry L.) Willett, who has two degrees from Western Carolina College and has also studied towards a doctorate at the Universities of North Carolina and Virginia. Mrs. Willett has a goodly number of years of experience as a statistician and mathematic teacher; her last assignment was as a mathematics coordinator in the Richmond public schools.

Professor Philip Hart should now be addressed as Doctor-Hart (Edinburgh in June). The first confirmation of this news came via the newspaper account listing the successful candidates, mailed by friends in Scotland. Faculty offspring who are enrolled at Richmond College for the first time include David M. Brydon, Kenneth S. Gary, Charles Gerald Palmer, Thomas C. Pate and D. Anderson Williams.

Wadsworth Gregory (Sociology) has been appointed by Governor Harrison to be one of three public members of the Virginia Commission on the Aging. The commission is a permanent body which began studying problems in that field three years ago.

William Rhodenhizer (Religion), who took his family on a trip to New Mexico and old Mexico this summer, gave a series of lectures at the annual Richmond Pastors' Retreat early in September. He is handling the Tele-College instruction in Richmond this year.

Allan Powell (Chemistry) has recently been named Chairman-elect of the Virginia Chapter of the American Chemical Society.

Austen E. Grigg (Psychology) was chairman of a program devoted to research in counseling techniques at the September meeting of the American Psychological Association in St. Louis.

Solon B. Cousins (Religion, emeritus) and Mrs. Cousins had the rare and good fortune to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on August 17. Many churches sent cards of congratulations and members of the Second Baptist Church in Richmond, which Dr. Cousins served between 1921 and 1937 (when he joined our faculty), presented the happy couple with a check for one thousand dollars.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Gray, who made a flying trip to Bermuda in August (and report it is the place to go) reveal that daughter Frances (Mrs. H. B. Mark) has completed all requirements towards her doctorate in Physical Chemistry at Duke University. The dissertation was concerned with the scattering of light. Dr. and Mrs. Mark left immediately after her orals for the California Institute of Technology, where he is a member of the faculty in chemistry.

Merton E. Carver (Psychology) was recently interviewed by Guy Friddell of the Richmond News Leader in a discussion of the problem of juvenile vandalism. Dr. Carver held that in the majority of cases acts of flagrant vandalism can be traced back to a failure or fault in family relationships inside the home.

Many members of the faculty attended the July weddings (same day) of Eleanor Tucker Smart '62 to James Paxton '63, and Edward S. Peple, Jr., '61, to Betty Kelley. Then came an equally attractive ceremony in August in which Gladys Jean Rice, '39, was united to Robert Hodder in the holy bonds. The weather on both days can be described in only one word—perfect.

As a matter of fact, the prevalence of sunny yet cool days this summer in Richmond, especially during June and July, is remembered with pleasure by all those who served in the 1962 Summer School, and we have reports that the lucky ones who managed to get abroad some time during the summer had an equally favorable experience on the other side of the water.

When pressed by your correspondent to name the highlights of the trip to Europe, hardly a single traveler could narrow it down to a single sight, location or experience. In other words, every voyageur had several unforgettable pictures in mind. The B. C. Holtzclaws were most impressed with Lucerne until they recollected the warm-hearted hospitality in Siegen, where they attended an old-home week as delegates from the Memorial Foundation of the German Colonies.

Dean Roberts best remembers the interiors and exteriors of the palaces and mosques in Istanbul, but the view of Asia Minor from the balconies and the steamer ride through the Bosphorus remain much in her mind. As for the Trouts, who attended the Seventh International Conference of Coordination Chemistry in Stockholm around the end of June, a week's tour to Narvik above then Ålesund and an excursion into the Lofoten Region, a "free day" at the Shannon Airport including a dinner at Bunratty Castle, and a visit to Professor Dr. Gerold Schwarzenbach in Zurich all rivalled the Conference itself as high points of the trip. Dean and Mrs. David Robbins, who visited most of the Army installations in France and Germany at the invitation of the Commanding General in order to consult with the authorities on educational problems at the graduate-school level, recall a most pleasant experience—the train ride up the Jungfrau—and another experience not so pleasant—watching a young East German fall to his death on the wall in Berlin from a point about a block away.

President and Mrs. Modlin, who flew there and back early in the summer, were impressed by the performance of Macbeth at the Old Vic Theater, by the art treasures of Florence such as Michelangelo's David, and by the Rhine Valley as viewed through the plastic roof of one of Europe's best trains. Nevertheless, one experience which left them awed, as it were, was the sight of the Echo satellite crossing the heavens just (Continued on page 18)
Alumni In The News:

1905—
The Rev. W. Daniel Quattlebaum of Sierra Madre, Calif., has published an interesting—and somewhat off-beat—brochure, "The Story of an Antique Bohemian Vase."

Mr. Quattlebaum collected antique glass from 1925 to 1956 and this Bohemian vase once belonged to Martha Washington.

1906—
Claude W. Owen has retired after a long and distinguished career in education, 39 years of it at Bluefield College, Bluefield, W. Va., where he was dean for 17 years. In the late forties he became dean emeritus and taught psychology and sociology. Since his retirement on September 1 he is making his home at 1413 Palmier Dr., Blacksburg, Va. Dean Owen, who took his master's degree at alma mater in 1907 and studied summers at Columbia University, was a high school principal from 1906 to 1923, serving Virginia schools in Chase City, Lebanon, Reedeville, Emporia, Gloucester, Lynchburg, Saltsville and Scorbut.

1907—
Sen. Willis Robertson (D-Va.) has been presented a bronze plaque from the International Association of Game, Fish and Conservation Commissioners for his long service to the conservation cause. The Senator is the co-author of the 25-year-old Pittman-Robertson Act, designed to encourage wildlife research and management.

1909—
S. H. Campbell, Jr., owner of S. H. Campbell grain and feed business in Richmond, retired in August because of ill health. The company ceased operation. Mr. Campbell's father was owner before Mr. Campbell Jr.

1911—
Wilmer O’Flaherty, Richmond lawyer, past postmaster of Pote and a life member of the American Legion, was named honorary past commander of American Legion at a convention last month.

Friends of R. McLean Whittet will be saddened to learn of the death of his wife, Mrs. Cornelia Magill Whittet, on September 20. She was active in the civic, social and religious life of Richmond for many years.

1912—
Rep. J. Vaughan Gary will defend his Third district seat in the November Congressional elections. His opponent is Dr. Louis H. Williams, Richmond pediatrician.

1913—
Former State Senator John J. Wicker Jr. of Richmond was married in July to the former Mrs. Ruby Summers McCarty of Memphis, Tenn. The couple was married at Fork Union Military Academy chapel and the ceremony was performed by Sen. Wicker's brother, Col. James Caldwell Wicker, who is president of the institution. The bridegroom's father, Dr. John J. Wicker, was president of the academy for many years.

1915—
David Nelson Sutton, West Point, Va. lawyer, addressed the Tri-State Medical Association at Naga Head, N. C., on June 14.

1917—
Dr. Claudius O. Johnson, widely-known as a lecturer and speaker, writes that his address the first semester will be: Department of Political Science, University of Colorado, Boulder. Col. The second semester, he will lecture at Lewis and Clark College, Portland, Ore.

Dr. Johnson is a professor emeritus of political science at Washington State University. Much of his time recently has been spent as visiting lecturer in residence at several institutions of higher learning.

1919—
Col. James Caldwell Wicker, president of Fork Union Military Academy, thinks "The American Boy is looking for a challenge, and when you give it to him he responds."

Col. Wicker made these remarks to a News Leader feature writer who traced Wicker's remarkable career from his chores at the Richmond Cedar Works, through college, war, a church ministry, and to his present position as head of the nation's third largest military prep school.

1920—
W. R. Broadus Jr., former Martinsville, Va., commonwealth's attorney, member of the House of Delegates, and vice-director of the University's trustees, is active in business in Martinsville as member of the board of First National Bank of Martinsville and Henry county and of Bassett Furniture Industries, Gravely Furniture Co., Henry County Plywood Corp., and North Carolina Granite Corp.

1921—
Walter B. Anderson moved to Pink Acres, Sebring, Fla. in October, and will continue to share time in their home there and their home in Richmond.

Thomas L. Ruffin, president of Ruffin and Payne, Inc., Lumber and Building Supplier in Richmond, has been elected a director of the American Motorists Insurance Co. of Chicago.

1922—
Roy R. Shotwell of Richmond, supervisor of the employer liability section of the Virginia Employment Commission since 1943, has been promoted to chief of contributions. He will supervise the various VEC departments concerned with employer—liability and tax functions.

T. Coleman Andrews of Richmond, chairman of Fidelity Bankers Life Insurance Co. and American Fidelity & Casualty Co., was appointed a delegate by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants to the International Congress of Accountants which was held in September in New York.

Robert T. Marsh Jr., president of First & Merchants National Bank of Richmond since 1952, has been elected chairman of the board and chief executive officer.

1923—
Lt. Col. Richard A. Bowen, formerly of New York City, is now living at Kilmarnock, Va.

1924—
Brigadier General W. Linwood Ball, Richmond physician, has retired from the Virginia Army National Guard after 30 years service.

1925—
Dr. Emmett Y. Robertson, pastor of Park View Baptist Church in Richmond for the past 30 years, and Mrs. Robertson, were honored in September by the Park View Congregation. Dr. Robertson was given a pearl-covered scale model of the parsonage. The model, when opened, contained the deed to the house which he has been buying from the church. Mrs. Robertson was given a string of pearls.

The gifts, a special commemorative address, said: "represent our love and admiration for 30 years of devoted and faithful service."

1926—
Basil W. Lillard, formerly of Stanardsville, Va., is now living in Macon, Ga. His address there is 928 Nottingham drive.

Dr. James E. Carver, former chairman of the department of English of the University of Dubuque, Iowa, has accepted the same position at St. Andrews College, Laurinburg, N. C.

St. Andrews is a new college, formed by the merger of three North Carolina Presbyterian colleges—Flora Macdonald, Peace and Maxton Colleges. It has been in operation for about a year.

1927—
Norman Taylor McManaway of Manassas, Va. has retired from the school supplies and furniture business. His address is 331 East Center St.

1928—
William T. Muse, dean of the T. C. Williams School of Law, has been elected vice chairman of a 15-member commission created by the Virginia General Assembly to study the state's mental hygiene laws.

The Rev. T. Lee Richardson has accepted a position as chairman of the Bible department.
ADMIRAL MELSON HONORED

Vice Admiral Charles L. Melson, '26, has been awarded the Kinmen Defense Command unit button on his recent trip to the offshore islands of the Republic of China.

A native of Richmond, Admiral Melson assumed command of the United States Taiwan (Formosa) Defense Command in May. He formerly was commander of the First Fleet.

His career in the Navy dates to 1927 when he was graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and commissioned as an ensign. Admiral Melson returned to academy in 1958 as its superintendent, a post he held for two years.

A highly-decorated officer, Admiral Melson is married to the former Vadhia Lee Jenkins of Charleston, W. Va. They have a daughter and two stepsons. The Melsons list their official home address as Richmond.

The Commanding General of the Kinmen (Quemoy) Defense Command pins the Kinmen Defense Command unit button on Vice Admiral Charles L. Melson, USN, Commander, U. S. Taiwan Defense Command, during the Admiral's initial trip to this offshore island fortress. With them is General Liu An-chi, Commander-in-Chief, Chinese Army and (right) General Peng Meng-chi, Chief of the General Staff, Ministry of National Defense, Republic of China.

Administration has been transferred from Honolulu to Washington. His business address there is Room 260, Terminal Building, Washington National Airport.

1930—

Dr. Peter N. Pastore has been re-elected president of the Richmond area unit of the American Cancer Society.

1931—

George F. Abbott Sr., 87, the father of Rep. Watkins M. Abbott of Virginia's Fourth Congressional District, died August 3. Mr. Abbott was a retired postmaster and merchant.

F. Henry Garber, commander of the 80th U. S. Army Reserve Division, has been promoted to Major General in the reserves. Garber is a former member of Richmond.

Perley A. Rice has retired as manager of real estate and industrial development for the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad.

Mr. Rice was with RFP&P for 38 years. He was a past president of the Virginia Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

1933—

Ernst W. Farley Jr., president of the Richmond Engineering Co., has been named chairman of the World Trade Committee of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce.

1935—

Brig. Gen. John W. Dobson, former deputy commanding general of the army training center, armor, in Richmond, has been appointed assistant commandant of the armor school at Ft. Knox, Ky. After graduation from the University, General Dobson attended the United States Military Academy at West Point.

E. C. "Ed" Meredith has returned to Raleigh, N. C., as director of the Carolina Asphalt Association, Inc. Meredith formerly was with the North Carolina Highway Department, the Army Corps of Engineers, and Radcliff Materials in Mobile, Ala. He has a son in the Air Force and a daughter who is a freshman at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

1936—

The Rev. Edward Guthrie Brown, former rector of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church of Morehead City, N. C., has accepted a call to become rector of Trinity Episcopal Church in Staunton, Va.

1937—

J. Lewis Ames of Massapequa, N. Y., has joined the Kudner Agency, Inc., of New York, as vice president-secretary and treasurer. He also will serve on the board of directors.

Mr. Ames was assistant director of Business Affairs for CBS Television, Inc., and before that was vice president and secretary of Erwin Wasey, Ruthrauff & Ryan, Inc.

Russell S. Tate Jr. has been elected president and chief executive officer of the Market Research Corporation of America, one of the country's largest research organizations.

Mr. Tate who has been given complete operating responsibilities for the company, has held executive positions in the food industry as well as in marketing research. At MCR, he has been director of marketing, vice president for corporate planning and president of Mathematica, a Princeton-based subsidiary specializing in the application of mathematical sciences to business and government.

Mr. Tate lives in Greenwich, Conn.

David B. Orcutt of Richmond has been appointed regional sales manager of the Hinde & Dauch division of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. He formerly was district sales manager. He joined the firm in 1941.

FERRU M HONORS ARTHUR

C. Ralph Arthur, '38, president of Ferrum Junior College, was honored at a testimonial dinner there in recognition of the honorary degree of doctor of laws which was conferred on him in June by the U. of R.

A silver tray was given Dr. Arthur by members of the Ferrum faculty. He has been president of the junior college since 1954.

Edward M. Schaaf, formerly manager of one of Philip Morris's tobacco factories in Richmond, has been appointed Louisville factories manager for the tobacco firm. His new address is 423 Pennington Lane, Louisville 7, Ky.

1938—

Robert Eugene Segal has moved from Perth Amboy, N. J., to 70 Cliffside dr., Livingston, N. J.

Edward M. Miller, a chemist, has returned to the United States after two years in Kent, England. His address in Richmond is 1708 Elmmere Ave.

1939—

Cmdr. Stuart Allen is now stationed at the United States Amphibious Base in Norfolk.

R. Payne Ryland has moved from Los Angeles to Pioneertown, Calif.

W. P. Lawless, formerly sales representative for Reynolds Metals Company in Tennessee, has been appointed director of Reynolds' divisional sales headquarters in Nashville. The newly-formed Nashville division includes most of Tennessee and Alabama, plus parts of Florida, Georgia and Virginia. Lawless has been with Reynolds 17 years.

Times-Outlook

Cities Emroch

Emanuel Emroch, '28, has been honored as "Man of the Month" in the September issue of the American Jewish Times-Outlook. The accompanying article traces his distinguished career.

A graduate of T. C. Williams School of Law, the Richmond attorney is president of the Virginia Trial Lawyers Association, associate editor of the journal published by the National Association of Claimant's Counsel of America and a Fellow in the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, which has a limited membership of 500 attorneys in the United States and Canada.

Emroch has maintained a close association with the University and has been a national officer of the Alumni Society, is a past member of the board of the Alumni Association of the Law School and last year one of the most successful Law Days ever held was under his leadership.

He and Mrs. Emroch (the former Bertha Visk) have three children. His associate in the law firm is Frank N. Cowan of Danville, Va., also a graduate of T. C. Williams.
1940—

Cndr. Russell K. Wood Jr., his wife and two children, are completing their second year in Europe where Cndr. Wood is stationed. He reports he was in West Berlin recently and "viewed the ugly Communist wall."

Cndr. Thomas H. Brund has moved from Mechanisburg, Pa., and is assigned to the naval supply center in Oakland, Calif.

1941—

J. Tivis Wicker, former Richmond attorney, was ordained into the Baptist ministry in July at Ginter Park Baptist Church. The ordination prayer was led by his father, Dr. J. C. Wicker, former Northside Baptist Church minister and now president of Fork Union Military Academy.

The Rev. William N. Ramey has moved from Martinsville, Va., to accept a pastorate in Lexington, Va.

Robert P. Van Buren attended two weeks of lectures at the University of North Carolina recently in connection with his duties as an assistant director of the Virginia Division of Motor Vehicles.

1943—

Theodore T. Martin has been appointed an associate research chemist in Continental Oil Company's research and development department. He will make his headquarters at Ponca City, Okla.

MBA BOARD ELECTS ERNEST SCHUMACHER

Ernest P. Schumacher, '31, president, Schumacher Mortgage Company, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., was elected a member of the Board of Governors of the Mortgage Bankers Association of America at the Association's 49th Annual Convention in Chicago this month.

Mr. Schumacher has previously served the Association as a regional vice president; chairman of the research and conference committees; and as a member of the educational committee. At present he is chairman of the GI committee.

Mr. Schumacher has been active in community and professional organizations, serving as vice president and a member of the board of directors of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, and as chairman of the Chamber's committee on governmental finance and committee on tax equalization for Shelby County; has been a member of the construction and community development committee of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce; vice chairman of the Memphis and Shelby County planning commission; member of a joint advisory committee for the reappraisal of real estate in Shelby County and Memphis; member of the President's Council of Southwestern College at Memphis; and chairman of region III committee of voluntary home mortgage credit program.

Mr. Schumacher, who lives at 390 Colonial Road, Memphis, is married and the father of two children: Mason and Peverley.

ALUMNI IN ACTION

What is the best seat in the theater?

Any seat on the tenth row on the right or left center aisle is the choice of George Reynolds Freedley, '25, curator of the Theater Collection of the New York Public Library and drama critic and feature writer for the New York Morning Telegraph.

There, he says, you can look across the aisle and get a better view of the stage. "I hate to sit in dead center because you have a head in front of you."

Garbed in an English butcher's apron, he sits at his desk on the third floor of the Library, overlooking Bryant Park, occasionally tooting a policeman's whistle to summon an aide.

Although he likes cats better than human beings, he has a high regard for some human beings and is on friendly terms with playwrights, stars of the Broadway stage and a number of prominent politicians, among them New York's Governor Rockefeller.

He doesn't intend to vote for Rockefeller, however, in the New York elections this fall because he feels the "Democrats will put up just as good a candidate." He admires President Kennedy as a liberal Democrat and, understandably, is on the other side of the political fence from Senator Byrd.

His other non-theatrical friends include former Governor Lehman, Mayor Wagner and Mrs. Roosevelt. He often lunches with Mrs. Roosevelt, talking over with her the program of the John Golden Theater Fund Committee on which they both serve. This group votes money to support theater projects and for libraries, museums and theater groups.

In the theater, some of his best friends are Tennessee Williams, Lawrence Largner, William Inge, Dame Flora Robson, Mary Martin, Ethel Merman, Judith Anderson, Eva LeGallienne, and Maurice Evans. And, of course, Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt, whose biography, The Lunts, is among the ten books he has written.

The wonder is that he finds time to write the books. In addition to his chores at the library and for the Morning Telegraph, he is theater editor of Library Journal, secretary of the New York Drama Critics Circle which writes reviews and selects the best play of the year, and president of the Theater Library Association.

He averages four or five nights a week in the New York theaters during the winter season and in the summer he makes the rounds of the new plays and festivals in the city, in Long Island and occasionally ventures into Connecticut and Pennsylvania. And, of course, there are many lectures to be delivered, in addition to those given at Columbia University where he teaches theater librarianship and literature.

He remembers pleasantly his boyhood days in Richmond (the Freedleys lived at 1811 Monument Ave.). And he is proud of the Virginia Museum Theater in Richmond which he considers "one of the most beautiful in the world." He's proud too of the Barter Theater in Abingdon and of his friend Bob Porterfield.

He has loved cats from his childhood days and his most successful literary works, his last two books have been about them, Mr. Cat and More Mr. Cat, the latter the result of the insistent demand from delighted readers. In the production of these works he undoubtedly has received help and inspiration from all the cats who have known him, including his current favorites, Princess Amber and her son, Prince Sable.

More Mr. Cat came from the press September 5th (his birthday), in time for the Christmas trade, either as a single volume or boxed together with the companion Mr. Cat.

—James B. Robinson, '49

1944—

The Rev. F. Stanley Lushy, an associate professor, has been appointed chairman of the Miami University Department of Religion. Mr. Lushy has been with Miami's faculty since 1935. Before coming to Miami, he was minister to students at First Baptist Church in Richmond; assistant minister at Baptist Temple, Rochester, N. Y.; assistant professor of religion at University of Rochester, and director of the Charles W. Gilkey Foundation at the University of Chicago.

Jack D. Lewis has been named chairman of the public relations committee of Richmond's United Givers Fund campaign. Lewis is president of Advertising Associates, Inc.

Dr. George Iggers returns to Dillard Uni-
LYLE GRAHAM WINS MILPRINT PROMOTION

S. Lyle Graham, '37, vice president and director of personnel and industrial relations for Milprint Inc. has been elected administrative vice president. In his new position, Mr. Graham will assume the additional responsibilities of corporate purchasing, insurance and traffic. His promotion was effected in order to concentrate these three specialized functions into one management group. He will continue to supervise all personnel and industrial relations functions.

Mr. Graham came to Milprint in January, 1960, as director of personnel and was appointed vice president in April, 1961. He was elected to the Milprint board of directors earlier this year.

versity at New Orleans after two years of research in France. A history professor, Dr. Iggers studied intellectual history, history, political science and philosophy there.

1945—

The Rev. Wilbur M. Sims of Richmond is now acting executive secretary for the Department of Christian Stewardship for the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia.

Cmdr. Jerome Imburg, formerly medical officer at the U. S. Naval Hospital in New York, has been assigned to the hospital at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla.

Norman R. Long, formerly of Americus, Ga., is now living at 510 Cathedral Parkway, New York 25, N. Y.

Dr. Philip R. Hart, University Bible professor, and the Rev. Harry W. Baldwin Jr., rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Richmond, were authors of religious articles in The Richmond News Leader recently.

Dr. Hart, in the Weekly Sermonette, declared that "Happy is the man who sees life as an opportunity for abundant living!" and quoted St. Paul: "For me to live is Christ."

Mr. Baldwin admonished his readers to "Remember—you are Sam's keeper. He is your brother. It may take a life time for him to hear and accept these messages from God. Time matters little when you have a hand in saving one soul—even Sad Sam's—in the span of a life time."

1946—

Dr. Phillip D. Weaver is practicing at Weld County Hospital in Greeley, Colo. He lives at 2603 Belair lane there.

1947—

Dr. Kermit E. McKenzie has been appointed associate professor of history at Emory University, Atlanta. Dr. McKenzie recently concluded a TV-program series on "Russian Revolutions of the Twentieth Century." He has been to the Soviet Union twice in recent years, and also has visited a number of the satellite countries.

1948—

Thaddeus T. Crump has been elected vice president for sales of Wilson Paper Box Company in Richmond. He was assistant director of public relations at Virginia-Carolina Chemical Corp. prior to joining Wilson.

W. Bishop Bowen Jr. has been appointed field claims representative with the Eastern regional office of State Farm Mutual Auto-mobile Insurance Co. Bowen lives at 3520 Crest Ave., Richmond.

Lt. Cmdr. Richard A. Chandler, USNR, has been named commanding officer of a naval reserve mobilization team. Chandler is a Richmond City assessor.

Harry J. Perrin Jr. has joined the firm of McConnell & Co. realtors, of Richmond. Perrin is the former director of business research and small business industrial development counselor for the Richmond Chamber of Commerce.

The Rev. F. J. Hendrick is now principal of Norfolk Catholic High School, the largest Roman Catholic parochial school in Virginia.

Dr. Theodore Katz has been appointed a research chemist at Philip Morris Research Center in Richmond. He was formerly senior chemist with Reynolds Metals Co. in Richmond.

GRADS COMMAND MARINE UNITS

The Class of '50 and the Class of '61 were well represented when the Marine Corps activated two reserve units at Richmond and appointed new commanding officers. Maj. Dale Hulce Jr., '50, left, and Capt. Grant Hudson Jr., '61, congratulate each other after being named CO's of the 1st 105mm Howitzer Battery and the 8th 105mm Howitzer Battery, respectively.

U.S. Marine Corps Photo

DR. McGRIFF, '43, MOVES UP AGAIN

Dr. William P. McGriff II, '43, has been named as a management research consultant to the Electronics Systems Division of Hargraves Electronics Corp., Santa Ana, Calif., and as technical media editor and managing editor of Motorola Inc. Military Electronics Division's Engineering Bulletin, Scottsdale, Ariz.

If that sounds like a mouthful of duties, it's typical of Dr. McGriff, who has devoted himself to a technical writing career after a "not-very-enviable" record at alma mater and war service in the Southwest Pacific where he claims to have shot down his own plane twice in the same day as an air/ground artillery observer. (He didn't explain how.)

If his record was not too enviable as an undergraduate he made it up later, having received his doctorate last fall in California.

He started as a technical writer for earth moving equipment, went on to supersonic jets and later became director of technical publications for Stromberg-Carlson before accepting his latest positions.

He lives with his wife and four children in Phoenix, Ariz.

1949—

John F. Munce has been appointed sales manager of Solaronics, Inc., a newly-established manufacturer of infra-red space heaters for industrial and commercial use. He formerly was Eastern Coast distributor of infra-red equipment for the firm.

Dr. Walter E. Reid Jr. is now a chemist with the National Bureau of Standards in Washington. His address is 4708 Edsfield rd., Bethesda, Md.

Capt. Joseph E. Calloway Jr. recently completed the two-week chemical biological and radiological course conducted by the 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Ky. He is assistant operations officer in the division's 11th artillery.

John B. Hawkins Jr. is a systems analyst for Sherwin-Williams Co. of Cleveland, Ohio. He lives at 23477 Greenwood lane, North Olmsted, Ohio.

Capt. Joseph R. O'Brien, formerly of Rockville, Conn., is now stationed in Albuquerque, N. M. He lives at 3520 Crest Ave., SE.

1950—

The Rev. A. J. Rosser, formerly pastor of Webber Memorial Baptist Church in Richmond, has assumed his duties as pastor of Belmont Church in Roanoke. He was a member of the executive committee of the Richmond Baptist Association. He is also a trustee of the Virginia Church Temperance Council.

Earl J. Spencer is holding two positions—that of quartermaster of Hargraves Military Academy and that of president of Grubb & Spencer, Inc., wholesale and retail auto parts company in Chatham, Va.

Wesley J. Curtier Jr. of Lancaster, Pa., is manager of a store which recently opened there. He is president of the Merchant's Association of Manor Shopping Center.

The Rev. Harper Jerome Sasser recently became pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Church, Chattanooga, Tenn. He is also the author of a booklet, "Sermonettes for Children," which is due to be published this year by Upper Room.

Milford Anderson Weaver of Martinsville, Va., is proprietor of the business he started in 1950—the Virginia Blower Co. of Martinsville.

Robert O. Bailey recently moved with the Service Bureau Corp. of Charlotte, N. C., is now working in Washington. His address there is 2251 Wisconsin Ave., N. W.

William P. Montgomery, formerly of Miami, Fla., has moved to 596 Lorette Terrace, N. E., Atlanta.

Charles L. Hiltzheimer, formerly of Radford, Va., has moved to 54 Warbler st., Lake Vista, New Orleans.

The Rev. Edward L. Boyce, pastor of First Pentecostal Holiness Church, has been elected vice president of the Southside (Richmond) Ministers' Association.

1951—

Dr. Ray H. Smith, an Ashland, Va., physician, has been elected to the board of trustees of Hanover Academy. Dr. Smith, a Georgia native, also attended Medical College in Virginia.

The Rev. Richard W. McKay, chaplain of Southwestern State Hospital in Marion, Va., has completed the course of study at North Carolina Baptist Hospital required for accreditation as chaplain supervisor by the Southern Baptist Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. Mr. McKay opened a school in pastoral care at Southwestern State in early October.

William C. Martin Jr. of Washington is a physicist for the National Bureau of Standards there. He is the author of nine articles dealing with his field specialization.

1952—

Clifton L. Warren, who completed his work for the Ph.B. in August, has joined the faculty of Central State College, Edmond, Okla., as associate professor in the English department. A native of Portsmouth, Va., Dr. Warren formerly taught at Oklahoma City University and Indiana University.

W. G. Armbrrecht has been appointed sales manager for Richmond Hotels, Inc. He formerly was reservation sales manager for Eastern Air Lines at Hamilton, Bermuda.

Newton O. Fowler Jr., formerly of Mt. Airy, N. C., is now living at 1913 North Junaluska dr., Richmond. He is production supervisor for Philip Morris, Inc.

1953—

Robert Sutherland Alley of Liberty, Mo., was awarded the Ph.D. degree in Religion by Princeton University during the summer.

The marriage of Charles Anderson Tullloch to Miss Sandrea Jean Wiles took place in August. The couple will live in Richmond.

Dr. John M. Bishop Jr. earned the M.D. degree from Medical College of Virginia and has opened private practice in Raleigh, N. C.

Ronald S. Price, formerly of Hagerstown, Md., is now living at 505 Hayes dr., Lynchburg, Va.

Joseph L. Hendrick of Ossining, N. Y., recently completed the Administrative Career Program offered by Harvard University.

[15]
BUREAU OF STANDARDS PROMOTES DR. MARTIN

Dr. William C. Martin, '51, has been appointed chief of the Spectroscopy section of the Atomic Physics Division of the National Bureau of Standards, U. S. Department of Commerce.

Dr. Martin is head of the section which measures and classifies spectra, calculates atomic energy levels, studies spectral lines by means of interferometry, develops sources of precise wavelength standards and investigates other spectroscopic sources.

Dr. Martin, a specialist in this field, was an instructor in physics at Princeton University before joining the Bureau in 1957.

Since that time he has observed and analyzed atomic spectra and is now investigating the first spectrum of rare earth cerium, a metallic element.

Dr. Martin, a native of Cullmen, Ala., received his Ph.D. degree from Princeton in 1956.

1957—

John F. Noll has passed the examination for Certified Public Accountants.

Louis McDuffy Cameron has received the master of science degree in physics from George Washington University.

Congratulations to Jack Norbert Kodrich on his approaching November marriage to Miss Charlotte Irene Harris of Petersburg.

Edward M. Bishop has been promoted to first lieutenant in the U.S. Army while serving with the 111th Artillery at Fort Campbell, Ky.

The Rev. and Mrs. William R. Jessup have a new daughter, Janice Lynn Jessup.

Capt. Benjamin N. Jones has completed the orientation course for officers of the United States Air Force medical service in Gunter, Ala.

Hugh W. Owens has joined Tidewater Mortgage Corp. in Richmond as a mortgage officer.

Ben Baker has returned from military service in Germany and is now employed with State Planners Bank in Richmond.

1958—

George Hamilton Miller has received his Ph.D. from the State University of Iowa. He is now working as a psychological counselor and assistant professor of psychology at Grinnell College.

The Rev. Robert B. Beasley has become pastor of Farnham and Jerusalem Baptist Churches in Richmond County.

Kenneth E. Burke Jr. was ordained July 17 into the Christian Ministry and is now pastor of Jamestown Baptist Church, Jamestown, Ky.

The Rev. Harry T. Dixon is now pastor of Hillsboro Baptist Church.

Andrew D. Brooks Jr. has accepted a position with the Technical Service Group of the Chemistry Division—Virginia Carolina Co. in Richmond.

Lt. Richard J. Jenkins Jr., recently returned from Korea, is now attending the Officers Advanced Infantry School at Ft. Benning, Ga.

David S. Miller has received his M.D. degree from Medical College of Virginia and is now living in Roanoke.

Michael Brelick has received his master of education degree from the University of Delaware.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Scott of Arlington on the birth of a daughter, Kimberly Ann Scott, and to Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Mathews Jr. on the birth of a son, Fred T. Mathews III.

James Davenport was ordained September 2 in Norfolk into the gospel ministry.

1956—

William M. Wandall was recently promoted to captain in the U.S. Army in Germany where he is a member of the 35th Transportation Company in Frankfurt.

Kenneth Hugh Byron, who received his B.A. in 1956 and his M.A. in 1957 from the University of Richmond, has been tapped for membership in Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Florida where he received his Ph.D. and has accepted a teaching position.

A son, Robert Vance Hannah III, has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Hannah Jr. of Oakton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lyons of Richmond are the proud parents of a daughter, Leslie Anne.

Congratulations to Homer Lee Ford on his forthcoming November marriage to Miss Peggy Iverna Hassel, a Westhampton graduate.

Hats off to Dr. and Mrs. John Donald Millar on the recent birth of a daughter, Alison Gordon Millar.

Congratulations to John Edward Brooks on his forthcoming marriage to Bessie May Burrell, '62 graduate of Westhampton.

ARCHEOLOGIST CHADWICK HEADS IMPORTANT DIG

Robert Chadwick, '52, recently participated in excavations in Mexico that helped fill a gap of 6,000 years in Mexican archeology.

Joining the Tehuacan Archeological Project in March, Chadwick directed excavations at Coxcatlan Cave, one of the project’s most significant sites.

Mr. Chadwick returned to the United States and is engaged in archeological research for the museum of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

During his period as "chief," three burials of approximately 7,000 to 8,000 years old were uncovered. His predecessor in the project found two.

In all, nineteen baskets were excavated with five burials. Only fragments of these were recovered, he said, since they were in a complete state of disintegration.

Three baskets are perhaps the oldest of their type in the world.

Since the discovery of Tepexpan Man in the Valley of Mexico in 1945, scientists have known that man has existed in Mexico for at least 10,000 years.

At Tehuacan, members of the project have traced the steps whereby the Indians learned to domesticate wild maize, weave cloth and make pottery and baskets.
LONNIE SHORR ON “WEEK END”

Lonnie Shorr, ’59, has landed a comedy spot on a nationally-syndicated television show, “Week End,” which will open in New York in November.

Shorr will probably join the show in December, he said. Jerry Lester is master of ceremonies and the show will be seen each Saturday and Sunday night.

In the meantime, Shorr will continue to play the night club and hotel circuit.

requirements at the University of Richmond this summer.

P.F.C. Graham O. Baughan Jr., serving a hitch in the Army at Ft. Hood, Texas, and Mrs. Baughan (Eleanor) announce the birth of a daughter, Glenda Alison.

Bernard F. Harris, Richmond, was married August 4 to Cary Bell, Westhampton, ’61. The bride groom also had another “marriage” recently, joining the firm of Detieux & Watson (CPAs) as an accountant.

Francis E. Comer, attending Medical College of Virginia, will marry Catherine Ellen Hill, a student nurse at MCV, in December.

Wedding bells also will ring for 1st Lt. Luis W. Morales, now with the 2nd Marine Air Wing at Cherry Point, N. C. The bride-to-be is Maria de los Angeles Gimenez of Ponce, Puerto Rico, where the ceremony will be held in November.

More wedding bells: Russell T. Mann Jr. to Darlene Anne Morgan, in August; William D. Snellings to Nancy O’Berry in Richmond in August; 2nd Lt. Donald J. Finley of Ft. Ord, Calif., to Sallie G. Hill of Hopewell, Va.; Kenichi (Jimmy) Sugahara, now working on his master’s degree in math at the University of Virginia, to Yaeko Iwase, whom he met when she came to live with his adopted parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baars, when they were in Tokyo.

Stork news: To Mr. and Mrs. James A. Luke, a son, James A. Jr., and a daughter, Delia Scott, on July 16 in Petersburg, Va.; to Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Beale (he’s in second year law at T. C. Williams) a son, Mark Douglas.

Bill Snellings, mentioned in the marriage news, is a contract assistant now with the Defense General Supply Center, Richmond.

Donald R. Stewart, who has been a field representative with Blue Cross-Blue Shield in Richmond, has been named manager of the Staunton office.

Edward F. (Ned) Heite is managing editor of the Chesterfield News-Journal and is working on his MA at the University of Richmond.

It will include working with Protestant ministers and laymen in using the three commercial and one educational television stations as well as several AM and FM stations.

Before coming to Detroit, Mr. Willingham was a "disc jockey" for a Buffalo radio station and the minister of Delaware Avenue Baptist Church there. His Sunday morning show featured religious and inspirational music.

He decided to enter the field of Christian broadcasting during his sophomore year in college, He majored in physics to gain technical background.

He has worked in radio now for several years. For one year he was week-end staff announcer, giving news casts, commercials and record shows.

Mr. Willingham is married to the former Angelina Pettit, (Westhampton, ’57).
Guy E. Possinger, a law graduate, has been appointed to the field claim staff of State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. He and his wife live at 568 Wakefield Ave., Charlotte, N. C.

2nd Lt. John F. Green has completed the officer orientation course at the Finance School, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind.; the Infantry School course has been completed by 2nd Lt. Owen S. Hauser, and the Adjutant General's School by 2nd Lt. Bruce T. Barley.

Wedding bells: Robert C. Sullivan, law graduate, to Susan Patricia Butler; Cornelia Douglas, Business School grad associated with the Life Insurance Co. of Virginia, to William K. Williamson Jr. of Hopewell; Robert E. Watkins to Ella Louise Gray; George T. Smith to Julia Anne Browder; Arthur W. Lucky to Patricia Ann Crawford, Westhampton College graduate; Rodney J. Hale to Nancy Carol McDowell, and Paul S. Jones Jr. to Ann Bennett, Westhampton '62.

"Things Not Seen Are Eternal"

Not by temporal things but rather by his investment in the eternal does a man's good influence become an everlasting force. There are notable examples of this at the University of Richmond:

TEACHERS, devoting a lifetime of service to their students and then, as in the case of Dr. Loving, Dr. Gaines, and others, leaving large portions of their estates for the continuation of their work;

DEANS, patiently counseling young persons going through their greatest intellectual and spiritual growth;

ALUMNI and other FRIENDS of the University whose memorials are the buildings on the campus, Scholarships and Book Memorials which keep alive their names.

Here truly one builds for the ages, and each year's graduating class reaffirms the wisdom of those who earlier have given so unselfishly. Today's student is the real beneficiary of yesterday's alumnus who included his alma mater in his will for a definite percentage or amount. Such a bequest continues an alumnus' influence in perpetuity.

The University of Richmond has many needs as it accommodates an ever increasing number of students. Please remember that you may not only help to meet those needs as you include the University in your will, but that you may also perpetuate the name of a loved one, an honored teacher, a distinguished alumnus.

A representative of the University will be happy to counsel with you about your bequest. Further information will be provided you if you will complete and return the form below.

George M. Modlin, President
University of Richmond

To: Dr. G. M. Modlin, President
University of Richmond, Va.

☐ I am interested in including the University of Richmond in my will and would like additional information about the bequest program.

☐ I plan to include the University of Richmond in my will. Please have a representative of the University make arrangements to call on me for a private discussion of my plans.

Name __________________________

Address _________________________

[ 18 ]
Westhampton News

1919 Secretary

MRS. WEBSTER I. CARPENTER
(Juliette Bowdridge)
1001 Gates Ave.
Norfolk, Virginia

One of the nicest events of the summer was the party at "Warsaw," the lovely summer home of Florence and Henry Decker. Thanks again to our sister class for including us in on it. Those of you who didn't get there really missed a delightful occasion, and we missed seeing you.

Among those present was Lillian Robertson Carter. We had such a nice letter from her that we would like to pass on to you. She wrote of seeing Kina McGlothlin O'Dell while on a visit to St. Petersburg, Fla., in the spring.

As you probably know, Lillian lives in Amherst and is quite a busy person with a wide variety of interests. Her husband has retired from political life as a state senator and is now in private law practice in Amherst. Lillian cannot forget her years of service as a Home Demonstration Agent with the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, preceded by a period of teaching—in nine years altogether. She is busily engaged in community affairs, participating in the Agicultural Extension program for the county, and teaching an adult women's class in the Baptist Church. She enjoys working with the A.A.U.W. branch locally, the Garden Club, and is organizing a local chapter of the D.A.R. in Amherst County.

Lillian has two daughters, Mrs. Nance Blose of Emporia, Va., and Mrs. Bobbie Edwards of Hampton. Nancy has three daughters, having recently lost her husband, and Bobbie has a 14 year old son and an eight year old daughter. Her husband is an engineer with the Project Mercury at Langley Field.

And Lillian writes that she still sews quite a lot. (Lucky granddaughters!)

Thank you for writing us and giving us a "peep" into your busy and interesting life.

Elizabeth Tompkins tells us at Florence's that Virginia Sned was preparing to take an extended western tour this summer. We hope it was wonderful, Virginia.

May we close with a plea? If there is anyone among you who has more time and more to write about our class doings, won't you please volunteer. We have asked several to assume this job, but so far, no takers!

And we cannot close without wishing Peggy Laws Dicker's daughter, Elizabeth, much happiness. We know that Peggy was busy with wedding preparations at the time of the party at "Warsaw," or else we might have seen her there.

1922 Secretary

MRS. CHARLES H. WEST, JR.
(Eva Timberlake)
303 St. David's Lane
Richmond, Virginia

Not much news comes in during the summer months—however, I hope some of you in the class of 1922 will send me items of news and interest to put in the winter issue of the Bulletin.

After forty years, it is truly great to gather with classmates and enjoy good fellowship and fun. It gives each one an opportunity to find out all about each other. Some of the "girls" are great career people—teaching, writing, busy in many fields of civic and business activities. The proud grandmothers glow with pride as they tell of the cute tricks of their little darlings, while others listen with envy and delight.

We do not have any grandchildren, but our daughter, Sara, now living in Hawaii, is connected with the American Red Cross and is at present working in the Tripler Army Hospital in Honolulu. Of course I had a wonderful visit with her in May and came back by way of Seattle, enjoying the World's Fair. This is our 40th wedding anniversary year and we celebrated it in this delightful manner. Our younger daughter, Ann, is married and lives here in Richmond.

Leslie and Book attended a Bar Association Convention in San Francisco in the early summer and while there were entertained at a luncheon given by Gladys Shaw Daniloff, for the San Francisco alumnae group. Leslie reports that it was an enjoyable event with about twenty-five alumnae, husbands also included. Gladys was the charming hostess in her lovely home. More news about this will be included in a later issue of the Bulletin.

We express our deepest sympathy to Josephine Talley Kritzer in the passing of her father, whose death occurred on July the fourth. I had a nice telephone conversation with Jo and hope to visit her in the near future.

Through the years I have had the pleasure of keeping in touch more or less with Dorothy Winfrey Couble, who lives in Emporia, Virginia, and A. J. Couble, U. S. Navy retired, plays golf when Dorothy gives him free time from household chores. They are such a grand couple and are now looking forward to the birth of their third grandchild, who will be Cynthia's first. Pat, the older daughter has two fine boys and they live not too far from Dorothy.

Elizabeth reports that her eight grandchildren are fine and she has some of them with her in a part of that spacious and homelike Varina-on-the-James. Remember our twenty-fifth reunion with her and how very much Miss Lough contributed to the pleasure of that evening.

The 40th reunion was a glorious one, as you learned from the last Bulletin. Now, as we begin on our way to the 45th reunion, please "girls" send me some data—it is later than you think! I will be anxiously waiting to hear from you.

1923 Secretary

MRS. BARTER CORPREW (Dorothy Sadler)
7100 Horsepen Road
Richmond, Virginia

Well, this is it! The beginning of our 40th year is here. Shall we celebrate in June '63? I know you would not miss it, but—we must have news and suggestions.

This has been a full summer. Kent traveled out to the west coast and visited the Seattle World's Fair. Of course, he was particularly interested in the Science Exhibits since she is head of the Chemistry Department at Fair Hall, Waynesboro. Her letter describing her trip was most interesting. Elizabeth Schenk and Ethney Headley attended the Bath County Horse Show at Staunton in July. On their way home they put in a call to Kent, planning to digress from route 250 and pay her a visit. She was then in Seattle. Elizabeth's daughter, Betty Beryl, displayed her usual excellent horsemanship at the show, winning championship on Working Hunter and Reserve champion on Conformation.

In July, Ruth Powell Tyree joined the ranks of the proud grand-ma. Her daughter, Virginia Hart, and incidentally the baby cup winner for '23, had a fine son.

Sally Davis is a busy gal but not too busy to run down to Virginia once in a while. While visiting her sister in Zuni she had several along with other friends, down to a delightful luncheon. Olivia, Lelia, Dora, Elizabeth, Hannah and Ethney had a wonderful visit with Sally and enjoyed a beautiful day in the country.

All of you should take a trip to Richmond, do a little shopping, call someone up by phone and run out to see the progress being made on the swimming and wing of Keller Hall. It is no longer a dream but a reality.

These '23 gals really get around. In August, Olivia and Ethney, with Margaret Carlton, drove out to Bluefield to visit Ruth Lazenby McCulloch. They felt they had climbed every mountain in Western Virginia before they reached there, having gone by way of Lexington, West Virginia, Sulphur, Margaret Lazenby and Brown has moved back home and it was good to be with her again.

A card from Jo Tucker in Greece today just as this letter was going to press. Doesn't that sound wonderful? Tuck went to England to visit Mildred Campbell Broome who still lives just outside of London, and then the two of them took off on a trip which included an Argosy flight to the Orient.

It would also be good to hear from some of you. If you do read our alumnae letters and like them—tell us so. Also tell us other bits of news. We must keep in touch. After all, you know we were a wonderful class.

I was about to leave our space bare this quarter when a delightful letter came from Thelma Phleger Owens. I am quoting it just as it came to me: "I happened to look at the Bulletin today and felt a deep nostalgia for Westhampton, since you published news of Glimmer and Culley. I thought you might be interested in the fact that I have moved to California this year. My address is 1617 Silverado Trail, Napa, California. My husband is in defense work at More Island Navy Yard— a field engineer. (He began a new career almost at retirement age and is making excellent progress.) My son, Donald, is a senior at Pennsylvania State University. Doug is still in high school. Mama is living with us here since my father's death.

We love California, perhaps because the cool nights and warm days (plus the towering mountains) remind us of Bluefield. We have a low-lying ranch house on an acre of fruit and flowers, irises, petunias, pansies, apples, pears, plums, olives, oranges, lemons! At a very late date indeed I am turning into a gardener. I am still very much interested in writing and, of course, in community activities and club work, especially the American Association of University Women.

Those days at Westhampton were truly the good old days, weren’t they? No atom bomb, no income tax—for us, anyhow—and no real problems. But life had been good. I hope it was for you, too.

1927 Secretary
Miss Edith M. DeWitt
2601 Midway Road
Decatur, Georgia

How I wish all of you could have been with us in June for our reunion! It was wonderful! Fifteen of us made it back, and I agree with Margaret Powell Armstrong’s comment: it was even better than we had dreamed. The highlight was our class dinner at Evelyn Bristow Robert’s lovely home on College Road. But every minute was heart-warming and happy. The Alumnae Meeting—a nostalgic stroll past the chapel and dormitory by the lake and the footpath to the college on the hill, a road so many of us have traveled so many times—the thrill of seeing ground broken for the swimming pool—Fanny G’s glow when it was announced it would bear her name—the luncheon by classes in the gymnasium of Keller Hall—Dr. and Mrs. Modlin’s delightful tea for alumnae, where we met friends from other classes—bull sessions as of yore—all added up to a gala week-end.

Those who attended were: Margaret Powell Armstrong, Kitty Pink, Anna Massey Deviiibiss, Edith DeWitt, Molly DuVal, Dee Kelly, Dorothy Knibb, Alice Lichtenstein, Alis Loehr, Betty McKnight, Maude Morley, Eleanor Waters Ramsay, Evelyn Bristow Robert, Maude Everhart Tremper, and Jean Wright Woodfin. Eleanor also had ten letters which we all enjoyed from others of you who I am sure were with us in spirit. It was voted that Eleanor should be made our permanent class chairman, and I agreed to write the news for the Bulletin. But please do keep me posted.

Audrey Massey Peay writes that one of their sons graduated from John Marshall this year and the other is finishing V.M.I. and will go into the Army.

Margaret Saunders Haile sent us word that she had a date with “a handsome cadet” at reunion time which kept her from being with us. Her son graduated from V.P.I. summa cum laude. He also will go into the Army. He has been elected to the national honor fraternity in engineering and has recently been awarded the National Defense Fellowship, good for three years of graduate study. Margaret’s daughter, Jane, married in April 1961, is now living in Cochabamba, Bolivia, in the Andes Mountains.

Her younger son expects to enter George Washington University this fall.

Helen Gasser Sheppard is justly proud of her daughter who graduated from Colgate-Rochester Divinity School this spring.

As for me, this has been quite an eventful year—a trip to Egypt and the Holy Land in March, class reunion in June, and retirement after 27 years. Mary Butterworth and her husband were visiting in the Bahamas.

By chance Doris Turnbull Wood, returning from a Home Economics convention in Miami, stopped in Richmond at the time Frances Schofield was here. We had two small reunions; one at my home and one at the deanery.

‘Liz’ Barton has resigned her teaching position in Georgia and returned to Montgomery, Alabama to be with her father. The two of them were visiting relatives in Virginia and stopped by to see Helen Moon.

Our congratulations to Louise Hardaway Boswell who received her M.A. in History from Loyola this summer. Louise’s youngest son is a sophomore at Hampden-Sydney.

Virginia Snow Richardson and her husband are now at Elon College where he will be teaching.

Natalie Evans Sanford and Taylor are flying to California to visit Dr. Nevitt Sanford and on to Hawaii to visit Taylor, Jr. and his family.

Sykes DeHart, Panny’s son, has won many honors at V.P.I. where he is a senior pre-med student. Recently the Chicago Tribune gave him an award for outstanding scholastic and military achievement.

1930 Secretary
Mrs. John E. Millea
(Priscilla Kirkpatrick)
8 Mt. Ida St., Newton, Mass.

When Virginia Prince Shinnick’s daughter, Peggy, graduated from Hollins in June, she was awarded a Fulbright grant to study at the University of Aberdeen, Scotland. Peggy, however, did not accept the grant. She was married September 1 to Tristram Tupper Hyde, IV, and has gone to live in Charlottesville. Daughter Frances, has graduated from College and Margaret Leake, Armstrong’s youngest, Elizabeth, is now a senior at College School and President of Student Government.

Elise McClintic spent part of her vacation in Alaska.

A note from Shirley Gannaway Cornick suggested that ‘30 have a swimming party at our next reunion!

Virginia Saunders Thomas was at Myrtle Beach, S. C., in August and from there went to Washington to visit her daughter and two granddaughters.

I spend some time in July with a friend in Swarthmore, Pa. Then John and I made our annual visit to Cape Cod after Labor Day.

I’m hard pressed for news most of the time. Please write!

1931 Secretary
Mrs. Tucker Hargrove (Virginia Beck) Dinwiddie, Virginia

Seven of us were at school for alumnae week-end—Carolina Beattie, Nancy Buxton Cowan, Anne Jones Burkholz, Margaret Leake, Allene Pace Lecky, Loretta Taylor Sullivan and I. Nancy had her daughter, Selden, with her. They were looking at prep schools for Selden to attend next year.

Loretta’s son, Robert, graduated from T. C. Williams Law School, Monday, June 11th. Her daughter (the baby cup winner), Mrs. Thomas Little of Syracuse, New York, has a daughter six and a handsome three year old son.

Lucy Taylor Long studied at a workshop in Petersburg this summer. All our sympathy goes to Carolina, whose youngest brother, Dabney Beattie, died in June.

Clark and Page Cauthorne spent the summer on the river at Irvington.

I spent a week at Virginia Beach in August. Hope all of you had a grand vacation. Let me hear what you’re doing this fall.

1932 Secretary
Mrs. Glenn S. Hesby (Katherine Roberts)
900 West Franklin St.
Richmond 20, Virginia

Summer vacations brought new experiences for some and renewed old acquainances for others. Mary Templeman Marshall and Phyllis Perkinson had wonderful trips to Europe but on different tours. Jessie Miller Turner spent two months with Virginia Jones Pharr. Evelyn Ward was with her husband at A. P. Hill Reservation at Bowling Green, Virginia. Also she visited her parents in Hampton, Virginia and she and I spent a weekend with Virginia Pharr.

Glenn and I had a wonderful trip by car to San Diego, Cal., up the coast to Los Angeles, San Francisco and on to Seattle, Wash. En route we spent a night with Virginia Jones Pharr. Eleanor Mofol Allen and her husband at their ranch just outside of Tucson, Arizona.

Mary Lucile Saunders has been in Richmond while on furlough from her duties as missionary to the Philippines. Mary Mathews, “Dee” Taylor, Valerie Jones, Helen Deck, Carolyn Broaddus, who had come to Richmond to bring her daughter, Betsy, back to Westhampton for her senior year, and I entertained Mary Lucile at lunch. Her witty and enlightening remarks on people-to-people program, with each traveler paying his own way. June brought Tish's wedding to Dr. Frederick H. Welland. After a trip to the Caribbean, the couple is living in Bethesda, Maryland.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to Fay and her family in the loss of her father.

1934 Secretary
Miss R. Van Heuveln (Frances Lundin)
3905 Midlothian Pike
Richmond 28, Virginia

The June ground-breaking exercises for the Swimming Pool were attended by four from our class, Ammye Hill, Hazel Coleman, our Wood, and myself. It was truly a day to be remembered.

Three more class daughters will be on hand to enjoy this new addition, Betty Puckett and Lou van Heuveln are entering Westhampton as freshmen. Julie Ann Martin is a junior transfer, having completed two years at St. Mary's, Raleigh, N. C. Among others beginning their college studies are Margaret Proctor Swetnam's daughter, Ashlin, who attends Mary Baldwin, and Nancy Seaton's daughter, Nan, a freshman at Madison.

Liz Goodwin has a special reason to remember this summer. Her daughter, Ann, became the bride of Jon Richard Morum in August.

I had a nice note from Helen Hopson telling me that Millie Crowder Pickels was in Richmond in July. Unfortunately, I was away at the time and did not see her. However, Boo Page, Esther Dutton, and Helen had lunch with Millie. She is really enjoying life in California. Her husband has retired and they travel quite a lot. Millie is much interested in charity work.

Steve Hopson, Helen's son, received a du Pont Regional Scholarship to the University of Virginia. He has also been selected to be an Echols Scholar.

I am so sorry that more of our class did not attend Homecoming—particularly the ground-breaking exercises for our swimming pool. We had a really wonderful time. Margie Tabb, Elizabeth Wilson, Virginia Ingram Guest, and I enjoyed a long "pow-wow."

Invitations were received by some of our group to the wedding of Thomas Hamilton Enslow and Elizabeth Jo Worthington in Seattle, Washington on May Fourth. Congratulations to Dot and Hamilton whom we miss so much—they live so far away.

1937 Secretary
Miss Pollyanna Shepherd
1053 Naval Avenue
Portsmouth, Virginia

When I agreed to take this job as class secretary at our reunion in June, I did it with the solemn promise that everyone would send me news. So, girls, please keep your promise and send me news about yourselves and other members of the Class of '37. Remember, what seems trivial to you, is news to the rest of us. Also, please send me any changes of address.

Christine Vaughan Troxell could not join us at the reunion because her oldest daughter, Emily, was graduating from Mary Baldwin that week-end.

Graduation plans also prevented Nancy Lee Riley McFall from being present, since her oldest child, Pepper, graduated from high school that week, and Nancy Lee and Lyle helped chaperone the class on their trip to New York at the same time as our reunion. Pepper entered Averett College this fall.

Louise Thompson Chewning and Merle Norris Caldwell saw Kitty Broyles Kerr while she was in Richmond in August. Because of her mother's illness, they said she looked wonderful, so teaching must agree with her. They also report having seen Florence Troutner Harris when she was in Richmond.

Margaret Mitchell Meador's second daughter, Caroline, finished Chowan Junior College and is now a junior at East Carolina College in Greenville, N. C.

Louise Thompson Chewning's daughter, Patsy Chewning Young, is teaching in the new school in Tuckahoe.

Peggy Louthan Shepherd was in Richmond with her mother while her father was in the hospital during the summer. We hope all of the parents who were ill during the summer have recuperated now and are doing fine.

R. Deaton Smith, Jr., son of Joyce Stanley Smith, has received his Eagle Scout Badge and is also a member of the Order of the Arrow.

Congratulations, Deaton! Aren't we proud of all these honors that come to the children of our classmates?

We are grateful for the grand job that Mitch did as our class secretary. You can be sure that she is still active in her Westhampton alumnae activities, because she has been working with the tea room committee during the summer.

Please send me the news before next news time in December. and will have teachers in for her lessons, as she is in a cast. We wish her a speedy recovery and hope she will be back in school soon.

Doris Hargrave Kibler is back from her trip to California with Calvin and the two children. She reports that the children did fine and all enjoyed it very much.

I had a letter from Lois Blake McGriff, East Beach, N. C. who, I wish to share with you,
"Last spring I was lucky enough to receive a R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company scholarship for the University of California. Husband Vance, Daughter Martha and I all attended the first summer session. (Martha was in the Demonstration School). What made our summer doubly enjoyable was that we sublet John and Marie Duck's house in Berkeley, since they were in Richmond during that time. They are ideally located half way up in the Berkeley Hills with a breathtaking view of San Francisco Bay, the cities of Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco, the famous Golden Gate and Bay Bridges.

The courses I was taking were American Literature since 1985 and British Literature since 1900, which naturally meant plenty of reading. However, we did manage several interesting week-end jaunts during our six weeks in Berkeley.

The Jordans returned two days before we left for summer school and also took the first time in years. John is teaching during the second summer session."

Thank you so much for your letter and wish more of you would write me of your activities.

Hebert, Tommy and I were in Atlanta for a visit and then on to Panama City, Florida.
It's nice to be back and in the regular routine.

GREENINGS, All, at the beginning of another fall and winter season, I offer my own newly­ created set of Beatitudes for Alumnae, to wit:
Blessed is she who giveth a portion of that which is hers, that the school may prosper in all kind of ways.

Blessed is she who doeth interesting things, and who SO INFORMETH YE CLASSE SEC­ RETARY. Put this in your bathroom mirror, and abide by it.

These are the blessed ones this time, even if I did have to track down some of 'em . . .

Kitty Crawford Lindsay voluntarily wrote of teaching freshman English at Hofsta College, and of spending the summer in Toronto, Can­ ad, writing television dramas for the Broadcasting Company. Son Rob spent seven weeks in camp in Connecticut. Kitty would like to continue both teaching and writing, were it possible. "I have no intention of giving up writing, now that I know how much I enjoy it . . .
" "I see Carolyn [Gary Hugo] several times a week, and we always tell each other we haven't aged at all, which is obviously wishful thinking." Kitty's new address is 75 Knollwood Avenue, Huntington, Long Island.

The next dear comrade to volunteer data was Mildred Gustafson Donahue, who has returned home with Martha, now 13 years old, who has been confirmed in Johns-Hopkins for an operation and for mentally retarded children. With her husband, Patsy bowls on their church league;
she is also on the PT A Board at their school.
Her daughter Kathy studies dancing. 12-year­ old Jeff plays baseball. In addition to all this family activity, Patsy is doing a TV series on video tape, which means memorizing three scripts a week. The program is "The Brighter Day, CBS. "I'd love to hear from the gang as to how they like my character of 'Maggie Quincy--kookie next door neighbor' (typecasting huh?) A card or letter to CBS-TV, Hollywood, Calif., c/o The Brighter Day, will reach me."

Alese Hardaway Prince and her family spent most of the summer in their usual spot at Virginia Beach. Mrs. Prince was recovering from a bout with an ulcer, they all enjoyed crabbing, fishing and resting.

Sarajane Payne Arkellis and her family shared a 'most glorious trip'--by jet to and from Bermuda, where they rented a house on a bay with a pool. Riding in a fringe-topped surrey, they felt they were living in another world.

George, Jr., was in the N. Y. State seminal list of Babe Ruth national all-stars. He won a scholarship for his second year in Fairfield Prep. Janie golf and swims, and adores girl scout camp.

Jean Neasmich Dickinson and Enders spent some time in Vermont, where they visited their family to California, camping half the time. They visited Margaret Brittingham Curtice, who at another time visited her parents in Suffolk with her younger son. Brit's older son was recently married.

Mayme O'Flaherty Stone's son, Andy (9) goes to Hopkins in July, receiving a good report which they found very encouraging.
They assume he has had rheumatic fever, and we join them in gratitude that he is back in public school, taking part in many more things.
Their family toured Virginia, filling a scrapbook as well as many wonderful days. Mayme is now Minister of Music at Third Presbyterian Church, and continues teaching piano.

Henrietta Sadler Ellwanger spent a splendid month at Williams College in Massachusetts, as a John Hay Fellow, while her children abode with her parents.

Toni Wirth Whitter's daughter Connie made debut in August, and is now a student at Hollins. Their family had a fine journey to the World's Fair in Seattle.

Ann Phillips Bonifant and "Iz" Holden
Slipok took art classes at the Museum while Ann's children were in camp. With Frazier Druwmright Catron, her two daughters and one of Iz's, they spent a weekend in Williamsburg and viewed "The Common Glory." She is going seriously into portrait-painting, and is part­ time librarian at the Ginter Park Community House. Having six children, she inspires the rest of us to the realization that home duties need not prevent the development of talents and the accomplishment of a great deal outside the home.

Frazier Drumwright Catron is studying interior decorating.

Bitty Epes Hardy's nephew, Wilfred Armstrong Epes, was married this summer. Friends will remember how devoted Bitty always was to "Vee Bossy."

In the winter issue of Virginia Calvacaappeared an article by Betsy Woodson Weaver, entitled "Midlothian Mines." A picture of her home accompanied the article, viewed with pride by classmates and other friends.

Ann Woodward Courtney visited in Richmond this summer, at which time Bob was planning a business trip to Africa.

Connie Powell Luttrel and I met at Crozer Seminary, Chester, Pa., in May, helping to adds years to your life ... and LIFE to your years! ENJOY Virginia Dairy Milk every day!

MILK

EL 5-2838

VIRGINIA

D A I R Y

DELI C I O US

IN THE BARGAIN!
found "The Friends of Crozer," an organization aimed at encouraging Christian education, particularly for the ministry.

Centered around Southern Baptist Foreign Missions Week at Glorietta, New Mexico, our family vacationed on the first part of a camping trip clear to California and back. Not campers by nature, we nonetheless had a wonderful month: learned a lot, felt kinship with the pioneers, dear memorable experiences, saw nothing for which we'd trade Virginia! We returned to enter our twins in the University—Patricia in Westhampton, Bob in Richmond. We met the third generation on both sides of the family to study there.

Read that note on your mirror—and be among next issue's Blessed!

1942 Secretary

Mrs. B. G. Cline (Esther Wendling)
Falls Church, Virginia

Our 20th reunion (could it really be that long?) was wonderful! And we all looked so young. Everyone said so. For those of you who couldn't come, and because remembering is the University-Patricia in Westhampton, Bob Reese, Harriet Howe Byrider, Ann Gwaltney flowed. If you weren't there, you were surely lovely wooded setting at Emma Bee's house.

Friday evening so we could enjoy the epicurean delight complete with Emma Bee's pictures of "Our" Miss Virginia, Anne Robey and Virginia Anne Sauer, Anne Smith Palazzo, Dorothy Mond 35, Va.) Modesty does nothing for our Virginia Beach for his next tour of duty. Their experiences, saw nothing for which we'd trade Virginia! We returned to enter our twins in the University—Patricia in Westhampton, Bob in Richmond. We met the third generation on both sides of the family to study there.

May and Doug Holt had a wonderful weekend with Annie Loie and Lou at their home in Radnor, Pennsylvania. They especially enjoyed going to the "Theater in the Round."

Kay and Bob Cruchfield have just found out the happy news that Bob will be stationed at Virginia Beach for his next tour of duty. Their girls will be able to finish high school there. Kay reports that Renn (now 4½) is really a character. (He's our God child and cute as a button). Kay has the Polaroid pictures of the reunion which we are circulating to those not attending. When you get them, please send them on to the next girl so all may enjoy them.

And Ann and Karl Garrett managed to wedge in two trips this summer between baseball and swimming activities. With both children in school all day, Ann plans to do some substituting this year.

LaVerne and Carl Muse and their boys had a fine August holiday at Neug's Head. They were delighted to find Dick and Mary Lou Sawyer and their four children also vacationing there. Louise's Bob Moser is busily engaged in house building around the man made lake. B. G. and I were fascinated—lovely big roomy houses—equally attractive inside as outside. Of course the best thing of all is that they are luxuriating in one of these homes.

Do write me the news, especially you strong silent gals, lest we have blank spaces for 1942. B. G. and I will be delighted to have visitors. We are just 7 miles from the Nation's Capitol you know. Come see us at 6933 Greentree Drive, Lake Barcroft, Falls Church, Va.

1943 Secretary

Mrs. Robert S. Black (Althea Johnson)
4101 Pawnee Road
Richmond 25, Va.

You have a new class secretary, so please help me out by sending along all your news.

Mary Elder Pauli's daughter, Carol, starts Westhampton as a freshman this fall. That should make us feel our age—she was our class baby cup winner!

Pepper saw Barbara Fuller Cox at the Alumnae Luncheon in June and found that Barbara has a new daughter, Catherine Baum Cox, who was born in January, 1961 but never reported to the Bulletin. Belated congratulations to Barbara.

Maxine Williams Rogers and her two children had a wonderful trip to New York on the R. F. and P. Theatre Train over Labor Day weekend. In addition to seeing "Camelot" they really did the town and loved it all. Puff Poteat Hambert and her family were back from five weeks in New Hampshire, in time for the opening of school. They had a grand vacation. Both their girls won tennis championships at New Hampton, N. H.; they had an unexpected visit to Quebec with Dean and Mrs. Smart; and on their way home they visited Betty Anne and George Shackelford in their new home in Hartford, Conn. Louise Cardozo Long is going to be busy this year working on student relations at Westhampton for the National Alumnae Board. Cozy reported a "quiet" summer at home with six or more houseguests at a time.

I know you will all want to join me in expressing our deepest sympathy to June Hargrove Cornwall who lost her mother and father this summer. June, who is teaching at St. Catherines' won a scholarship to Randolph-Macon this summer.

I am sorry I didn't have more news for you this time but I'll be looking forward to hearing from you. And start making your plans now to come to the reunion.

1944 Secretary

Mrs. William B. Graham (Mary Alderson)
2015 Maple Lane
Richmond 29, Va.

I can't blame you for not writing to me who never wrote to any of the other class secretaries, but if you don't, I'm afraid you're going to get awfully tiredreading about the Graham's. I had a nice newsy letter from Dot Monroe Hill in June. She said Gloria Tyler Robertson and Clayton had just returned from a five week trip to Europe. They flew over and came back on the United States. They visited England, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Austria, and Italy—a real whirlwind tour, for sure!

Dot also said they were delighted to get an announcement of the adoption of Susan Rebecca Stephenson by Molly and Jim. She was born March 3 of this year and adopted May 4. That makes a girl and a boy in the family. Molly's address, in case you don't have it, is Capt. and Mrs. James Stephenson, 1663 Selby Ave., Los Angeles 24, California. Jim is getting his
Most of our news this time involves the vacances of our classmates, which covered a good part of the continent.

Wanda and Warren Pace spent a month in Yankeeland at Southampton, Long Island.

Anne Garland and Walt and two other couples went to Virginia Beach to the Cavalier Yacht Club and spent a week. Some friends of ours who have a boat and three boys too went along with us which made it very nice.

The deadline for the next issue is Dec. 10th, so why don’t you all send me an early Christmas card with some news on it?

1945 Secretary

MRS. CLARK HUBER (Margaret D. Clark)
6089 Howard Road
Richmond, Virginia

Most of our news this time involves the vacances of our classmates, which covered a good part of the continent.

Wanda and Warren Pace spent a month in Yankeeland at Southampton, Long Island.

Gin and Guy Friddell went off on a theatrical spree to New York—seeing 8 plays while there and covering the museums in the daytime. Gin particularly enjoyed “The Night of the Iguana” and the off-Broadway play, “Oh, Dad.” They also saw the Picasso birthday exhibit at the Museum of Modern Art, and spent a whole night with paper and pencil in hand, determined to ferret out every crumb of news. Through the fog and sleet of “Do you think sixth grade is too young for Cotillion?” and “One of the girls in first grade refuses to wear morsels.” “One no trump—you is a good teacher, but . . . .” I finally gleaned a few morsels.

Of course, the most exciting and unattainable for us taxi-driving mothers was Jeanne Yeamans’ trip to Europe. This, her third crossing, was made on the elegant La France in April. She has just been installed as president of the Woman’s Society at her church so she has a big card with some news on it?
that Bob is headmaster of Hanover Academy, a private school there.

Mary Frances Bethel Wood is most enthusiastic about working in the library of the Richmond Newspapers, condensing news items to file cards for future reference. Mary Frances also told me that Ann Jones Parker spent a month in Richmond this summer. They met to chat several times.

I know that all of you want to thank Barbara for the fine job she did for us. I shall try to do as well but I do need news. The next letter is due early in December, so please let me hear from you before then—better do it now!

1947 Secretary

Mrs. John C. Horigan (Mimi Daffron) 4606 Steed Ave. Richmond, Va.

I'm afraid that you will have to do better about writing to your group leader if we are to have nice long newsy letters. Please make a note now to remind your group leader a Christmas card—with a note attached.

Vacation news will be the bulk of this letter. The one of us that went the farthest afield is Bev Hi Browne. She and her mother took the V-E-A tour of Europe this summer. Marion Collier Miller drove her two boys, Mark and John to New York for a tourist's holiday in July. They saw the sights and some plays and ate in some most interesting restaurants.

A little less sophisticated trip but one just as enjoyable was taken by the Cumbys. Mary Lou and Gary also along with their three children spent their vacation camping out in the mountains of Virginia.

Our own vacation was spent at Virginia Beach. Betty Brown Parsons is always the first person I see whenever we go to the Amusement Park as she and her family go every year for several weeks at the beach.

Another beach vacation was taken by Ann and Dan Borger. They went to Wrightsville Beach, N. C.

Dottie and Dean Freitag are back in Mississippi although they have been in Alabama for a time. While there Dean studied on a Research Fellowship. Their children are George, 8, Mark, 6 and Susan, 4. Dottie and Dean are busy with Sunday School and Scout activities and glad to be home again.

We wish to express our sincere sympathy to Susie Guard Woody who lost her father in March and her Vin Watan Riley whose father died in May.

We have two new additions for our class. Another boy, Louis Wilbur, was born to Izzy and J. Allen on July 9. This winter she will have four at home under school age which makes for a pretty busy life.

Helen Cole Richardson and Straughan welcomed Ann Good on May 28. She joins three sisters—Lee 12, Susan 10 and Sally 7. After Gin Ellet returned from Cornell in August Frances Coles McGlennon came for a visit. We had another reunion of sorts when Alice Crutcher, Marion Miller, Betty Andrews and I went by to see her. She lives in upstate New York and is having quite a time introducing Southern foods and customs to her Yankee husband and family. She had spent a good part of the summer in Halifax, Va.

Please, don't forget my plea—and write your group leader now!

1948 Secretary

Mrs. Robert O. Marshall (Mary Cross) 7815 Granite Hall Ave. Richmond 25, Virginia

Here I am again writing the news. Johnnie Johnson Sanford is about to attend Antioch, Massachusetts where her husband has taken a new job. Our sympathy goes to her in the death of her mother this past summer. We were also distressed to hear of the death of Jean Brumsey Biscoe's infant son in August. Also to Helen Condules Coughous we extend our sympathy on the loss of her father recently.

Sarah Bishop Willbourne has agreed to be responsible for the fund-raising and reunion part of the secretary's job. She and Jack had a lovely business-pleasure trip to the Pikes Peak Mountains, G.A., this fall. In the summer she visited Pam Burnside Gray at Pam's rustic river cottage and enjoyed a long chat.

Earlier Pam visited her parents in Nassau.

In May, Seth Darrow Shannahans was in Richmond and had lunch with Sarah and Johnnie. Other forty-eighthers who got together this summer were Milliecent Hutchinson Taylor who, while visiting Doris Moore Ennis, went over to Emily Smith Powers' for an evening. Jo Hoover Pitman came up from Clinton, Miss. with Bob and their four girls for a visit. Jo is taking some educational courses this fall to renew her teaching certificate.

Lois McIlvannan Garrett and family had a great tour this summer through New England and into Quebec, Canada.

Sightseeing in New York and Boston provided summer vacation fun for Sarah Brenner Rubin, Milt and the boys. Sarah is busy this fall teaching Hebrew four afternoons a week at her synagogue.

Church work also occupies much of Alice Goodman's time. Besides teaching a Sunday School Class, directing a youth group, she attends and plans many conferences as chairman of the Southern Region of Christian Endeavor.

When her husband went to summer camp with his guard unit, Arleen Reynolds Schaefer packed up the five children in a trailer and went along to Camp Pendleton where they lived in the barracks and cooked in the mess hall! Great adventure!

Bob, Cary, Jean and I enjoyed a sightseeing trip to the saguaro cacti, then a restful stay at Virginia Beach. With fall here, Carol is in the fourth grade, Jean is in the third, and Bob continues to study to finish his C.H.U. exams. He has passed three out of the five parts. I lead a Brownie troop, teach Sunday School Class and chauffeur the family to piano lessons and choir practice.

Jackie Pitt Suttonfield and her family vacationed in the mountains.

Welcome back to Richmond, Margaret and Jack Brizendine. He is now at the University of Richmond in religious education.

1949 Secretary

Mrs. William Jennings (Jane Sanford) 1129 Parsons Lane Aiken, South Carolina

News from the '49ers is a little slim this time as in the process of changing secretaries I'm sure many must have forgotten to write. Rosie Callhoun McGary turned her job over to me along with a newsy letter about some of our class members. A letter from Hathaway Pollard Clemens brought interesting news. Her husband Tom graduated from Virginia Episcopal Seminary in March and accepted the position of Deacon-in-charge of St. George's church, 'Pine Grove,' Stanley, Virginia. They had barely gotten settled when son, Thomas Walker, arrived July 5th. The Clemens have two other children, Cheryl Ann, age 3½, and Susan Hathaway, age 1½.

Martha Kenney spent the summer at the University of South Carolina taking abstract Algebra and the new approach to geometry, and she says both were "way out." When I saw Martha she sounded as if she were having a fine time going back to school and getting paid for it. She returns to her beloved St. Thomas Island, Virgin Islands to teach again the middle of September.

Rosie also had heard from Kitty Wyatt Townes who had just returned from a vacation at the beach with Bill and two children.

The McCarys had a wonderful time at Ocean Drive Beach right in good ole South Carolina. Aiken, S. C. isn't far away.

If anyone is going to be contacting all of you. Let's hear from you.

1950 Secretary

Mrs. David B. Burbank (Doris Balderson) 910 Hampstead Ave. Richmond 26, Va.

While in Washington, D. C. this summer, I called Joanne Waring Karppi's mother to find out when Joanne and Bill would be back in the states. She said that they had another year to stay in Madras, India.

Barbara Lee Jones' husband was asked by the Agriculture Department to go to Russia during the summer as an exchange farmer with other farmers.

Nancy Chapin Phillips and Alex had their first child on May 9th. Her name is Tracy Jeanne.
Jean Tinsley Martin and Roy added a second girl to their family of three on July 5th. They named her Suzanne Marie.

Robert Scott was welcomed into the home of Pris Enslin Marsh and Jim on April 21st. He was born March 7th.

Ruth Morrissey Bain wrote a nice letter to Barbara White Balderson from Southern Rhodesia where Tom is a missionary doctor. Their big news is a son, John Norman, born on July 9th. Ruth said that she was awakened each morning at 5:00 A.M. in the British-style hospital with a cup of tea! Right now they are having a very mild “winter” in Southern Rhodesia—the warmest in twenty-five years. Ruth said that the climate was wonderful for their baby. They stayed in London round and seldom had a cold.

She then extended sympathy to “Nookie” Hosier O’Connor who lost her father this summer.

Barbara Coleman and James Augustine III of Alexandria were married June 16th in Lynchburg. They are living at 1463-A Van Dorn Street, Alexandria, Virginia. Barbara is working for the West department in Alexandria. Ellen Largent is engaged to Al Perlmans. They plan a fall wedding.

Doris Lee Reeves Childress and Earl have moved to Chicago. Doris Lee promised to send the new address as soon as they were settled.

Lorraine Chapman has agreed to take over the group next year.

Lorraine Chapman spent the summer in Williamsburg taking courses for a certificate in elementary education. Ginny Brinson roomed with her. Ginny is teaching kindergarten.

Dot Warner Gardner is teaching again in King William County as she has all her children in school now.

I received a letter from Jo Martens who spent her summer in Hampton Beach, New Hampshire and Thomaston, Maine. Maryanne Bugg Lambert told me that Pete had finished his residency and was staying on at Memorial Hospital as an assistant administrator. Maryanne has “retired” for a couple years from teaching. She is going to night school this year to take a course in children’s literature for her collegiate profession certificate in elementary education.

Janice Bradenburg Halloran and Charlie went to New York City for a week. They took in several plays, the climax being at Temple Square, the Village, and especially the Stock Exchange.

Gene Hart Joyner and Floyd went to Miami Beach in June to a convention. They spent a week and flew both ways. Gene was surprised to run into a Westhampton alumna there, Darryl Brown Motul. Later Gene and Floyd took the children on a trip to Philadelphia, Gettysburg, and Winchester.

Joyce Betta Pierce and Jack spent their vacation at their cottage on Ocracoke Island near Cape Hatteras, North Carolina. In August they camped for two weeks in the Smoky Mountains. Joyce and the children spent one week at the state Baptist meeting at Eagle Eyrie near Lynchburg.

Pat Kelly Jordan and Alex also went to the Smoky mountains for a vacation with the children near Blowing Rock, North Carolina. Betty Sims Loving and Robert are busy building a new home in Goldsboro, North Carolina. She is the organizer for her church and is teaching piano to nine pupils.

Marianne Beck Duty and Lester are finally getting their home back to normal after a fire. They are thrilled to be back in this section of American living, having no central heat and air conditioning. However, she readily admits that she misses the luxury of the big houses and the people very much. However, she is happy with their new home.

We extend our sympathy to “Nookie” Hosier O’Connor who lost her father this summer.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mary Lee Moore Vinson in the loss of her father last May.

Jean Love Hanson is Youth Coordinator at Millr and Roanoke and loves her job. I was distressed to hear that she fell off a swing and broke her arm while directing a fashion show rehearsal.

Jane Lawson Willis has taken a new job doing social work. She is handling foster home cases for the City Welfare Department in Richmond.

Charlotte Houchins Decker’s little boy started to school this year and Charlotte reports that he had a lump in his throat as she watched him jump on the big school bus.

Lea Thompson Osborne visited Maryglyn Beach, Bob and their three children spent a week at Hungry Mother State Park with Betty's folks. Then later in July Betty and Bob went to New York for a week. They have moved into a new home in Colonial Heights. Her address is 112 Biltmore Drive, Colonial Heights, Va.

Jean Lowe Bradley has moved into a new home in Raleigh. Her new address is 1812 Eastover Street.

Shirley Hall Murphy’s new address is 201 DeSota Drive, Richmond, Virginia. Shirley and Fred had a wonderful trip to New York in August.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Frances Arrighi Moran in the loss of her father last May.

I find myself getting ready for a busy winter—P.T.A., Club Scout Den mother, music lessons, etc. I am sure we are all in the same boat but do hope that you will find time in your busy schedule to let me hear some news from you.

1992 Secretary

Mrs. S. Scott Herbert

Birchdale, Virginia

I’ve been busy sorting cards and being sure everyone is in a group. The group leaders will be Barbara Cawthorne Clarke, Mary Anne Coates Edith, Bertha Cosby King, Betty Crews Watkins, Addie Eicks Comegys, Jeanne Hootman Hopkins, Marilyn McMurray Rishel, Elea-
I hope they will not find the job too difficult and that you will write them when they have contacted you. Sorry I have not gotten out the new class list but I do not feel that I have heard from enough people to warrant doing it yet. So please pass on, because the group leaders may not have your present address.

We extend sympathy to Jackie Gerson Lowenstein in the other.

Barbara Cawthorne Clarke has a new address, 425 College Ave., Haverford, Penn.

Lucile Hedley Slété and Stephen have moved to 1701 N. Emlor St., Appleton, Wisc. where he is to start his own private practice as an internist.

Harriett Stubbs Johnson has had a busy summer. First, with directing a Girl Scout Day Camp for two weeks and then her family vacation, part of which was spent climbing. They had a marvelous (?) time.

Helen had a little girl, Barbara, on June 5th. This was her fourth child and third girl.

Betty Hurt Beasley and Bob are building and plan to move October 1st to 830 Woodside Dr., Iowa City, Ia. Their son Mark begins 5th this year.

A nice letter came from Isabel Sanford Rankin. Her big news is that Hugh is out of school this year.

Mary Ann and her family have been to Florida to visit Nina's family. Ruby also had word from Mary Creath Payne, who with Jim and the four children vacationed at Nags Head, N. C. and then went on to a church conference at Massanetra, Va. A quote we feel quite independent and mobile in our trailer. Jim has accepted a call to be the new church in Charlottesville, Va. and they will move around Oct. 1.

Ruby and Don are "acclimating" to life in a small town and really appreciate the lack of nerve-wracking traffic. Their address is Route 2, Four Oaks, N. C.

Ross Ann Thomas Moore has a baby daughter, Charlotte Thomas Moore, born July 22. Her address is 1642 Fernwood Circle, Chattanooga 11, Tenn. They are pleased to have been at the same address for two years, the longest for them since they've been married.

Another baby to report is Beverly Scott Fralin, Harriet Wheat Fralin's baby born on September 6.

Martha Clark Bell and Larry have a son, Daniel Lawrence, born on June 17. They are still living in Waynesboro.

Mary Kathryn Manuel Clark had a nice visit with Pat Moran Talley and family this summer, when Pat was passing through Winchester. Both the Clarks and Talleys had been to Masanetra and also saw the Paynes.

Mary and Beasley wrote an interesting letter. Georgia's new address (Newfoundland and not Nova Scotia) is: Mrs. Morris D. Cooke, Marine Barracks, Navy 103, F.P.O., New York, N. Y. They are moving to 1408 Isabella, Navy 103, F.P.O., New York, N. Y. They have been at the same address for two years, the longest for them since they've been married.

Another baby to report is Beverly Scott Fralin, Harriet Wheat Fralin's baby born on September 6.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.

Biology and I had a marvelous trip to Europe this summer, and I haven't quite caught my breath and gotten into the routine as yet. It will be a busy year for both of us as I am teaching the 6th grade at Crestview School and he is starting a new business as a manufacturer's representative. Both of the girls are in school, so we all go our separate ways each morning.

Let's start making our plans for our big reunion in the spring. Some wonderful ideas have come to mind and we all hope there will be a big turnout.

Mary Kathryn and Jane Catherine enjoy their work together with two church choirs.
Having spent a most enjoyable summer on the west coast attending the University of Washington, Betty Dowdy is teaching again in Ellerson's, Va. Her students must be fascinated by her description of the Seattle World's Fair. Her address is 3602 Seminary Avenue, Richmond, Va.

We are glad to know that the news of Carol Livesey and congratulate her on receiving her Master's degree. She is now teaching at the local high school in Cincinnati where she has a very active and interesting travel abroad.

Jane Gill Tomber and Averett are present when they announce the arrival of their third child, Johnathan Broadbun, born August 27th.

We were delighted to hear from Ann Cardwell Saunders. She and Cole are living at Horney, baby girl, Polly, who is now nine months old. They are moving to 3906 Forest Hill Boulevard, April 5, West Palm Beach, Florida.

Monica Nance Stanley Cockrell and Hunter are moving to their new address, 29 W. N. C. where she will be doing graduate work in math and statistics at the University of North Carolina.

Jean Burgess Satter and Bill took their three boys on a camping trip to Buggs Island in August. They especially enjoyed water-skiing with Bill's brother and his family.

Barbara and her husband, Ken, who are six year old Benny, are in Winter Haven, Florida at 3100 5th Street, N.E. Ken is with a bank there and both Barbara and Ken are very active in civic activities. They have rented a small home and have just returned from a visit where they saw Nancy Davis McDaniel several times.

Nancy, Bobby and their family lived in Gainesville, Florida, "Konk" also heard from Barbara Bull, who is in Poconos City, Maryland.

We were happy to have a letter from brochure. They have been making a trip to the east coast, visiting with whom I had completely lost contact. Let's try again this year. Janet Pace Burbage is back in the teaching profession this fall after attending summer school. Charlotte Hudson Haynes has left the teaching profession, and is working at an engineering firm as a consultant and counselor, enjoying the change. Nicky is still working at Bethesda Steel as an industrial engineer so they expect to stay in Baltimore and move to a new apartment next year.

Another of our classmates has received her Master's Degree. Nay Claire Gifford received her MS in Social Work from RPI this past June and is now teaching a course in the school of medicine.

Joy Winstead Propert, Dave and the children are still in Quantico, Va. They bought a new home and are now enjoying the balmy breezes of Key West.

Joy Severt has a new addition. Jim Severt, born August 27th. James Walter Severt, of Richmond's military people. Now he is going to try his hand at law, just so he has a separate career.

Joy Severt has a new addition. James Walter Severt, born August 27th. He is the son of Jim and Dottie Severt, who are in Quantico, Va. (Quarters 4050-A-MCS). Karl will be at the air station for a while and enjoy the new home they bought in Roanoke just before he left.

Zed and I had an exciting trip to Roanoke this summer for the Miss Virginia Pageant and it was made doubly so when our Miss Richmond, Pat Gaulding, brought home the Miss Virginia title, also. At the Miss America Pageant in September, she was won a $1,000 scholarship and gained the talent which thrilled all of us who had wondered what he would do with it.

Please keep the news headed this way so we can have a letter this long in each Bulletin. I'm having a ball hearing from so many of you with whom I had completely lost contact. Let's keep it up!

---

1955 Secretary

Mrs. Zel J. Wampler, Jr. (Jody Weaver)
6307 Colebrook Road
Richmond 27, Virginia

My mailbox has been bursting at the seams and I couldn't be more delighted. The group leaders have gone out for news and the response has been terrific. By the way, we have a new group leader, Barbara Turner Willis, to add to the list.

New babies, new addresses and busy husbands seem to make up the bulk of the news. Margaret Gore Swann and her husband, Dick, are now living at 2631 Alderney Lane in Winston-Salem, N. C. where he is working for the Bell Telephone Laboratories after receiving his MS in mathematics. N. C. The Swanns last June, Thomas Frederick joined them on March 17, 1962. Alice Creath McCullough sends news of Winston Fontaine who was born on May 6, 1962 and of her husband, who is teaching at Norfolk phonics. From the West Coast comes word that Angela Groth Guenther and Dick are now living at 3086 Tiberian Way, San Jose 30, California. Dick is out of the army and has set up dental practice in Saratoga, about an hour south of San Francisco.

Still on the West Coast, but a bit further north, John W. World's Fair received a visit from Alice McCarty this summer as did a high school friend.

Skipping back across country we come upon the little town of Marion, Iowa, (Souds dreadful) where Jane and Glenn Lovig and their four children have been living the past three years, though we didn't even know it) since Glenn received his engineering degree from Iowa State University. Their address is 1800 Henderson Drive. Janice teaches a few painting classes for the nearby church, weddings and such but had time to be elected secretary of the officers' Wives Club. Ann Petit Getts and Harland visited them in June and they both remarked on the many young women of military people when they married seminary students. The Flippen's new address is 321 C, Fort Story, Va.

Nancy Johnson White and Cliff are now living at 1515 Marivie in Annandale, Md. while Cliff is working as a staff attorney for the American Pharmaceutical Association in Washington. There's a perfect job for a pharmacist-cylist if I ever heard one. On their way to D.C. Nancy and Cliff visited Ruth Owen Batt and Karl who are in Quantico, Va. (Quarters 4050-A-MCS). Karl will be at the air station for a while and enjoy the new home they bought in Roanoke just before he left.

Joyce Still Gibson has moved to Richmond's Westhampton Alumnae Luncheon in June and they both remarked on the many young women of military people when they married seminary students. The Flippen's new address is 321 C, Fort Story, Va.

Nancy Johnson White and Cliff are now living at 1515 Marivie in Annandale, Md. while Cliff is working as a staff attorney for the American Pharmaceutical Association in Washington. There's a perfect job for a pharmacist-cylist if I ever heard one. On their way to D.C. Nancy and Cliff visited Ruth Owen Batt and Karl who are in Quantico, Va. (Quarters 4050-A-MCS). Karl will be at the air station for a while and enjoy the new home they bought in Roanoke just before he left.

Zed and I had an exciting trip to Roanoke this summer for the Miss Virginia Pageant and it was made doubly so when our Miss Richmond, Pat Gaulding, brought home the Miss Virginia title, also. At the Miss America Pageant in September, she was won a $1,000 scholarship and gained the talent which thrilled all of us who had wondered what he would do with it.

Please keep the news headed this way so we can have a letter this long in each Bulletin. I'm having a ball hearing from so many of you with whom I had completely lost contact. Let's keep it up!

---

1956 Secretary

Mrs. James G. Rice (Martha Boatwright)
944 Welton Ave.
Richmond 24, Virginia

Word from Martinsville is that Eliza Hubble Severt has a new addition. James Walter Severt, Jr. was born in July.

I have a few new addresses for you—just in time for Christmas card list. Dottie Stiff Price has moved to 7 Beverly Hills Drive, Newport News, Virginia. Madison will continue to practice at his same office. In July they drove to Cape Cod for a vacation and visited University of Richmond friends, Dick and Dottie Keith, in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Joyce Still Gibson has moved to Richmond’s west end at 8508 Holly Hill Road, Richmond, Virginia. Harold will continue to teach English at the local high school. Joyce is working on her master's degree at Richmond College. Joyce will teach a class in remedial reading at R.P.I. night school.

Ann Carol Yeaman Malcolm and three year old daughter, Ann Ross, were visiting here in Richmond with her family in late September.
She has recently moved to Denver: 1371 Syracuse St., Denver 20, Colorado. Nick has begun a residency at Denver University of Colorado Medical College. They have bought a new house onto which Ann Carol claims to have added a den and carport. Thus she worked in-between making all Ann Ross' and her clothes. Busy?

Betsy Brinkley has moved to 1401 Gilpin Avenue, Wilmington 6, Delaware. She is working as an occupational therapist with a special makeup of handicap individuals.

Marvin Sorce Padgett sent a card from New York City where she and her husband, Roger, took a break before school starts. They saw Camelot and played lacrosse to see a play or two before starting to teach again.

Several people wondered about me. Jerry is deep in his internship at Johnston-Willis hospital in Richmond after graduating from Medical College of Virginia in June. His plans are fluid after next July and we're open to suggestions.

1957 Secretary

MRS. GEORGE M. BALL (Margaret Logan)
25 Omaha Avenue
Rockaway, New Jersey

I am delighted to start out my term of office with all the Reunion news. In the future, though, new facts will come in on a daily manner, and I hope you will give the team captains the support they need to make this column as complete as possible.

I'll try to report on the excellence of our Reunion accurately enough to convince those who couldn't come that the Tenth should not be missed. I counted twenty-four '57ers: Nancy Day Anderson, Nancy Archbell, Margaret Logan Ball, Rosalind Allen Barker, Barbara Goodman Burton, Peggy Graves Butterworth, Mary Garland Cox, Judy Twoford Davey, Pat Moore Ewell, Margaret Foster, Suzie Sturts Hicks, Kakie Parr Jenkins, Mary Elizabeth McKelvey Johnson, Kitty Clark Kersey, Jane Cumby McAlexander, Brandon McDaniel, Ann Lee Hines Reamy, Carolyn Naumann Robertson, Shannon Starks Ross, Meg Kinn Ktenny, Jerry Garrett Tideny, Lovey Jane Long Walker, Ann Wagner Westbrook, Pat Harper Winston. Suzie Hicks, who came all the way from St. Louis, Missouri (with two children!) shared long-distance travel honors with Margaret Foster, coming from Madison, Wisconsin. If I missed anyone, please let me know and I'll correct my general excitement. After all, Westminster hasn't broken ground for a swimming pool every day, and my weekends away from the family have been compensated for by their company. I drove down together, and it took us several hours to get over that sinking feeling that we'd left our children behind at the last Howard Johnson's.

Friday night, the 8th, we gathered at Joyce Tideny's home for buffet supper, conversation, and a business meeting. With hardly a lull in the catching-up process, we enjoyed our supper, prepared by Davey and I. We talked a great deal about the committee, and I drove down together, and it took us several hours to get over that sinking feeling that we'd left our children behind at the last Howard Johnson's.

Saturday morning was, of course, groundbreaking time, and '57 was in there digging with a column as complete as possible.

Wendy has been a professional Scout Worker but will "retire" at the end of September. Anne-Martin Baker writes that her summer has been relatively uneventful, with long weekends spent relaxing around the vicinity. In September she sang at her home church in King William County for a special anniversary service.

Congratulations and best wishes to Annette Hastings who became Mrs. Richard Walton on June 30. They honeymooned at Sea Island, Georgia before moving into their home in Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Walton now have showers in every bathroom. Also, the furniture in the Blue Room has been changed. It is deep in his internship at Johnston-Willis Hospital. His plans are fluid after next July and we're open to suggestions.

Eric and Lynn Coker are currently living in New York City where Dick serves as a Lieutenant in the Merchant Marine. His Master of Theology degree at Duke University is due in December 1958. Eddie Knipping Lake writes that she and her naval officer husband are really seeing the world. Since May they have been stationed in Shanghai, China, and have even had "the dubious pleasure" of staying in a real live Geisha House. We will all be interested to hear more about Eddie's adventures in Japan.

Becky Branch Faulconer writes that she and Harold are beginning to feel more at home in Louisville. Becky is taking a Painting Workshop course at the University of Louisville.

Margaret Arrighi writes that she received her M.A. degree from the University of Maryland this summer. She is chairman of the Physical Education Department at the College of Notre Dame of Maryland in Baltimore.

Cynthia Feldman Rush is now living in Chesterfield, Virginia, with her husband, Jack, who is working on a residency in the field of pathology at the Medical College of Virginia in June. Our bell will return this fall to Collegiate School in Richmond where she teaches music and has spent five happy years. We had a letter from James Edward Barker, MD, who lives under the palm trees in Ft. Bliss, Texas. Anna McCrave Godley sent pictures of her three adorable children, and wrote of her rather hair-raising adventures in real estate, concluding with this advice: Don't buy a new house until you sell your old one.

Faye Jones Townsend reported that Bob received his Masters in Library Science in June, and they will be living in Dayton, Ohio. Miss Lutz sent her greetings and regrets that she couldn't attend the Reunion as she would be in California. She invited members of the class to come see her at her apartment—5816 York Road, Richmond. And finally, Bailey Connor was unable to attend because they were vacationing in Ocean City, Maryland. I'm sure the rest of the class joins me in thanking her for a job well done as Alumnae Class Secretary.

When the party was over, Judy and I drove back to college, having talked Brandy McDaniel into spending the night with us in the dorm. It seemed a bit strange to walk casually in before one o'clock! We had a triple on the second floor and we brought up the Bell. Kitty Clark Kersey, Jane Cumby McAlexander, Brandon McDaniel, Ann Lee Hines Reamy, Carolyn Naumann Robertson, Shannon Starks Ross, Meg Kinn Ktenny, Jerry Garrett Tideny, Lovey Jane Long Walker, Ann Wagner Westbrook, Pat Harper Winston. Suzie Hicks, who came all the way from St. Louis, Missouri (with two children!) shared long-distance travel honors with Margaret Foster, coming from Madison, Wisconsin. If I missed anyone, please let me know and I'll correct my general excitement. After all, Westminster hasn't broken ground for a swimming pool every day, and my weekends away from the family have been compensated for by their company. I drove down together, and it took us several hours to get over that sinking feeling that we'd left our children behind at the last Howard Johnson's.

Saturday night at Barbara Burton's was a suitable climax to the festivities. I doubt whether we all gave any attention to the old cliche that it is impossible to recapture the spirit of the past at a college reunion. We met each others husbands, sang the old songs, and generally enjoyed the old college atmosphere. It was a nostalgic, merry and memorable two days.
Virginia Bailey arrived during the summer. Lola Hall McBride is the proud mother. Lola and her husband live in Harrisonburg, Virginia. Lola has also begun a naval internship at St. Albans Hospital on Long Island.

Connie Booker Moe and young daughter, Sandra, are back in Richmond with her parents this winter while Don is stationed in Saigon with the 54th. I saw Gray for a minute recently. She was at the University for a Hockey Tournament. She is teaching at Douglas Freeman High School. She said that Jeanne Jones is teaching for the Army in Karlsruhe, Germany. She has already taken other trips along the Rhine River in Germany.

My 6 weeks in Europe reached and surpassed all expectations. It was purely a pleasure trip this time—to visit the families and friends I had known during my year studying in England, Holland, Denmark, Germany, Switzerland, Portugal were the countries visited. My only complaint is that the time went by much too fast! I am still teaching at U. of R., and anticipate an exciting year there.

Don't forget that our 5th year reunion is in the spring. Start making your plans to attend.

1959 Secretary

Mrs. Ellis M. Dunkum (Elizabeth Ramos) 3431 A West Franklin St. Richmond 21, Virginia

This summer I heard from a former 59er—Ginny Strickland Major. Although Ginny wasn’t at Westminster for four years, she wishes to be a member of our alumna group. So with pleasure I am adding her name to our roll and am sending her your subscription for the 1959-1960 year. She and her husband, Ralph S. Major, Jr., with their four children, make their home at 536 Fleda Road, Memphis 17, Tennessee. Ralph is a sales representative for Tek-Hughes. They have two girls, Michelle Susanne, 5, and Margaret Stephanie, 2, and two boys, Ralph S., III, 4, and Michael Scott, 1. Ginny told me that Mary Gettemiller Bethel and Ralph have a son and live in New Orleans, Louisiana.

There have been many announcements of new babies from our former classmates, Ruthie Atkins Huddleston and bubbling with delight since the young lady, Mary Lawrence, arrived on July 1st. As Ruthie said, “the W. C. balls will be jam-packed in 1960.” Caroline Massey and Dan Shinn are now parents of a girl. Anna Arruda was born on July 25. Mary Kimberly Ann Scott arrived during the summer. She and Doug are doing just fine. Although they have a lovely apartment, they are missing it won’t be too long before they can get a house. Peggy Yarbrough and Edward Boulton have bought a new house. Their address is now 8715 Wexford Road, Richmond. Peggy is teaching the second grade at Ralston Elementary School. Edward has just finished his tour of active duty with the Army. Eileen Cordie, who is teaching freshman and junior English at the University of Richmond, was with us for a few days last June. She greatly dislikes leaving Jeff, but is most fortunate to have a grand maid to keep Jerry. Jerry is also home in the mornings, so Jeff will not return to his room alone.

Patsy Kelly Clark has a class of 40 children in Maryland. She and Doug are doing just fine. Although they have a lovely apartment, they are missing it won’t be too long before they can get a house. Peggy Yarbrough and Edward Boulton have bought a new house. Their address is now 8715 Wexford Road, Richmond. Peggy is teaching the second grade at Ralston Elementary School. Edward has just finished his tour of active duty with the Army. Eileen Cordie, who is teaching freshman and junior English at the University of Richmond, was with us for a few days last June. She greatly dislikes leaving Jeff, but is most fortunate to have a grand maid to keep Jerry. Jerry is also home in the mornings, so Jeff will not return to his room alone.

Two other teachers who took nice trips this summer are Jackie Freeman and Sylvia Olney. Their trip to Europe filled the summer school. En route to Nova Scotia they stopped in Cambridge, Mass., to visit with Susan Payne. Susan, who began a new job August 1st as a librarian in the Medical School Library at Harvard, showed the girls around Boston. Jackie has a new address—207 Palen Avenue, Newport News, Virginia.

Beverly Wine Bowers is also teaching again. She and Albert “went on their honeymoon almost two years late.” In June they went to California. They spent about 2 weeks in Los Angeles with Bev’s sister and her husband. Then they visited with Al’s parents in Santa Rosa for three weeks. They made many side trips, all of which they thoroughly enjoyed. But they still would rather live in Virginia!

Two other teachers who took nice trips this summer are Jackie Freeman and Sylvia Olney. Their trip to Europe filled the summer school. En route to Nova Scotia they stopped in Cambridge, Mass., to visit with Susan Payne. Susan, who began a new job August 1st as a librarian in the Medical School Library at Harvard, showed the girls around Boston. Jackie has a new address—207 Palen Avenue, Newport News, Virginia.

They both worked for the school board during the summer. This year they will teach at Tuckahoe Junior High School again. Peggy Dulin Crewes is teaching again at Blackburg High School, where she has started a new sport for the girls—hockey. This summer she and Merril played in the Culpeper Country Club Round Robin Tennis Tournament. They had to draw for partners. Merril and his partner placed third, and Peggy and her partner placed fourth.

Dorothy Austin Marzioz reports that she and Al, with Ted and Ann, are to marry by trip to Bermuda in May. Dee, who teaches second grade during the winter, thoroughly enjoyed being a homemaker this summer and trying a new profession. She has started a new job teaching Latin at Brookland Junior High School. She greatly dislikes leaving Jeff, but is most fortunate to have a great maid to keep Jerry. Jerry is also home in the mornings, so Jeff will not return to his room alone.

Merril and his partner placed third, and Peggy and her partner placed fourth.

Dorothy Austin Marzioz reports that she and Al, with Ted and Ann, are to marry by trip to Bermuda in May. Dee, who teaches second grade during the winter, thoroughly enjoyed being a homemaker this summer and trying a new profession. She has started a new job teaching Latin at Brookland Junior High School. She greatly dislikes leaving Jeff, but is most fortunate to have a great maid to keep Jerry. Jerry is also home in the mornings, so Jeff will not return to his room alone.

Gary Moore will be a member of our alumna group. So with pleasure I am adding her name to our roll and am sending her your subscription for the 1959-1960 year. She and Albert “went on their honeymoon almost two years late.” In June they went to California. They spent about 2 weeks in Los Angeles with Bev’s sister and her husband. Then they visited with Al’s parents in Santa Rosa for three weeks. They made many side trips, all of which they thoroughly enjoyed. But they still would rather live in Virginia!

Two other teachers who took nice trips this summer are Jackie Freeman and Sylvia Olney. Their trip to Europe filled the summer school. En route to Nova Scotia they stopped in Cambridge, Mass., to visit with Susan Payne. Susan, who began a new job August 1st as a librarian in the Medical School Library at Harvard, showed the girls around Boston. Jackie has a new address—207 Palen Avenue, Newport News, Virginia.

They both worked for the school board during the summer. This year they will teach at Tuckahoe Junior High School again. Peggy Dulin Crewes is teaching again at Blackburg High School, where she has started a new sport for the girls—hockey. This summer she and Merril played in the Culpeper Country Club Round Robin Tennis Tournament. They had to draw for partners. Merril and his partner placed third, and Peggy and her partner placed fourth.

Dorothy Austin Marzioz reports that she and Al, with Ted and Ann, are to marry by trip to Bermuda in May. Dee, who teaches second grade during the winter, thoroughly enjoyed being a homemaker this summer and trying a new profession. She has started a new job teaching Latin at Brookland Junior High School. She greatly dislikes leaving Jeff, but is most fortunate to have a great maid to keep Jerry. Jerry is also home in the mornings, so Jeff will not return to his room alone.

Gary Moore will be a member of our alumna group. So with pleasure I am adding her name to our roll and am sending her your subscription for the 1959-1960 year. She and Albert “went on their honeymoon almost two years late.” In June they went to California. They spent about 2 weeks in Los Angeles with Bev’s sister and her husband. Then they visited with Al’s parents in Santa Rosa for three weeks. They made many side trips, all of which they thoroughly enjoyed. But they still would rather live in Virginia!

Two other teachers who took nice trips this summer are Jackie Freeman and Sylvia Olney. Their trip to Europe filled the summer school. En route to Nova Scotia they stopped in Cambridge, Mass., to visit with Susan Payne. Susan, who began a new job August 1st as a librarian in the Medical School Library at Harvard, showed the girls around Boston. Jackie has a new address—207 Palen Avenue, Newport News, Virginia.

They both worked for the school board during the summer. This year they will teach at Tuckahoe Junior High School again. Peggy Dulin Crewes is teaching again at Blackburg High School, where she has started a new sport for the girls—hockey. This summer she and Merril played in the Culpeper Country Club Round Robin Tennis Tournament. They had to draw for partners. Merril and his partner placed third, and Peggy and her partner placed fourth.

Dorothy Austin Marzioz reports that she and Al, with Ted and Ann, are to marry by trip to Bermuda in May. Dee, who teaches second grade during the winter, thoroughly enjoyed being a homemaker this summer and trying a new profession. She has started a new job teaching Latin at Brookland Junior High School. She greatly dislikes leaving Jeff, but is most fortunate to have a great maid to keep Jerry. Jerry is also home in the mornings, so Jeff will not return to his room alone.
spent the summer in Lynchburg while Lowy went "anchoring away." Taking a "dear John" letter might bore any secretary but not our Faulkner Carter who worked until recently with project Mercury and the astronauts. Her husband and Sandra Motley Swain's work together for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Dodie Tyrell and Dru Young visited Colorado Springs, Sun Valley, Reno and Lake Tahoe on their jaunt to California. Dodie has settled in a Low Country Toulon, complete with swimming pool and bachelors. She's working at UCLA in the Neuropsychiatric Institute and invites all to visit her at 1077 Rose Ave., Apt. 27. She has already风机 San Francis­co smog and rain and is employed as a secretary in an advertising agency there.

If we turn our attention from California smog to London fog, we can picture as brightly-eyed as Ruthi Greenfield and Stephen Zinn were last summer . . . They met romantically in London, were married this August 12, and presently are residing at 19 Castlebar Road, London W. 5, England.

Mary Ann Williams Haske and Bennie have bought a house in clearwater, Florida. Their new address is 112 Water Street, Chestertown, Maryland. Beverly Eubank Evans and Thomas have bought a new house in Richmond. Their address is 717 Mayberry Drive. Beverly tutored a child in fifth grade English this summer. She would like to return to the sciences, though.

On our vacation to New York this summer, Ellis and I visited Patsy MacDonald Allen and Dick. They have been appointed in Queens, and they thoroughly enjoy it. Dick's family came from Oregon to visit with them for two weeks in September. I hope all of you are going to join and attend the activities of your local alumni group. I am now co-chairman of the membership committee of the Richmond Club. So I shall be getting out as many of you in this area as I possibly can. You will enjoy it.

1960 Secretary
Mrs. ROBLEY J. LIGHT (Jeanne Kosko) 1916 Nanette Drive Tallahassee, Florida

Barbara Ferguson Qaissuane writes, "I just finished reading the summer issue of the Alumni Bulletin and before it slips my mind, I'm going to sit down right now and let you know what's going on in my world." She and Abdul toured Europe, then the Middle East, and terminated their trip at the Afghan Embassy in Washington where Barbara met and chatted with the Ambassador. They now are living in Kabul, Afghanistan, and are very pleased to have moved to the College of Engineering at the U. of Kabul. What a different world she is in.

Babies continue to be big news . . . Mary Cooley and Dick Malone probably had a lively July Fourth outing. Barbara Ramsey and Blaine Johnson arrived on July first. Sally Riggins and Don Clement brought company to their year-old twins but we do not know if the wee one is a future Wesley or a future Barbara. Out on the West Coast, two additions came in August . . . Elizabeth Wray Bridges made her debut in Mill Valley before a private party of Barbara Ramsey and Blaine Johnson. She arrived "boailed" on the San Diego household of Cynthia Rabon and Randy Barry on August 13. Margie Donald Miller and daughter Janet returned to school but in a different role; she is a counselor at the new Tucker Jr.-Sr. High in Hollywood.

Our deepest sympathy to Cynthia Katz Brenner, whose mother passed away July 31. Kitty Whitty has a dual role of student-teacher; she is working on her Bachelor of Science degree at Johns Hopkins U. and teaching English in Baltimore.

There was quite a reunion in the Tidehaven area with Mary Cloves, Anne Day, and Sarah Tudor. Chloe, Loretta, Sarah Hudgins, Sarah Hudgins Price and Peggy Sue Roberts Ferebee had one afternoon doing nothing but gossiping. Peggy Sue, Fran and daughter Fran Lynn returned to Virginia for the first time in a year; they are still living in Muncie, Indiana but have a new address, 1205 W. Cowling Drive.

Betty George is on the move again. She is working in a community counseling service in St. Louis. After a brief home visit in Florida, Betty started on the payroll of Vocational Counseling Service, 3936 Lindell Blvd, St. Louis.

Changes of addresses keep my typewriter buzzing but please let me know when you do relocate. Beverly Wheeler Parthing and Martha Kellog Dunbrock are living in Norfolk. Other moves were prompted by husbands returning to school. Melissa Granger and Ed Mayo moved into the MCV apartments in Richmond. Michael E. Muggs, Pugh Woods and Billy headed for the "Hokie" territory of Blacksburg. Clare Arle, who became Mrs. David Ahlers on September 8, moved to Seal Beach, California. Mrs. Dave J. Hughes moved to University of Washington. Sometimes it's difficult to keep up with your other sister-in-law . . . Julie Hollowfield Kosko moved from Ashby to Chestertown, Maryland (suburbs of Boston) and is about to pack again, perhaps for Europe. Julie taught at Winchendon Mass. High School the past term and worked at Fort Devens Mass. this summer. Robert and Buddy Blackwell moved to Greenville, South Carolina this May; Buddy is a sales engineer and has his own company car to the delight of Jane. Jane and I had an unexpected visit this August while I was visiting in South Carolina; daughter Kathryn entertained us.

Robley and I are fast becoming immune to the mosquitoes and other insects and reptiles of Florida. We made the move via U-Haul It from Cambridge to Tallahassee where Robley is teaching a biochemistry course at Florida State University. As of writing date, I am just a plain housewife about to make draperies for our new abode. If you get the urge to travel to the Big Bend, the welcome mat is out at 19 Castlebar Drive but bring your own 6-12 or mosquito net.

I am looking forward to working with you in the next three years and hope that you keep those postcards, notes or letters coming. May I express our thanks again to Meurai (and to the other class officers) for a job well done.

1961 Secretary
Mrs. JERRY H. JONES (Betty Blanton) 7701 Granger Road Richmond, Va.

Wedding bells continue to ring for the classmates of '61. Ferne Grimmelt was married to Robert Gibson on August 18 in Hinton, West Virginia. Ferne and Bob are making their home in Newport News. Ferne is also giving private piano lessons. Bob is employed by J. C. Penney and Company. Betty Marlowe Akinson and Stuart were married in June and they are also making their home in Newport News. Betty is teaching English and Stuart is beginning his law practice. Anne Abbitt and Sam Kerr, also married in June, are now living in Richmond. Anne has resumed her teaching job at Huguenot High School and Sam entered T. C. Williams Law School. Sylvia Thompson Carlson and Ash are making their home in Alexandria. Sylvia is working as a research assistant and Ash is employed by Uncle Sam and is stationed at Fort Benning. Kitty Borum worked as a secretary on June 15 to Lt. Julian Waterman Archer. They were married in Stuttgart, Germany and traveled to Austria and Greece on their honeymoon. After returning to New York, Kitty got a job as a secretary and Joe got a job in Seattle. During this fall they will be moving to El Paso, Texas when John enters the army. Martha Hinkle and Jack Fleer were married on October 1st.

Evelyn Spivey Drum writes that she almost had a wedding without the groom—all thanks to Uncle Sam. However, after many tense moments, the couple married and had a total of one day for a honeymoon. Evelyn and John are now stationed at Waverly Air Force Base in Iowa. Annie Robinson Warner and Jim are now living in Memphis, Tennessee. Jim is beginning his law practice there. Kitto Thurbon and Hobby Neale were married in June. They are both teaching school here in Richmond this fall. Janet Harwood’s marriage to Clifton Collins was on August 1. They are living in Creedmoor, North Carolina where Janet is teaching physical education and biology while Clif is completing his B. D. requirements. Barbara and Nick Collins have returned to Waverly to teach school. Joyce Bell Montgomery and John were married in August and are making their home here in Richmond. Joyce is teaching physical education at Albert Hill Junior High School and John is teaching at Chandler Junior High School.

This fall also saw many of our classmates returning to their schools as students. Mary Burke, Mary Evans and Suzanne DuPuy have all returned to Indiana University for their second year of work on their master’s degrees. Mary Burke and Suzanne spent the summer vacation working in their respective home towns. Mary Evans spent her vacation time traveling westward, while she visited friends in Memphis, Tennessee. She was accepted to the University of Wisconsin. She hopes to receive her M.A. in January and then begin work on her Ph.D. Joyce Steed, with her M.A. in English, and Katharine Clark began work on her doctorate. Linda Fraser has entered school at the University of California. This summer Linda traveled from Mexico to Canada. Everything is all start. Linda plans to be home for Christmas and hopes she can get to see everybody. Her description of her travels really sounded exciting. Patsy Bickstaff Curley and George are making their home along with son George, III in Richmond. Patsy writes if all goes well she will be receiving her Bachelors Degree by next fall. Ann Plekeman spent the summer getting her work all in order so that she could take educational leave from the Richmond Department of Public Welfare. She plans to attend the Graduate School of Work at R.P.I. where she has been transferred. She received a full fellowship to work on her masters degree in social work. Lee-Ellen Richardson on July 10. Doralee and family have moved to Atlanta, Georgia where Lee has been awarded a full fellowship to work on his masters degree in social work at Emory University. Emily Jennings Wallace and Vernon were happily greeted by son, Vernon Bruce, Jr., on August 21.

As for myself, I was the summer teaching chemistry at John Marshall High School and I’m at John Marshall again this fall. I have one grand class of seniors to which I’m attempting to teach college chemistry. Jerry is entering T. C. Williams School of Law this fall so there have been many changes all around. So many people have expressed enjoyment over the summer teaching the Bulletin. I want to thank all my group leaders and all our classes for helping so much during this past first year as alumnas. Please keep all the news coming.

1962 Secretary

MISS ROBIN CRAMMER
8503 Riverview Drive
Richmond 29, Virginia

The class of ’62 says ‘Hi!’ to all the friends we are finally joining as alumnas. Math major that I am, I have naturally worked up a few interesting statistics. According to a tabulation of the responses 34 percent of our class as of September is married; 34 percent is in the teaching profession of which 57 percent is in the Richmond area. One last, but typical statistic—40 percent was in the nonrespondent category.

Leading the march to the altar was Margaret Taylor whose marriage to Peter Klineburg took place on June 15. After a summer at Fort Benning, Georgia, Margaret will live at home while Pete is in Korea.

With so many weddings this summer it’s not surprising that Dale Boatwright and Sherry Ratcliffe chose the same day. We were surprised, however, when Dale attended Sherry’s marriage to Ronald Crawford five hours before her own. But imagine the amazement at Fort Bragg, N. C. After a trip to Nassau, seeing Sherry and Ronnie present for Dale’s wedding to Tommy was an abeyance, is teaching history and government. Carolyn Whitaker has her hands full with a fifth grade class.

Planning for her December wedding to John Brooks and teaching science in Orange County, where she also sponsors the cheerleaders, will keep Bessie Burrus busy this fall.

Joan Carpenter is training to be a foreign claims adjustor for Social Security in Baltimore.

I am sorry to report that Melinda Holderby was sick most of the summer, but planning her spring wedding to Robert Haid should cheer her.

Carolyn Parsley is enjoying her work at the State Health Department.

Tuckie Smart became Mrs. James Paxton on July 28. After a very exciting honeymoon in Europe, Tuckie is teaching the 4th grade while Jim returns to U. Va.

Toni spent “a miserable summer looking for a job” and now is teaching geography. After counseling at a Girl Scout camp in New England, Julie is teaching English.

Janice Hoffman is working in a research laboratory at Harvard University.

Joan Brop who worked for the Presbyterian Board until August. Now she is trying to solve the problem of filling out those tricky class registers while she teaches Latin at Huguenot.

Sandra Britton Saunders is also at Huguenot where she is teaching Government. She was married in August.

After a leisurely summer, Marsha Sullivan has become a business assistant for a local insurance company.

Mary Douglass reports that she had a busy summer and is looking forward to her work with the Law-Hill Publishing Company.

Samantha Embrey is teaching band and classroom music in the four elementary schools of Henrico County.

Planning for three Westhampton weddings, Jo Elliott is working in the Children’s Room of the Public Library in Buffalo.

Still undecided about her fall plans is Cathy Coates. Hopefully, she will have begun plans for a trip to Europe next summer.

Karin Nordenhaus is making her new home in France as Mrs. Paul Cholais. Karin is playing the organ of the church of which her husband is pastor.

Gail Glover is spending the winter at Virginia Beach. She is teaching elementary school in Princess Anne County.

Two of our number are traveling school teachers in Richmond. Judy Arcree is teaching French to elementary grades in four schools while Jane Crouch is teaching Spanish.

Diane Light will continue her studies in history at the University of Wisconsin.

Judy Gayhart is now Mrs. Donald Keene. While her husband finishes his degree at the University of Tennessee, Judy is a secretary to several doctors. She reports that her work is very interesting and she is adding more medical terms to her vocabulary every day.

Surrounded by the security regulations of NSA is Judy Trunzo. She is enjoying her work and all of the activity around Washington. Judy reports that she is getting a different view of life from her basement apartment.

Judy Cashion has recently become Mrs. Blan Godfrey. They are living in Richmond.

Shirley Easter is taking a late vacation to Kansas City. When she returns she hopes to find a job suited to her talents.

Rounding out our list of teachers is a group living in Richmond. Pam Koch is teaching Spanish at Manchester after working at the State Game Commission this summer. Barbara Kelly is teaching a 6th grade class in Chesterfield.

Afterallyternations at Tucker school. Mary Godsey is teaching physics at Manchester. Darlene Morgan was married to Van Wall in August and is teaching at Crestview.

The Hall has just returned from India with reports of a most rewarding experience. I hope to get more details later. She has finally joined me in the Research Department of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I began work in June after a wonderful graduation trip to Canada and the New England area.

Nancy Richardson is living with Nancy Vaughan at 162 Charles Street and is teaching math at Henrico High School. She is also taking courses in Christian Education at night.

I want to say a big “thank-you” to all of my group leaders and counselors who didn’t get their news in for this issue to be sure to get it to me for the winter issue. If any member of the class was not contacted please let me know.

WESTHAMPTON ALUMNAA LOCAL CLUBS

Baltimore Club

President: Mrs. John P. Quinu

Carolyn Higinbothom

228-B Rodgers Forge Road

Baltimore, Maryland

The Baltimore Alumnae Club entertained Maryland girls currently attending Westhampton for tea, Thursday, September 6th, at the home of Miss Dolly Carney.

We were pleased that we have been asked to participate in a local “college night” being held on November 2nd for college bound high school girls. Mrs. Booker will be on hand to provide this information.

Latter in November, Mrs. Eleanor Nash, columnist for the Baltimore Sun, papers, will be our speaker at luncheon in Hutzel’s tea room.

Northern California Club

Secretary: Mrs. L. P. Robertson, Jr.

Virginia Place

117 Lakewood Road

Veteran Creek, California

The Northern California Alumnae held their annual meeting, April 14, a luncheon at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley with 12 present. At this time we made plans to hold a special summer meeting when Mr. and Mrs. Booker would be in San Francisco to attend the American Bar Association. We also selected three candidates for national office for the North of San Francisco, Marie Keyes Jordan for East of San Francisco and Virginia Parker Dozier for San Francisco. Virginia Robertson will serve as secretary.

Our summer meeting was a delightful Sunday Buffet dinner August 5 in the home of Gladys Daniloff, a classmate of Mrs. Booker. There were 25 present including visitors and husbands, 4 Alumnae, 12 alumnae and one hoping to become an alumna in ’63. We were privileged to be the first to hear the tape recording of the women’s groundbreaking for our Swimming Pool. Fanny G’s voice sounded so good, and we do appreciate the work of all of you closer to Virginia.

Mrs. Booker brought the word of 3 new recruits out of the class of ’60 and ’61. None was able to meet with us this day, but each has been to my home since.

[33]
I shall be meeting with our area chairman this month to make definite plans for our next meeting on February 17.

Back Row, Left to Right—Dr. Philip J. Snider, Mr. Leland Spencer, Mr. W. G. Applewhite, Mr. Lucius Robertson, Mr. Keith Warner, Dr. John Jordan, Colonel H. H. Stirling, Jr., Mr. Harry Pedersen and Mr. Russell E. Booker. Front Row, Left to Right—Mr. Boris Daniloff, and Dr. Juny O'Bier. Those starred are U. of R. alumni.

Peninsula Club
President: Mrs. J. M. Mackey, Jr. (Lois Moody)
29 Albany Drive
Hampton, Va.

An informal coke party was held on September 8th at the home of Barbara Fuller Cox, Newport News, for the freshmen and those returning to Westhampton from the Tidewater Area. There were twenty-six present. A luncheon will be held in February. The date and time will be announced at a later date.

Richmond Club
President: Mrs. Glenn S. Hesby
(Katherine Roberts)
900 West Franklin Street
Richmond, Virginia

On September 13, we started our year with a tea at the home of Mrs. R. E. Booker for Richmond freshmen and transfers. There were sixty-five invitations sent out and most of those invited attended. A picture of Alumnae Daughters meeting Miss Virginia M. Pierce, the new Dean of Students, was featured in the News Leader the following day. Three daughters, Betty Puckett, Frances Van Heuveln and Patricia Anne Grizzard are freshmen. Two daughters, Kay Hardy and Julia Martin are Junior transfers.

Our Covered Dish Dinner was held on October 8, with Miss Helen Monsell speaking to us on "Great Britain and Children's Books." Special recognition was given to the '62 Alumnae who were attending their first alumnae function.

We will have our annual Christmas Children's Party on December 9.

Roanoke Club
President: Mrs. Robert M. Jones
(Charlotte Herrink)
1653 Persinger Rd., S.W.
Roanoke, Virginia

How enjoyable it is to start the fall season with a tea for new and old Westhampton students and for alumnae! The Roanoke Club's tea was most successful, and we were pleased to have a turnout of twenty-five persons. The old students discussed the activities of orientation week and answered many questions concerning campus life for the new students. We were fortunate in having color slides taken at Westhampton which were shown to the incoming students. Refreshments were served, and everyone seemed to have a pleasant evening.

The Roanoke Club is planning to have a card party for alumnae after Christmas.

Tidewater Club
President: Mrs. O. Edwin Luttrell
(Constance Powell)
1408 Cedar Lane
Norfolk, Virginia

In May Mrs. Booker and Miss Suzanne Kidd of the Music Department came to Norfolk for our spring meeting which took the form of a luncheon at the Golden Triangle Motor Hotel. Suzanne gave a wonderful account of her year abroad and showed many beautiful slides to the twenty-one of our alumnae present for this meeting.

On September 8th we entertained the girls returning to college and the new students from this area at a coffee in the home of Elizabeth Dudley. The girls seemed to enjoy the morning coffee, with around thirty-five alumnae and guests in attendance.

Washington Club
President: Mrs. C. C. Mers (Laverne Priddy)
3501 N. Peery St.
Arlington, Va.

In June May Thompson Evans invited members of the Washington Club to her home to visit with Miss Keller and Miss Turnbull who were attending convention in our city. It was a most pleasant event as both May's teas and visits with our friends always are.

On September 5th the club honored the new students and upper classmen from our area with an informal coke party at the lovely home of Esther Wendling Cline. Judging from the amount of chatter, it was decided it was definitely a success.

The club has scheduled its fall luncheon for October 13th and is busy with plans to participate in the college night programs of the area.

The new issue of the Washington Telephone Directory carries a listing through which our club can be contacted by any alumna new to the area. Westhampton College Alumnae Club (R-E 7-2374). This service is available Monday through Friday, 9:00 A.M.-5:00 P.M.

Necrology

1890—

The Rev. Dr. J. Milnor Wilbur, 92, died August 11 at the home of his daughter in Ashland.

A native of Charleston, S. C., Dr. Wilbur was president of the Baptist Institute for Christian Workers, Philadelphia, for 30 years. He had been retired for 20 years.

1894—

Roger W. Harrison, 85, former mayor of Greensboro, N. C., died there on August 31, 1961. A native of Richmond, he was mayor of Greensboro from 1933 to 1939.

Mr. Harrison, who entered the University at 14, taught school in Washington, Va., for four years, then entered Washington and Lee University where he earned his law degree.

He came to Greensboro to practice law and organized the Guilford Abstract & Title Co., which he later abandoned. He later founded the Greensboro Real Estate & Trust Co., but dissolved the firm to join Pilot Life Insurance as an attorney in 1923.

1896—

The Rev. Charles Aylett Ashby, 88, a former Episcopal churchman and lawyer, died July 14 in St. Augustine, Fla.

Mr. Ashby practiced law for about 13 years. He received his divinity degree at Virginia Theological Seminary in 1911 and served churches in Amherst, Va., Elizabeth City, N. C., Raleigh, N. C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Edenon, N. C.

Mr. Ashby moved to St. Augustine in 1942. He was a trustee of the University of the South and was editor of the Carolina Churchman in 1919. He also served on the executive council of the North Carolina Episcopal Diocese.

1900—

Hilton W. Goodwyn, 83, one of Richmond’s largest owners and investors in real estate, died July 27.

A lawyer, he came to Richmond from his native Brunswick county. He practiced law in Richmond from 1900 to 1912 and from 1916 until his death. He was city attorney for Manchester before annexation by Richmond about 50 years ago.

Other degrees he held were: bachelor of science from Valparaiso, University, Ind.; bachelor of laws and bachelor of literature from Notre Dame University; and master of arts degree from Columbia University.

John B. Welsh, 87, who practiced law in Richmond for more than 60 years, died Sep-
The Rev. Moffett C. Booker, 47, pastor of Branch’s Baptist Church in Chesterfield county, died February 24. He was president of the Richmond Area Baptist Pastor’s Association in 1960 and was a former member of the Baptist General Board.

A native of Richmond and a graduate of Furman University, he attended the University of Richmond Graduate School in 1940-41. He also did graduate work at Union Theological Seminary.

Other churches he served are East End and Broadus Memorial in Richmond and Spurgeon Memorial Baptist Church in Norfolk. He was a former president of the Norfolk-Portsmouth Baptist Ministers’ Association.

1942—

Word has been received here of the death of Mark S. Willing, Jr., of Chicago. Mr. Willing, formerly vice president of the Chicago National Bank, had recently joined the investment firm of William H. Tegtmeyer.

1949—

Word has been received of the death of James Albert Dandridge of Richmond. He was assistant Commonwealth’s attorney for the city.

Mr. Dandridge died in an automobile crash.

Capt. Roland C. Starke Jr., ’49, was the commander of a B52G eight-jet bomber reported missing in the North Atlantic following Operation Sky Shield II exercises in October. The search for the plane and its crew was cancelled several days later.

Capt. Starke was commissioned in 1953. He was a native of Hanover county.

1956—

George Earle Gaskins, president of Manpower, Inc., of Tidewater, died in a Portsmouth, Va. hospital early this year.

Mr. Gaskins, a native of Portsmouth, came to the University after 17 years in the business world—with the Citizen’s Trust Co. of Portsmouth.

A World War II veteran, he was a member of Court Street Baptist Church. He was a past president of the University of Richmond School of Business Alumni Association.

1962—

M. Kent Howell, a law student scheduled to graduate June 11, drowned the day before when his boat sank in a lake near Cartersville. His six-year-old son also drowned.

Mr. Howell, who lived in Richmond with his wife, Mrs. Peggy A. Howell, was a former resident of Portsmouth. He planned to begin law practice in Norfolk.

He did undergraduate work at Richmond College and was a member of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity. He was awarded his bachelor of laws degree posthumously.

14 B.D.’s AT SOUTHEASTERN

Fourteen University of Richmond Alumni received Bachelor of Divinity degrees at the May commencement of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest.

They are Jesse M. Parker, ’53; Robert C. Massie, ’55; Charles Norman Bennett, Jr., ’57; Harry T. Dixon, Jr., ’58; Leslie M. Giles, ’58; Carl E. Herweyer, ’58; William C. Blalock, ’59; Sherwood C. Butler, Jr., ’59; Edgar B. Cahoon, Jr., ’59; David L. Henry, ’59; Gerald LeBarbour, ’59; Richard G. Nahouse, ’59; John C. Penny, ’59; and George F. Ricketts, Sr., ’59.

THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF VIRGINIA

SINCE 1871 • RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

[ 35 ]
DREDGER SPARE THAT OYSTER

The James River's valuable seed oyster beds need a spokesman, and they found one in Dr. William J. Hargis, Jr., '50, of Gloucester Point, Va. As director of the Virginia Marine Institute, Dr. Hargis warns that a proposed river development project would disrupt the State's oyster industry.

Army engineers have recommended deepening the James River channel to permit navigation of ocean vessels all the way inland to Richmond. Dr. Hargis told Richmond Kiwanians the project might damage seed oyster beds lying primarily between Jamestown Island and Hampton Roads.

Speaking on the same program, J. Malcolm Bridges, managing director of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said the future of Richmond and of the communities along the river to Richmond's east are "inseparably linked" to the river. The river improvement project offers "tremendous economic opportunities," according to Mr. Bridges.

After Dr. Hargis and Mr. Bridges discussed the problem, there was no definite answer to the dilemma: Can Virginia develop the river's industrial potential without at the same time destroying the oyster beds? The Virginia General Assembly may make a decision about the river project in 1964. Meanwhile, the oyster beds are depending upon Bill Hargis.

Hackley

(Continued from page 6)

A footnote to the minutes he recorded of the June meeting of the Richmond College faculty speaks eloquently of his philosophy. This footnote was, by unanimous vote, incorporated in the minutes:

"In writing the above minutes, the undersigned completed thirty-four years as Secretary of the Richmond College Faculty, having been first elected in the fall of 1928, following R. C. Astrop who resigned because he was teaching in the Evening School—this secretary was not smart enough to get a job in the Evening School.

"In writing the above minutes, the undersigned completed thirty-four years as Secretary of the Richmond College Faculty, having been first elected in the fall of 1928, following R. C. Astrop who resigned because he was teaching in the Evening School—this secretary was not smart enough to get a job in the Evening School.

"The minutes of these thirty-four years have been written in depression and in prosperity, in war and in peace, when salaries were low and when salaries were good, for a small faculty who, with very few exceptions, have passed to their reward, and for a much larger faculty destined for greater things—or at least for bigger things.

"These minutes of these fateful years are spread all the way from the age of the victrola to the age of the telstar; from the dollar bill to the Truman nickel; from the foxtrot to the twist; from the last dying gasps of the horse and buggy age to the age of the jet; from the days of the "communal" faculty office in Ryland Hall where the "profs" became acquainted and educated each other, to the days of the individual faculty offices where the promulgators of knowledge rarely see their colleagues but edify their visitors by giving advice that is not always wanted and seldom followed; from the age of woman to the age of the machine, that is, from a lone woman Registrar who needed no assistant to a machine which requires numerous assistants; from the country store with cracker box philosopher and unordered displays to the supermarket with well-dressed displays and undressed females; from the prime of John L. Lewis who made a lot of people cold to the prime of John F. Kennedy who has made a lot of people hot; from sensible simplicity to incomprehensible complexity through various stages of segregation and integration; and, in the case of this secretary, from the age of lambhood and mint-sauce to the age of creaky joints and backaches!

"Best wishes to all."
Just in time for back-to-school!

HELP YOUR CHILDREN BE RICHMOND FANS...

and be comfortable too!

First time ever offered! Stunning — decorative — Richmond Hollywood Bed Set. Richmond red striped ticking covering mattress and box spring and headboard. Official Richmond pennant free with each headboard. Red and blue Richmond campus label. This handsome bedding set will create a real Richmond atmosphere for your youngster's room(s). Fine quality, smooth top bedding that's extra firm for healthful support. Designed and manufactured by Southern Cross, the South's oldest and largest independent bedding makers.

YOU GET MATTRESS, BOX SPRING, HEADBOARD, LEGS & BRACKETS—COMPLETE!

ALL FOR ONLY $79.95

Richmond Hollywood Set
by SOUTHERN CROSS

HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANY
326 E. Broad Street, Richmond 19, Virginia

Please send me ______ Richmond Hollywood Set(s).

NAME ____________________________

ADDRESS ____________________________ PHONE ____________________________

CITY ____________________________ STATE ____________________________

( ) Money Order ( ) Check enclosed. Free delivery 150 mile radius Richmond. Freight collect beyond 150 miles. No shipments made outside continental limits of U.S.A.
When a cigarette means a lot...

you get Lots More from L&M more body in the blend more flavor in the smoke more taste through the filter

It's the rich-flavor leaf that does it!

There's more rich-flavor leaf among L&M's choice tobaccos—actually more longer-aged, extra-cured leaf than even in some unfiltered cigarettes. And L&M's filter is the modern filter—all white inside and outside—so only pure white touches your lips. Get Lots More from L&M—the filter cigarette for people who really like to smoke.