DAVID L. ESLECK is a musician, composer, and producer whose compositions have been performed and broadcast around the world, both a soloist and with his jazz trio. He is a first round Grammy Award nominee, and has performed for and with Presidents, heads of state, CEO's, Hollywood stars, and musical figures ranging from The Preservation Hall Jazz Band to Tony Bennett and Frank Zappa. Dr. Esleck holds degrees from Tennessee Technological University, The University of Virginia, and The Catholic University of America. Currently he is on the faculty at The University of Richmond, in Richmond, Virginia.

KIPP WILLIAMS, drums, is a native Richmonder who has studied with Dave Weckl, Joe Morello, and at Virginia Commonwealth University. He has performed around the world, including gigs with Otiel Burbridge of the Allman Brothers Band and Jimmy Herring of The Grateful Dead. Kipp is a co-founder of both the Richmond Jazz Quartet and the Richmond Music Center.

CARTER BLOUGH, bass, is an eclectic master who performs and records in many musical genres. A native of New England, his varied musical interests have taken him to many places, both artistically and geographically, even to study with Steve Swallow and sharing the stage with Bo Diddly and B.B. King. He now calls Richmond his home.
