"A Parting Guest"

James Whitcomb Riley

What delightful hosts are they --

Life and Love!

Lingeringly I turn away,

This late hour, yet glad enough

They have not withheld from me

Their high hospitality.

So, with face lit with delight

And all gratitude, I stay

Yet to press their hands and say,

"Thanks. -- So fine a time!

Good night. "

Michelle Swartz

Michelle Swartz is a Senior from Severna Park, Maryland. She will graduate this May summa cum laude with a BA in Leadership Studies from the Jepson School of Leadership Studies. She has minors in Music and the Law and Liberal Arts. This coming fall, Michelle will return to Richmond to work with McGuireWoods, a law firm downtown while maintaining ties to the University as a goalkeeper coach with the varsity field hockey team. Her long-term future plans include law school and international travels. After spending a summer at Cambridge University with the Jepson School in 2005, she plans to pursue future studies there in international relations.

Michelle has a twin sister, Emily, who will earn a degree from Towson University in Education and Biology. She also has two brothers, Brian and Branson who are 25 and 16 respectively.

Special Thanks

Marta Puig

For your patience with conflicts in scheduling my other pursuits, clarity of technical lessons, and transformative teaching of music as an art; I am very appreciative of your help and guidance these four years.

Department of Music

For allowing me to pursue lessons in conjunction with my minor and pairing me with Marta. For accepting me among the many brilliant musicians at the university and allowing me to have a senior recital.

Terry and Brock Swartz

To my parents for embodying hard work, attention to detail, and the enjoyable sides of life. You have allowed me to become my own person and enabled growth through the many opportunities you've given and your constant love and support. Thank you for facilitating all of this; I would be nothing without you both.
