Camp Concert Hall
Booker Hall of Music

David L. Esleck is a composer, performer and educator whose music has been heard around the world. A performer since his teen years, his first national exposure was with his recording, Three, which received a first-round Grammy nomination. His career has included performances for, and with, such diverse names as Aaron Copland, Frank Zappa, Tony Bennett, and the Preservation Hall Jazz Band.

Dr. Esleck combines his performing life with an academic one, earning degrees in composition from Tennessee Technological University, the University of Virginia, and The Catholic University of America. Formerly head of Jazz at Virginia Union University, he is now on the faculty at the University of Richmond and Longwood University.

David Esleck and his trio are currently in preparation for a new recording, scheduled for release in the spring of 2008.

Michael Hawkins is an active performer and educator. A graduate of Virginia State University, he has performed, toured and recorded with Isaac Hayes, Mulgrew Miller, Cyrus Chestnut, Donald Harrison, and Stephon Harris, to mention but a few. He also is in high demand as a bass teacher.

Keith Willingham has become one of the most sought-after jazz drummers in Virginia. In addition to being the first-call drummer for both performances and recordings, he leads his own jazz group. Keith also performs and records on his first musical love, the trumpet. He attended Virginia Union and James Madison Universities.
