ABOUT THE SOLOIST

Courtney Reed is a senior music and political science major who has served three years each as first chair trombone in the University Wind Ensemble and lead trombone in the University Jazz Ensemble, besides being a student recitalist and active in the University Brass Quintet and University Orchestra. She has held a Music Merit Scholarship and a University Band Scholarship for four years and is presently serving as Wind Ensemble President. Courtney is active in student government and plans to attend law school after graduation.

ABOUT THE STUDENT DIRECTOR

Shannon Wood is a junior music education major who is serving this year as first chair clarinet in the Wind Ensemble. She holds a Hannah Coker Music Scholarship as well as a Band Scholarship and is also active in the University Jazz Ensemble and Saxophone Quartet. Shannon has studied conducting for the past two semesters with Dr. Homer Rudolf. After graduation she intends to teach high school instrumental music.
