TRANSLATIONS

Rachmaninov: Tebe poem

Chant: Thine from Thine own we offer Thee from all and for all.

Choir: To Thee we sing, Thee we bless, Thee we thank, O Lord, and to Thee we pray, o our God.

Rachmaninov: Khvalite Gospoda s nebes

Praise the Lord from heaven, praise him in the highest. Alleluia.

Isaak: Innsbruck, ich muss dich lassen

Innsbruck, now must I leave thee, and sorely doth it grieve me in alien lands to stray. All joys of mine are ended; forlorn and unbefriended I take my weary way.

Bach: Ich bin's, ich sollte büßen

'Tis I who owe repentance, and mine the awful sentence in Hell's eternal snare. The scourge and bonds that chain Thee, and all the woes that pain Thee--the guilt of them is mine to bear.

Hassler: Mein G'müth ist mir verwirret

My heart and mind are reeling, my thoughts are all awry; a maid has caused this feeling, and lost in love am I. At night I cannot sleep, and all the day I sigh; and filled with tender longing for love of her I die.

Bach: Ich will hier bei dir stehen

I ever will stand by Thee; O Master, scorn me not! Nor will I ever leave Thee, but share Thy bitter lot. And when Thy brow is ashen in death's dark agony, I'll take Thee in compassion and hold Thee close to me.

Sermisy: Il me suffit

Enough have I of all my ills that nigh to death have driven me. Such sorrow all my being fills, such wealth of fear and misery. What marvels must I render to gain thy favor tender? My grieving heart is dead in me for want of thy surrender.

Bach: Was mein Gott will

What God wills, that shall come to be, His will is justly founded; to those a present help is he whose faith is firmly grounded. Our God indeed gives help in need, with mercy chastens ever. Whoso in trust knows God is just will be forsaken never.

Gastoldi: A lieta vita

To a merry life love invites us, fa la la - - - Whoever desires joy, if he love from the heart, Will give his heart to such a gentleman, fa la la - - -

Banchieri: Contrappunto bestiale alla mente

Never trust a hunchback; also distrust the lame. If any fool be good, write it in the annals.
