Pierre-Henri Xuereb is a French violist who resides in New York. His many eminent teachers include Walter Trampler and Yehudi Menuhin. He has played in many parts of the world and he divides his time between playing solo recitals, concerti with orchestras, and chamber music. Additionally Pierre-Henri Xuereb has performed in many broadcasts in France and America (both radio and television) and has made recordings with Pierre Boulez. He is currently on the faculty of the Conservatoire de Paris.
