Sketch 1208

Gabby Kiser

Out of the corner of my eye cherry blossom petals
through the window
become shreds of tissue
 ringing baseball bats
in the distance
wracked sobs
and
I stare
dead
ahead
for fear that the snowman's
head
 will
 fall
 again
with only my
red
numb fingers
to push it back
dread
my hot spot
will melt it away
even if it's spring
