FOREWORD

The reception given the first six issues of the University of Richmond Law Notes has been most gratifying to the Faculty who have prepared the articles and to the students who have been responsible for the case notes. This issue (the second of Volume 2) contains the first article contributed by an alumnus. The contribution of materials prepared by alumni is welcomed, however it continues to be the policy of the Law Notes that the primary responsibility for articles rests with the Faculty.

We invite suggestions for improvement in the content which will increase the usefulness of this publication to the practicing lawyers in Virginia.

William T. Muse, Dean
