General Information

The Law School was established as a department of Richmond College in 1870. In 1890 the family of the late T. C. Williams, who had been a devoted and valued Trustee, donated $25,000 as the nucleus of an endowment for the Law School. In recognition of this gift, the name of the School was changed to THE T. C. WILLIAMS SCHOOL OF LAW. At various times the School has received further generous gifts from members of the family of Mr. Williams. A substantial gift came through a bequest from Mr. T. C. Williams, Jr. who, like his father, was long a Trustee of Richmond College, and for twenty years was the efficient Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board. The largest of these gifts was received by bequest from Mr. A. D. Williams, another son of Mr. T. C. Williams.

The T. C. Williams School of Law is an integral part of the University of Richmond. The degrees in law are conferred by the corporation of the University of Richmond.

General Statement

The School is fully accredited by the recognized standardizing agencies in America. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools; it is on the approved lists of the American Bar Association and the Virginia State Board of Bar Examiners; and its Juris Doctor degree is fully accredited by the Regents of the University of the State of New York.

An Accredited School

Location

The University of Richmond is located on a campus of three hundred and fifty acres in suburban Richmond, Virginia. The Law School occupies a separate building constructed in 1954 and enlarged in 1972, and designed specifically for the Law School. The entire building is used exclusively by the Law School and provides modern classrooms, seminar rooms, faculty offices, faculty reading room, offices and meeting rooms for the Student Bar Association, the Law Review, Legal Aid and other student organizations. The Library Reading Room, seating 100, is located in close proximity to the Library stacks. The handsomely appointed Courtroom accommodates 200 persons.

Richmond is the seat of Virginia's government. The State Legislature, City Council, and County Board of Supervisors hold frequent sessions. All types of County, City, and State courts, including the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, sit here, some of them continuously. Richmond is the headquarters for the Federal District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. Both courts hold regular terms in Richmond. The State Corporation Commission and the Industrial Commission hold their sessions here. Many of the Federal administrative agencies hold hearings in Richmond.

Thus the student finds, in addition to the formal School program, unsurpassed opportunities for law study by his observation of law in the making and in operation as he notes the various legislative, judicial, and administrative departments of the local, State, and Federal governments at work.

Method of Instruction

The aim of the School is to equip its graduates with legally-trained minds. Several factors are happily combined to accomplish this result. The case method of instruction is used in most courses. The student, especially the beginner, is trained in the analysis and solution of legal problems by the application of logical reasoning. Attention is given to the principles of the early Common Law, State and Federal decisions, and statutes, and to such rules of law as are peculiar to Virginia. Substantive courses, dealing with the content of the law, are offered by full-time professors. Most adjective courses, dealing with the principles governing actual practice before judicial and administrative tribunals, are offered by associate professors, all practicing attorneys and leading members of the City and State bars. The student is trained in the historical principles of law, but his attention is also directed to the most recent developments. By a combination of the above factors, a competent faculty offers a curriculum that is well balanced in theoretical and practical courses and carefully selected to equip the graduate for the successful practice of law.

An extensive voluntary moot court program is offered. Trials at the traffic and police court level, at the trial court level, and at the appellate court level are held. The Barnett Competition, consisting of appellate arguments, is conducted in the first and second years. From this competition a team of three students is selected to represent the School in the National Moot Court Competition. Two semester hours of credit are awarded to members of the team.

A formal course designated Practice Court, limited to third-year students and carrying two semester hours of credit, is offered. In addition to regular class work, each student is required to try one nisi prius case, preparing all the pleadings and taking all the steps necessary to the ultimate disposition of the case. Other students act as witnesses and jurors, and members of the State and Federal judiciary serve as judges.

Moot Court Programs

The University of Richmond Law Review is a legal periodical published since 1958 by a student staff under general supervision of a board and a faculty adviser. With some emphasis on Virginia Law, the Law Review presents the results of scientific study and scholarly investigation of practical legal problems of current interest to the profession. Articles are written by law teachers, judges, and practicing lawyers. Notes and comments on recent decisions and statutes are prepared by students. Work on the Law Review affords students valuable training in research, analysis, and self-expression. Members of the Editorial Board are awarded two semester hours of credit.

The Law Review

Legal Aid and Research

Students in this program work with or for practicing attorneys on problems that have arisen in advising their clients or in litigating their clients' causes. The students are primarily responsible for preparing legal memoranda and briefs.

Library

The Law Library contains more than 42,000 volumes embracing the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States; the decisions of the lower Federal Courts, including the Tax Court; the reports of most Federal administrative agencies; the United States Code, the United States Code Annotated, and the Code of Federal Regulations; the reports of all the state courts of last resort prior to the National Reporter System; the complete Reporter System; the American Digest System; the select case series of annotated reports including American Decisions, American Reports, American State Reports, Lawyers Reports Annotated, and American Law Reports; a collection of all standard encyclopedias; the leading legal periodicals, law reviews, reference books and treatises; the leading loose-leaf services in the fields of taxation, labor, commercial law, insurance, and estate planning; the Virginia Codes and Acts of the General Assembly from early times to date; the codes of many states. In addition, the Library contains the full English Reprint, the English Law Reports, the English and Empire Digest, Halsbury's laws of England, the Public General Acts and Measures to date, and the records and briefs of cases decided by the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia and the Federal Courts of the area.

Requirements for Admission

Candidates for the Degree. An applicant for admission as a candidate for the degree of Juris Doctor (J.D.) must be at least eighteen years of age, and must present a transcript from the registrar of a college or university of approved standing showing graduation therefrom or showing fifteen college entrance units and the successful completion of at least three years of acceptable college work leading to a bachelor's degree in a standard college. Preference is given to applicants holding the college degree.

Three years of acceptable college work means at least three-fourths of the work acceptable for a bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study in residence in an approved college or university, with a scholastic average, based on all work undertaken, at least equal to the quality of work required for graduation from the institution attended. Non-theory courses in military science, hygiene, domestic arts, physical education, vocal or instrumental music, or other courses without intellectual content of substantial value are not acceptable, except that "required" non-theory work is acceptable if not in excess of ten per cent of the total credit presented for admission.

Requirements for Admission

The policy governing admission to the Law School provides equal educational opportunity to qualified applicants regardless of race, color, national origin, or sex.

A fee of $10.00 must accompany the application for admission.

The right is reserved to make a choice among applicants for admission, in accordance with the School's evaluation of the individual's promise of success in the study of law at this School and its evaluation of his fitness to become a member of the legal profession.

Applicants who are ineligible to continue at or be readmitted to another law school are ineligible for admission to this School.

Beginning students are accepted only in September.

Special Students. Such students must, at the time of their admission, be twenty-three years of age or older, and are admitted only in exceptional cases where the faculty is convinced that their experience and training have equipped them to engage successfully in the study of law, despite the lack of the college credits required of candidates for the degree. Each applicant must submit in writing a statement setting forth his age and his academic and business training, accompanied by letters of recommendation from two or more persons who have had opportunities to form an opinion of his ability, character, and seriousness of purpose. Special students are not eligible for the degree, but upon completion of the course will be awarded the Certificate in Law.

How many?

Law School Admission Test. All applicants for admission are required to take the Law School Admission Test. No special preparation for the test is necessary. Test scores are used to supplement college records and other criteria that determine admission to the School of Law. The test is given five times a year (in October, December, February, April and July) at more than 100 examination centers throughout the country and overseas. Wherever possible the test should be taken in October. Application forms and further information may be obtained by writing to Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, Box 944, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

Pre-Law Education

Although in exceptional cases students with only three years of college work may be accepted, prospective students are urged to obtain the college bachelor's degree before entering law school. The courses ordinarily pursued in the senior year of college are of special value in preparation for law study and the practice that is to follow.

While no particular subjects are prerequisite, the following are recommended as desirable pre-law concentrations: English, History, Political Science, Philosophy, Sociology, and Psychology.

Combined Academic and Law Degrees

Some colleges provide a combined degree program in which students may so combine the work in their college with the work in the Law School as to receive in six years a bachelor's degree and a law degree. Students who wish to make this arrangement must matriculate in the Law School at the beginning of their fourth or senior year and must complete the required subjects of the first-year law course. Students who complete successfully their first year of assigned work in the Law School with the required standing in the class may receive the bachelor's degree from their undergraduate college, and will then receive the Juris Doctor degree from the University of Richmond upon the completion of the remainder of the three-year law course. Students desiring to make this arrangement should confer with the dean of their college and the Dean of the Law School before matriculation.

Advanced Standing

An applicant for advanced standing must comply with the requirements for admission governing candidates for the J.D. degree and must be eligible to continue at or be readmitted to the law school previously attended.

No credit will be given for work completed in another law school unless at the time such credit is presented, it is acceptable to the school where it was earned and such school is either a member of the Association of American Law Schools or on the Approved List of the American Bar Association.

Credit on work transferred must have been completed with at least the grade of C or its equivalent. Credit granted is conditioned upon the successful completion of not less than twenty-eight semester hours at this School.

Requirements for Graduation

Academic Requirements: The law degree is conferred in person upon "Candidates for the J.D. degree" only at a University Commencement.

Subject Requirements: The successful completion of eighty-four (84) semester hours of law work is required for the J.D. degree. The following courses are prescribed: Contracts, Torts, Personal Property, Real Property, Criminal Law, Judicial Remedies, Legal Bibliography, Legal Profession, Wills and Administration, Agency and Partnership, Practice, Evidence, Private Corporations, Constitutional Law, and Equity; total, fifty-two (52) semester hours. Thirty-two (32) semester hours of electives must be taken.

Does this work?

Scholastic Requirements: The passing grade is sixty (60). Not over sixteen (16) semester hours of credit obtained on grades below sixty-two (62) may be counted toward graduation.

Requirements for Graduation

Time Requirements: Applicants for the degree must have been in residence at this or at this and another law school for at least three academic years.

Attendance during a full session of the summer school will be deemed one semester of residence, provided the student registers for, and is examined in, not less than ten (10) semester hours of work.

Fees: The degree will not be conferred until the applicant has paid all fees due the University.

Filing of Application: Applications for the degree shall be filed by February 15. The application shall be accompanied by the Diploma Fee of $7.50.

Grading System

The passing grade is 60.

The grade of A is 80-100; B is 70-79; C is 62-69; D is 60-61; E is 50-59; F is below 50.

The passing grade of 60 has been selected in order to allow a range of grades wide enough to reflect the wide differences of ability between those students who are merely competent and those who are good or excellent. Grades are given on the theory that a grade of 100 would indicate a perfect understanding of the subject in question. Grades above 80 are unusual and indicate distinguished excellence.

Reports of grades made on examinations are published to students after the close of the semester.

Rules of Attendance and Scholarship

A student will not be permitted to attend any class until his name has been entered on the official roll of that class by the Dean, and provision for payment of fees has been approved by the Treasurer.

A first-year student may not register for more than the required work, which is fourteen (14) semester hours in each semester.

No student in the second or third year may register for more than eighteen (18) semester hours in any semester without special permission of the Dean.

A student may not pursue work for more than eight (8) semesters, including residence at other law schools, unless permitted to do so by special action of the faculty.

A student who fails to pass 61% of the work in which he is registered for the year shall be automatically suspended, and will not be readmitted except by special action of the faculty.

Students are held responsible for attendance and prepared recitation at all meetings of their classes. No excuses for absences are accepted and no indulgence therefor will be granted in examining and grading a student.

Regularity of attendance and the quality of classroom recitation may be considered with the student's final examination paper in determining his grade on each course. Any instructor may strike from the roll of his class at any time the name of any student who, in his opinion, is failing to demonstrate a satisfactory degree of interest, ability, and industry in his work in that course.

Under no circumstances will an instructor permit a student to take the final examination in a course if his record shows absences exceeding twenty-five per cent (25%) of the scheduled lectures therein.

Students are not permitted to have outside employment which will interfere with their devoting substantially all their working time to law study.

All work will be done under the Honor System, administered by the Student Bar Association under a Code of Ethics. All students, upon matriculation, become members of the Student Bar Association.

Honor System

In July 1971 the Trustees of the University of Richmond approved and published a Policy Statement on Standards of Conduct, Penalties, and Disciplinary Procedures governing the conduct of students, faculty, administrators, staff members, and all other persons, whether or not their presence is authorized on the campuses of the University of Richmond or at University-sponsored activities and functions. This Policy Statement, based on an extensive study by a committee of student, faculty, administrative, and Trustee representatives, sets forth those standards of conduct which the University of Richmond deems essential for fulfilling its educational mission and community life. A copy of this Policy Statement and any officially approved revisions thereof are furnished to each student who registers and to each person who is employed by the University. All members of the University community should familiarize themselves with this Policy Statement and with any other official publications, handbooks, or announcements issued from time to time by the University of Richmond or by individual Colleges and Schools of the University.

Standards of Conduct*

The University of Richmond considers cultivation of self-discipline by members of the University community to be of primary importance in the educational process and essential to the development of responsible citizens. All members of the University community are expected to conduct themselves, both within the University and elsewhere, in such a manner as to be a credit to themselves and to the University of Richmond. As responsible men and women, they are expected also to seek the resolution of all issues through the processes of reason. Moreover, they have a responsibility for complying with local, state, and federal laws, and with all published University policies and regulations. In a community of learning, individual or group conduct that is unlawful, that disrupts or interferes with the educational process, that causes destruction of property or otherwise infringes upon the rights of other members of the University community or of the University itself, cannot be tolerated.

Any person who violates the standards of conduct and regulations of the University of Richmond shall be subject to disciplinary action and, if need be, legal action. Disciplinary action may range from reprimand up to and including dismissal or expulsion from the University. Penalties will be imposed after a proper determination has been made in accordance with established disciplinary procedures of the University, with due process observed and with appropriate appeal procedures available, as outlined in the aforementioned Policy Statement and any approved revisions thereof.

* See previous section for standards of student conduct under the Honor System.

Examinations

Unless announced otherwise by the instructor, the period for an examination will be six hours in six semester-hour courses, four hours in four semester-hour courses, three and one-half hours in three semester-hour courses, and three hours in two semester-hour courses.

A student who finds that he will be unavoidably prevented from taking an examination at the time scheduled, may, if he communicates such fact to the Dean on or before the morning of such examination, receive permission to take an examination at a later date; otherwise the instructor will not be required to grade or be justified in grading a paper if submitted.

In exceptional cases students may be permitted by the Dean to take an examination in absentia under such conditions as he may deem proper.

Failure to take an examination given in a course for which the student has registered, unless excused by the Dean, will be recorded as "Incomplete" and treated as a "Failure." No student will be permitted to resign from a course without the consent of the Dean, and then only for an adequate reason.

Re-examinations

A student receiving a grade of F (i.e. below 50) in any course will be required to repeat the course.

Does it ask?
A student receiving a grade of E in any course (i.e. 50 to 59) may take the next regular examination in that course without repeating class attendance. Only one such re-examination may be taken without repeating class attendance.

A student receiving a grade of D (i.e. 60 or 61) in any course may, without repeating class attendance, take the next regular examination in such course for the purpose of raising the grade. If the grade on the re-examination is 62 or higher, a grade of 62 shall be recorded; if the grade is lower than 62, the original grade shall remain unaltered. Only one such re-examination may be taken in any course without repeating class attendance therein.

Financial Aid

SCHOLARSHIPS: The Williams Law Scholarships. The following are offered to students of unusual ability: (a) one 3-year scholarship of $4,000, paying $1,400 the first year and $1,300 each of the two succeeding years; (b) one 3-year scholarship of $2,500, paying $1,000 the first year and $750 each of the two succeeding years; (c) two 3-year scholarships of $1,500 each, paying $500 the first year and $500 each of the two succeeding years.

The Hunton, Williams, Gay and Gibson Scholarship. An annual award of $500 is made possible by the generosity of the Richmond law firm of Hunton, Williams, Gay and Gibson in recognition of the quality of legal education offered at this School of Law.

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of character, leadership, scholastic attainment, and capacity for law study. Applications for scholarships should be submitted by February 1 on forms prescribed by the faculty and in compliance with "Instructions for Scholarship Applicants" which will be furnished upon request addressed to the Dean. Preference is given to beginning law students.

LOANS: Loans on liberal terms are available from the University, State and Federal government programs, and private foundations. Information will be furnished upon request.

All student aid at the University of Richmond is awarded without regard to race, color, national origin, or sex.

Prizes

The Charles T. Norman prize, a gold medal, is awarded annually to the best all-around law graduate. The 1971 winner was James H. Chamblin, Leesburg, Virginia.

The Michie Company prize, Burks Pleading and Practice, for the first-year student who attains the highest scholastic average in that class was in 1971 awarded to Fred A. Talbot, Portsmouth, Virginia.

The Lawyers Title Award, $100 in cash and a certificate, is awarded annually to a graduate for excellence in the law of real property. The 1971 winner was Allan W. Smith, Norfolk, Virginia.

McNeill Law Society

The McNeill Law Society is named in memory of Walter Scott McNeill, beloved professor in the School from 1905 to 1930. Monthly meetings are held, at which time legal essays and other papers prepared by the members are delivered. Membership is limited to students who have attained a high scholastic average and who have a special interest in research, writing, and the oral presentation of papers.

University Expenses

1. Regular Session.

(a) Charges for the full regular session:

College fee	$1,500.00
Tuition fee	300.00
Student Bar Association fee	60.00
Total for Session	$1,860.00

One-half of fees is payable upon entrance, and the remaining half is payable January 9.

An advance payment of $50.00 on the above fees must be made when the applicant's application is formally approved.

(b) Students entering the second semester pay one-half of the fees charged for the full session, i.e. $930.00.

(c) Part-time Students: The fees of a student who matriculates for eight (8) semester hours, or less, in a semester, and whose program for the degree contemplates a total of over six semesters of residence, are:

Matriculation fee, each semester	$ 10.00
Tuition fee, each semester-hour of work	90.00
Student Bar Association fee, each semester ..	30.00

2. Summer Session, 1972.

(a) Charges for the full summer session:

College fee	$550.00
Tuition fee	150.00
Total for Summer Session	$700.00

(b) Students attending one term of summer session pay one-half of fees charged for the full session, i.e. $350.00.

(c) Part-time Students: Students who matriculate for less than four (4) semester hours in a term will pay:

Matriculation fee	$ 10.00
Tuition fee, each semester-hour of work	$ 70.00

3. Students who matriculate to take re-examinations pay:

Matriculation fee	$ 10.00
Examination fee, each examination	$ 10.00

4. A Diploma fee of $7.50 is payable on February 15 and is not refundable.

5. Fee for late registration

$ 10.00

6. Fee for Campus Permit, per motor vehicle

$ 15.00

* The University reserves the right to increase the fees listed herein and the charges for room and board, if conditions should make such changes necessary or advisable. The changes will be announced as far in advance as feasible.

7. Single non-dormitory students not residing with their families may pay a $25.00 per session medical fee and be entitled to medical care by the University Infirmary.

University Expenses

The College fee is an entrance charge paid by all students to cover the privileges of the campus and buildings, including the use of libraries, and is not subject to deduction or in any case refunded.

The Student Bar Association fee of $60.00 was established upon petition of students and alumni. This fee finances the activities of the University of Richmond Student Bar Association, the various student publications of the University, admits students to all athletic contests regularly scheduled and played by the University teams on home grounds, and includes $2.50 for use of the Student Center.

Students are matriculated for a full term. In case of withdrawal or separation for whatever cause, no refund of fees or any part of fees is made.

No diploma is granted or credit given for the session's work until all charges have been satisfactorily settled.

The books and supplies required in the first year, if purchased new, will cost about $100.00. Second-hand books are available at lower cost. All books may be secured at reasonable prices through the Law School Book Exchange located in the Law School building.

Books

Rooms in the Law Dormitory are available upon application to the Dean of the Law School accompanied by check payable to University of Richmond in the amount of $50. Second- and third-year students may reserve a room for the following session by filing a written request, accompanied by deposit, in the Dean's Office by May 1. This deposit will be refunded only if written notice releasing the reservation is filed in the Dean's Office by June 1. Applications for rooms by first-year students will be accepted only after the applicant has been accepted for admission to the School. Rooms will be assigned to first-year men after June 1 in the order of application, and the deposit will be refunded only if written notice releasing the reservation is filed in the Dean's Office by July 1.

Room and Board*

If a student occupies the room, the above deposit of fifty dollars, less any charges for damages to buildings and furnishings, will be returned after the close of the session. The rooms are furnished, and students are expected to provide only bed linens and blankets. The charge for room covers medical care by the University Infirmary but does not cover cost of medicines, expenses at a hospital, or the services of any additional physician or nurse. The cost of room and board combined is $900 for the session. Should a student desire a room without board, the cost will be $400 for the session.

* See footnote on page 16.

Room and Board

Assignments to the dormitory are for the entire session, thus making a student responsible for the room charge for both semesters. Should a dormitory resident withdraw from school at the end of the first semester, the student will not be held responsible for his room rent for the following semester, but his room deposit will be forfeited. Notice of withdrawal must be given in advance and approved by the Dean and the Treasurer. If withdrawal is on account of the student's sickness, a refund may be made in the charge for board.

Students may obtain furnished rooms in private homes near the campus or in the city at prices varying from $30 to $50 a month. Off-campus students may purchase some or all meals at the University Refectory.

Placement of Graduates

The Placement Service of the Law School will assist graduates to find openings for the practice of law and other legal work.

Summer Session

The summer session is composed of two terms of six weeks each. A total of six semester hours credit may be earned in each term. Classes begin at 8:30 A.M. and end at 12:30 P.M., meeting five days a week. Attendance at one full summer session will be deemed equivalent to one semester's residence where ten semester hours have been pursued during the session. No first-year classes are offered in the summer session.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND

FOUNDED 1830

ENROLLMENT: 3,000, FULL-TIME; 4,000, PART-TIME

The University of Richmond offers a unique educational experience. The largest private university in Virginia, it retains the intimate atmosphere of a small college supported by all the resources and strengths of a major university, but with emphasis on quality rather than size. A $50 million gift by Trustee E. Claiborne Robins and his family in 1969 has assured the University of financial stability and will enable it to become one of the strongest small private universities in the country.

The coordinate structure of the University's seven colleges and schools offers the advantages of a coeducational campus along with the benefits of small, separately administered colleges. Six of the seven coordinate divisions are located on the main campus: Richmond College, for undergraduate men; Westhampton College, for undergraduate women; the School of Business Administration; the Graduate School; the T. C. Williams School of Law; and the Summer School. University College, offering both day and evening classes, is located in the heart of downtown Richmond. Each college has its own dean, faculty and students, but contributes to the entire University academically and socially. Degree programs may be pursued in each of the seven colleges, but all degrees are granted by the University of Richmond.

The University is located in the western suburbs of Richmond, on a beautiful 350-acre campus of rolling hills, stately oaks and green pines, surrounding a 10-acre lake. The natural beauty of the setting is enhanced by the Collegiate Gothic architecture of the buildings. Although the campus has an informal, relaxed atmosphere, it is only twenty minutes from the center of Virginia's thriving capital city.

Among the University's greatest assets are an outstanding faculty and small classes. Of the full-time teaching faculty, more than 60 per cent hold earned doctorates. The student-faculty ratio is 14 to 1.

Distinctive programs include interdisciplinary studies, the Honors Program, and Colloquia for Freshmen. A new area curriculum enables the student to select courses from a wide variety of offerings.

University of Richmond students join in numerous extracurricular activities: student government, publications, radio station, dramatic productions, choir, glee club, band and orchestra, debate, campus forums, dances, fraternities, intramural and intercollegiate sports, and denominational religious groups.

The University's more than 17,000 alumni throughout the United States and a number of foreign countries include many who have achieved distinguished careers in law, government, medicine, business, industry, education, and the arts.

ACCREDITATION AND MEMBERSHIPS

The University of Richmond's accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools covers all of its programs. The University is accredited also by the Virginia State Board of Education. The Department of Chemistry is accredited by the American Chemical Society. The School of Law is accredited by the recognized standardizing agencies in America; it is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the approved lists of the American Bar Association and the Virginia State Board of Bar Examiners; its Juris

Doctor degree is accredited by the Regents of the University of the State of New York. The School of Business Administration is accredited by the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.

The University of Richmond is also a member of the Southern University Conference, the Association of American Colleges, the American Council on Education, the National Commission on Accrediting, the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States, and the National Association of Summer Sessions. In addition, Westhampton College is a corporate member of the American Association of University Women.

The University, one of the affiliated institutions of the University Center in Virginia, benefits from the several cooperative programs of the Center.

The University invites inquiries concerning its academic programs and welcomes visits from prospective students and their parents. These visits should be arranged preferably while the University is in session. Visitors are requested to write or telephone the appropriate Dean or Director of Admissions in advance of an intended visit.

RICHMOND COLLEGE (1830)

ENROLLMENT: 1,300 MEN

Richmond College, the oldest and largest of the seven colleges and schools that make up the University of Richmond, is the coordinate liberal arts and sciences division for undergraduate men. It offers programs that lead to the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. Students may concentrate in most academic fields except engineering. Pre-medical, pre-dental, pre-law, pre-business, and pre-forestry courses are also offered. Twelve national fraternities have chapters on the campus, and a Student Center provides social activities for all students. Students also enjoy the varied social and cultural opportunities available in the City of Richmond. A 10-million dollar athletic center on the campus, with the most modern facilities for physical education and intercollegiate athletics, will be completed in December 1972. There is ample opportunity to participate in a variety of extracurricular activities.

WESTHAMPTON COLLEGE (1914)

ENROLLMENT: 600 WOMEN

The liberal arts and sciences college for undergraduate women within the University of Richmond, Westhampton College, offers a strong academic program leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science in Physical Education. Although Westhampton College and Richmond College are coordinate colleges with separate student bodies and administrative staffs, these two colleges share many facilities. Richmond College men and Westhampton College women attend most classes together and participate jointly in such activities as publications, choir, band, orchestra, dramatics, forensics, and campus clubs. Guidance and counseling are provided through a faculty adviser system and the University Center for Psychological Services. In addition to a variety of intramural athletic activities, Westhampton women have intercollegiate varsity teams in field hockey, basketball, lacrosse, tennis, swimming, and archery.

THE T.C. WILLIAMS SCHOOL OF LAW (1870)

ENROLLMENT: 200; COEDUCATIONAL

A particularly rich educational experience is shared by the students at the T. C. Williams School of Law. With a small, highly selected enrollment, the student is assured of individual attention. Located within the City of Richmond, the seat of Virginia's government, the Law School offers its students unusual opportunities to examine firsthand the various county, city, and state courts, including the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. In addition to highly competent full-time professors, leading members of the Richmond and Virginia bars teach many of the elective courses. There are modern classrooms, seminar rooms, meeting rooms for student organizations, and a handsome courtroom. A new wing has been completed to expand the Law School building, making available more space for classrooms, library holdings, and offices. The Law School, offering courses leading to the Juris Doctor degree, has recently entered upon its second century of service to the Commonwealth and to the Nation.

SUMMER SCHOOL (1920)

ENROLLMENT: 1,600; COEDUCATIONAL

In addition to undergraduate and graduate courses, the Summer School affords opportunities to participate in the Study Abroad Program, pre-professional courses, law, the high school junior program, and courses for teaching certificate renewal. Also there are various workshops and institutes. Day classes are held on the main campus of the University of Richmond; evening classes meet at University College in downtown Richmond. The faculty of the Summer School is drawn from the other six divisions of the University as well as from other institutions.

GRADUATE SCHOOL (1921)

ENROLLMENT: 150; COEDUCATIONAL

The Graduate School offers programs leading to the Master of Arts degree in Ancient Languages, Biology, English, French, History, Political Science, Psychology, and Spanish; the Master of Science degree in Biology, Chemistry, and Physics; the Master of Education (primarily in the summer session); the Master of Commerce; and the Master of Humanities. The Commerce and Humanities programs, both of which are terminal, are offered in the evening in University College.

In addition, students holding undergraduate degrees may matriculate in the Graduate School as special students to take undergraduate courses, or they may take graduate courses not in degree programs.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (1949)

ENROLLMENT: 250 JUNIORS AND SENIORS ONLY; COEDUCATIONAL

The School of Business Administration is nationally accredited by the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business. The School's principal objective is to provide a professional college education to qualified students and to prepare them to meet the present and future challenges of a complex business world. The degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration is offered, with majors in Accounting, Economics, Finance, Management, and Marketing. Based upon a broad background in the arts and sciences, the academic program is designed to provide knowledge and understanding of the fundamentals common to business enterprise, with the opportunity for specialization in one or more areas of study, and to develop the student's creative and analytical thought processes. Enrollment in the School of Business Administration is kept sufficiently small to insure each student a close relationship with the faculty and his fellow students. Approximately one half of the student body comes from other divisions of the University of Richmond; the remaining students are transfers from junior colleges and other senior colleges and universities.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE (1962)

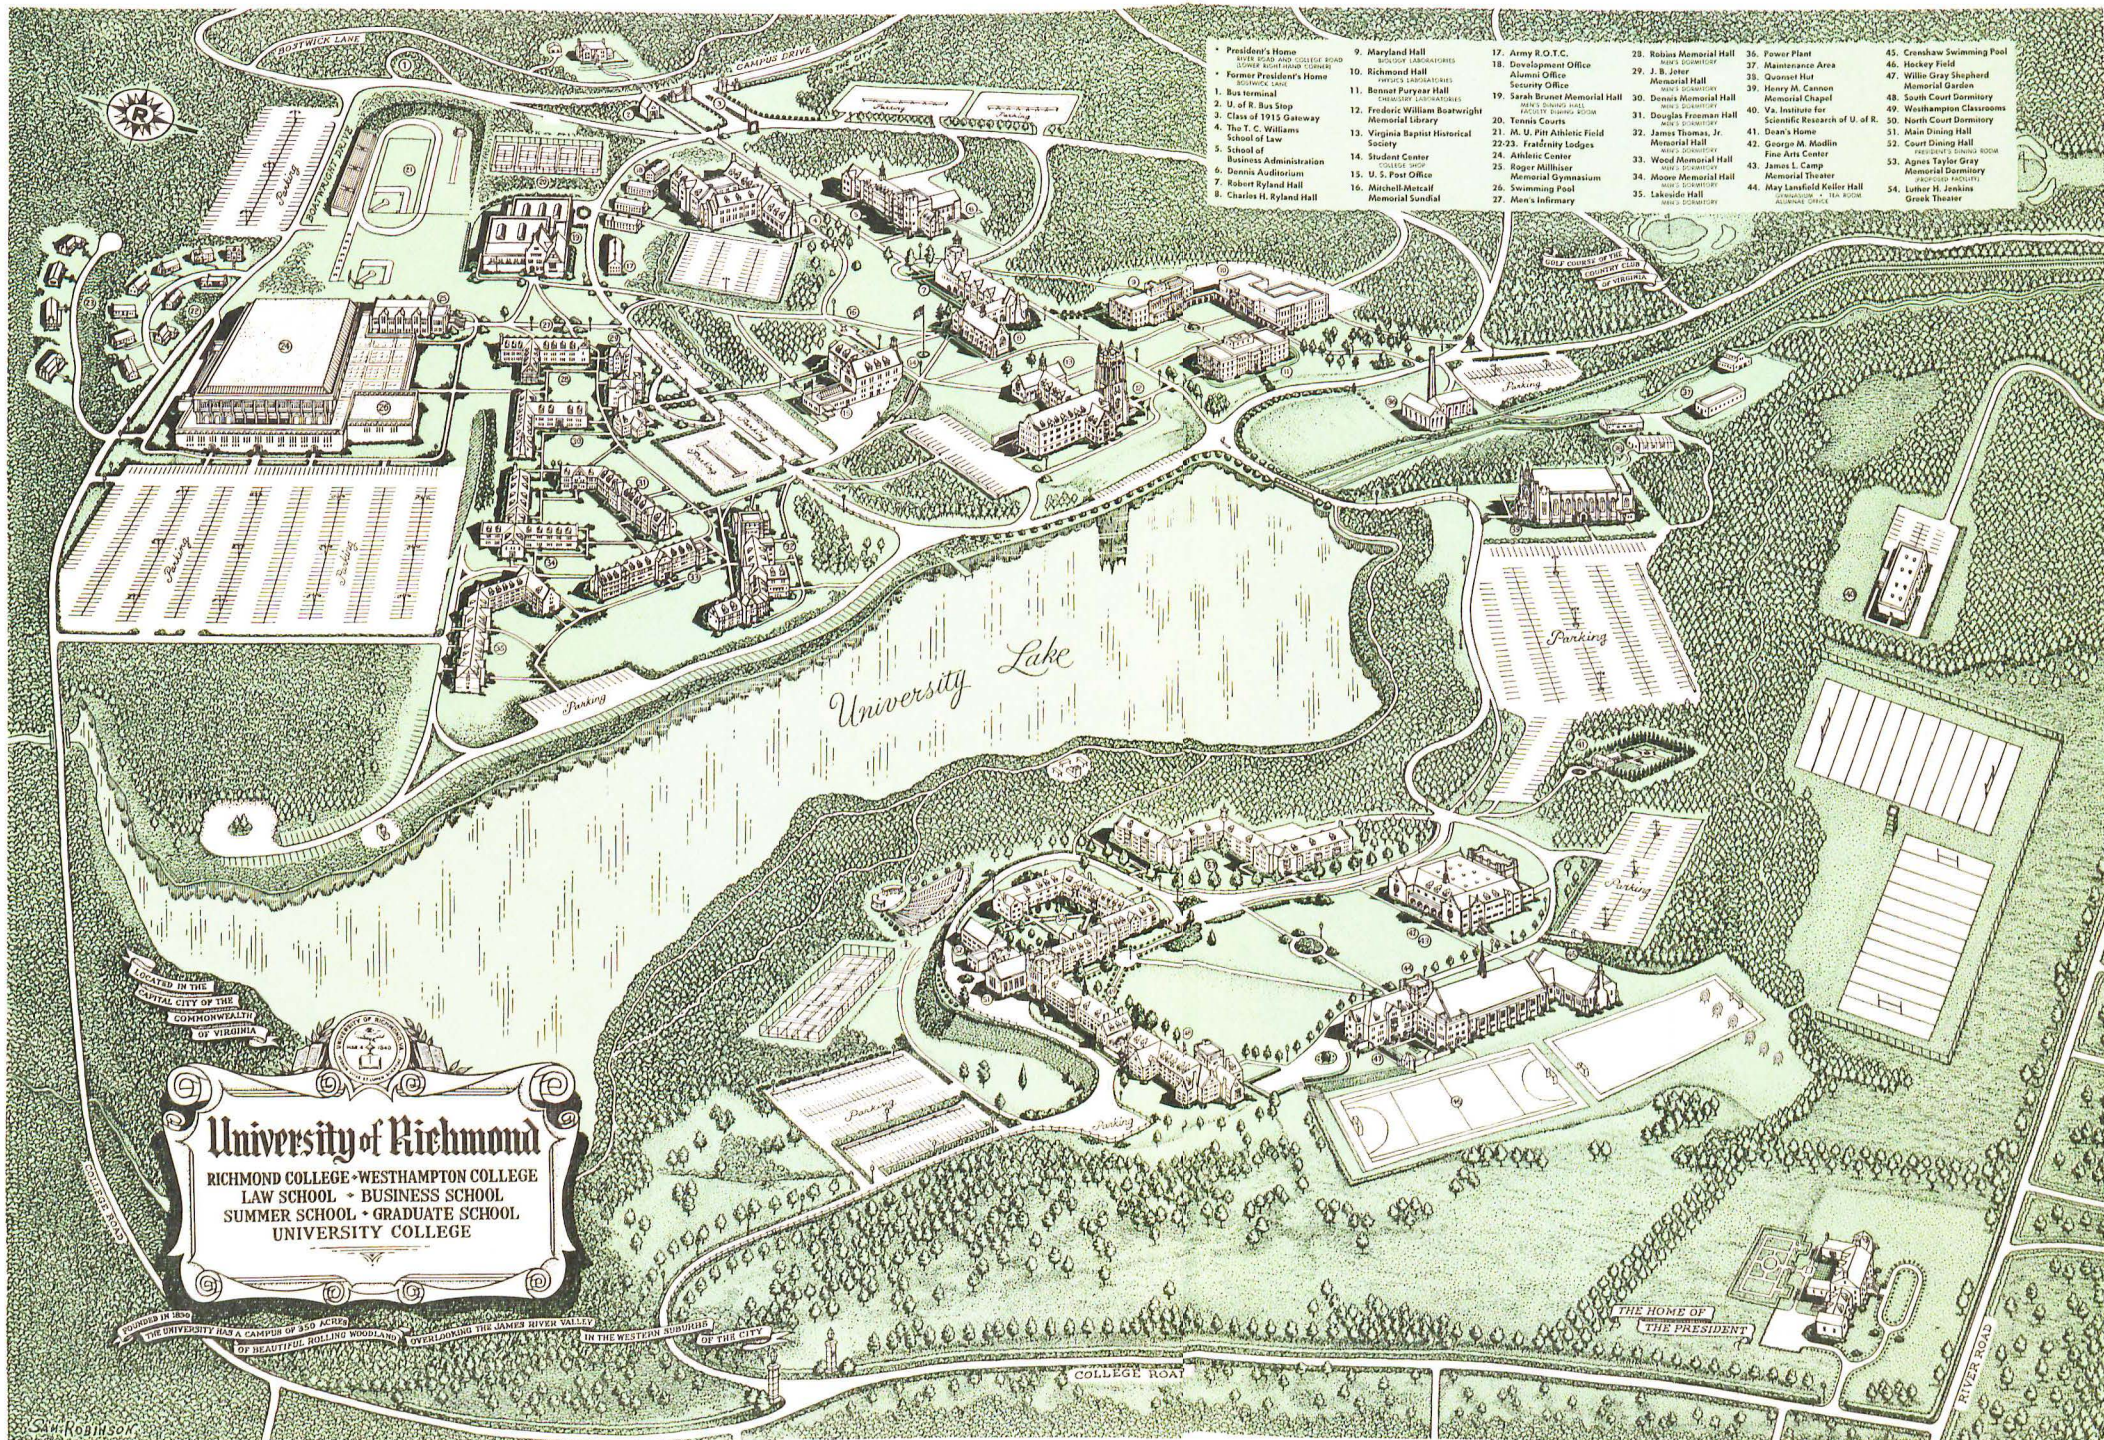

ENROLLMENT: 400, FULL-TIME; 2,500, PART-TIME; COEDUCATIONAL

University College was created in 1962 to serve as an urban-oriented college to offer to the City of Richmond programs reflecting the strengths of the University of Richmond and directed toward the needs of the community. Students may enroll full time or part time to take courses in day or evening, with or without credit. University College offers the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Commerce, Master of Commerce, Master of Humanities, and the Associate in Arts award and Associate in Commerce award. The three major divisions of University College are the Day Division, the Evening Division, and the Institute for Business and Community Development. Each offers to a particular segment of the community many opportunities for continuing education. Located in the heart of Richmond, University College is convenient to the constituencies it serves.
